PICK SIX

1. THE GAME: Idaho hits the road for the first of two back-to-back games against Power-5 opponents. The Vandals play Indiana at Memorial Stadium in Bloomington, Ind. The game is scheduled for 4:30 p.m. Pacific (7:30 p.m. EDT) and will broadcast to a national audience on the Big Ten Network.

2. ABOUT IDAHO: The Vandals are on the road after a 68-0 win over Simon Fraser, one of the most lopsided wins in program history. Seven Idaho players scored touchdowns in the season opener, including three from running back Roshawn Johnson. Logan Prescott also added a 21-yard field goal. Eight vandals carried the ball and eight Idaho players caught passes in the winning effort.

3. ABOUT INDIANA: The Hoosiers are coming off a disappointing season-opening loss to Iowa in a Big Ten Conference battle. Indiana gave up three interceptions, including two pick-sixes in the 34-6 loss. Despite the lopsided score, the Indiana defense held Iowa to just 303 yards and 18 first downs. The Hoosiers couldn't find an offensive rhythm and failed to get the ball into the endzone. Stephen Carr led the rushing attack with 57 yards and Ty Fryfogle had a team-high 84 receiving yards on five receptions.

4. TRE WALKER: Fourth-year linebacker Tre Walker proved why he's the best in the Big Sky last season. He led the conference with 13.5 tackles per game in his four outings and went on to earn five All-America honors. Walker was also a finalist for the Buck Buchanan Award, given annually to the top defensive player in FCS. His preseason accolades got better, as he was named the Big Sky Conference Preseason MVP and has been a consistent First Team Preseason All-America selection.

5. COACHING CHANGES: Head coach Paul Petrino announced coaching changes. Brian Reader was promoted to Offensive Coordinator after the retirement of veteran assistant Kris Cinkovich. Quarterbacks coach Charley Molnar was promoted to Assistant Head Coach and Pryce Tracy added the title of Recruiting Coordinator to his running back duties.

6. QB BATTLE: Idaho enters the 2021 fall season with three strong options at the quarterback position. Mike Beaudry and CJ Jordan entered last year looking to battle for the starting spot, while Zach Borisch emerged as a dark horse candidate following his incredible performance at Eastern Washington. All three continue to compete for the starting job in Moscow.

NOTES

BOTH SIDES OF THE BALL

Junior captain Logan Kendall has made a name for himself as a fullback and tight end, but the All-American has shown himself useful on the defensive side of the ball. He recorded a sack against Simon Fraser and has shown the ability to be a disruptive force on the edge for the Vandals.

Kendall isn't the only one showing his versatility. sophomore Tommy McCormick flipped from receiver to safety and grabbed an interception in Saturday's game against Simon Fraser. All American linebacker Tre Walker also carried the ball six times for 26 yards in the spring season.

VANDAL FOOTBALL A FAMILY AFFAIR

The 2021 Vandal football roster includes five sets of brothers and two sets of twins. The McCormick brothers (Sean and Tommy) and the Hatten brothers (Hayden and Hogan) are twins. Along with the twins, redshirt junior defensive lineman Noah Elliss is the son of defensive line coach Luther Elliss.

TRANSFERS

The Vandals added several transfers ahead of the fall season. Wide receivers Terez Traynor and Mekhi Stevenson, as well as Michael Graves, are expected to have an immediate impact for the Vandal offense. Defensively, KJ Jarrell and Jeremiah Salaam highlight a reloaded secondary.

POINTS IN HISTORY

The Vandals outscored Simon Fraser to a mark of 68-0. It was the most points scored in a game since 1994 when UI topped Weber State 79-30. It is the second-largest margin of victory in Vandal history behind the 83-0 win over the College of Idaho in 1923.

PALTRY PENALTIES

The Vandals had just one penalty in the entire game against Simon Fraser. The disciplined play was matched by just four teams in the FCS.

NO PUNTS FOR YOU

The Vandals tallied 13 drives against Simon Fraser. UI tallied nine touchdowns, a field goal, a pair of fumbles and a "turnover on downs" late in the fourth quarter, but there wasn't a single punt in the season opener.

BIG TIME BIG SKY

The Vandals belong to the Big Sky Conference, an FCS Power Conference that showed that power on Week 1. Montana, Eastern Washington and UC Davis all earned wins over FBS opponents. The Vandals hope to continue the trend with games against Indiana and Oregon State in the next two weeks.

QUICK TURNAROUND

The Vandals returned to the field last Saturday after an offseason that was just 140 days long. UI ended the season with a game against NAU on April 17.

QUICK GAME NOTES

- All three quarterbacks saw action in game one. Zach Borisch got the start, but was replaced after three plays. (9/4)
- C.J. Jordan tallied 161 yards and two TDs on 7-12 passing. He also rushed for 61 yards. (9/4)
- Mike Beaufry was 10-15 for 116 yards passing and rushed for 47 yards. (9/4)
- Borisch ran for 34 yards on eight carries. (9/4)
- Roshaun Johnson tallied 87 yards and three TDs to lead the rushing attack. (9/4)

8 BIG SKY CHAMPIONSHIPS | 11 NCAA PLAYOFF APPEARANCES

IT STARTS AT THE TOP

HEAD COACH PAUL PETRINO

► 2016 SUN BELT CONFERENCE COACH OF THE YEAR

Paul Petrino enters his ninth season as Idaho's head coach in 2020. Petrino got his first taste of Division I coaching as an assistant at Idaho from 1992-94, including three consecutive NCAA Playoff appearances.

The Vandals continued to improve in 2019, the second season back in the Big Sky. The non-conference portion of the season included a big win over nationally-ranked Eastern Washington in the Kibbie Dome and a tight battle at Wyoming. The Vandals saw some flashes during the Big Sky portion of the season, earning wins over Idaho State and Cal Poly. Idaho closed the season with record-setting performances from wide receiver Jeff Cotton and quarterback Mason Petrino to defeat Northern Arizona in overtime. Cotton would lead the nation in receptions per game at 8.8, and finished second in the country in yards per game. Cotton would go on to get picked up by the Los Angeles Chargers in the offseason.

Off the field, the Vandals posted a team GPA of 3.13 in the spring of 2020, smashing the previous team record. The entire department posted back-to-back record GPAs in 2019-20, in part due to the incredible success of the football team academically.

Idaho's 2018 campaign, its first in its return to the Football Championship Subdivision and the Big Sky Conference, included the Vandals' first win over a nationally-ranked opponent in 11 years. North Dakota came to the Kibbie Dome as the No. 25 team in the country according to the coaches' poll. Idaho came away with a 31-27 victory thanks to Mason Petrino finding Cotton in the end zone with 27 seconds to play. It was Idaho's first win over a team ranked in either national poll (media or coaches) in the FCS or FBS since 2007.

The 2017 team featured the first five-year class of Vandals under Petrino. Among that group was record-setting quarterback Matt Linehan, 1,000-yard rusher Aaron Duckworth and Academic All-America wide receiver Jacob Sannon.

A four-year starter under Petrino, Linehan surpassed some of the most sacred names in Vandal football history. He became the program's all-time leader in completions and when his senior season was cut three games short by injury, Linehan finished just shy of Doug Nussmeier's record for career passing yards.

Idaho played a school-record seven one-possession games in 2017, including its five conference losses coming by a combined 24 points, on the way to finishing 4-8. Still, the team featured 10 all-conference selections. For the first time since 2008 three Vandals picked up first-team accolades, including Duckworth who became the first Idaho running back to earn first-team all-league honors since 2000.

Petrino's head coaching career thus far is highlighted by Idaho's 2016 campaign. He guided the Vandals to bowl eligibility for the first time since 2009 - and won their bowl game in record-setting and entertaining fashion. For his efforts, Petrino was voted the 2016 Sun Belt Coach of the Year.

The Vandals' bowl eligibility was the result of their posting their best regular-season record since the 1998 team (Idaho's first bowl team) went 8-3. They wrapped up the year 9-4 after beating Colorado State 61-50 in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl - largely recognized as one of the most entertaining of the bowl season. It was the highest-scoring bowl game of 2016 and Linehan, who was named game MVP, had one of the top pass efficiency ratings of any quarterback involved in postseason play.

The bowl victory was the culmination of not just gritty, determined efforts week-in and week-out during 2016, but of the first four years of Petrino's reign. After back-to-back one-victory seasons, the Vandals were 4-8 in 2015. That marked the beginning of the on-field visibility of the process that started in December 2012 when Petrino was hired.

From the minute he arrived on the University of Idaho campus, Petrino infused the Vandals with an intensity that reverberated around the Kibbie Dome and throughout the Vandal Family. His practices mirror his personality - focused, intense and determined.

With his accountability-based approach in place, the Vandals' APR has improved every season and the team's spring 2017 grade-point average of 2.91 was the program's second-highest term GPA prior to 2020. He was using the same approach to elevating the classroom successes as he was on the field where effort and discipline were being preached day in and day out. The result was the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl victory and one of the most incredible program turnarounds in history. The program had waded through three successive one-victory seasons (one under the previous staff) before four wins in 2015 and the 9-4 2016 team.

Bits and pieces of the progress made deep within the program were evident before the wins started to build on the field. Broc Westlake, a linebacker throughout Petrino's tenure, graduated in December 2015 with a perfect 4.0 grade-point average and was one of two Vandals to earn the department's prestigious Rich and Mary Fox Award, which is given annually to the graduating student-athlete(s) with the highest cumulative grade-point average. In graduating Summa Cum Laude, he also was recognized as a National Football Foundation's Hampshire Honor Society.

In 2015, the Vandals led the Sun Belt in seven statistical categories and were second in another five. Those conference rankings translated to their being in the top 25 percent nationally in 11 categories.

In his first season back at Idaho, he took the Vandals against a schedule that featured not only the eventual national champion, but a total of seven bowl teams, which included four teams that, at one time or another, were ranked among the nation's top 25. While the Vandals didn't finish with the win-loss mark he would have liked, his first class of recruits showed it can provide the base for a bright Vandal future.

HEAD COACH PAUL PETRINO

In that season, Petrino had his first Vandal All-American in punter Austin Rehkow, whose record-setting season earned him a spot on the Walter Camp All-America team. A true freshman in 2013, Rehkow's average of 47.8 yards per kick is an NCAA record for a freshman as well as the overall record for a player who punted at least 75 times in one season. He went on to become the only four-time first-team all-conference selection in Vandal history.

In year two of his tenure, Petrino took the Vandals back to the Sun Belt Conference after one season as an FBS independent. A passing game fueled by Linehan, a redshirt freshman at the time, and senior receiver Joshua McCain was one of the nation's best and Rehkow again repeated as the national punting average leader and was a finalist for the Ray Guy Award. The Vandals were significantly more competitive and off the field they made huge improvements in the classroom. The team posted one of its highest grade-point-averages in team history and improved its APR by leaps and bounds.

Coaching football is in Petrino's blood. Tagging along with his dad, Bob Petrino, Sr., as he coached the Carroll College (Montana) Saints into national prominence, Petrino knew from the time he was six years old he wanted to coach. He played for his dad at Carroll and was the Football Gazette NAIA Division II Player of the Year and a two-time Kodak All-American quarterback after setting 16 school records during a career that included four conference titles and a 36-6 record from 1985-88. He's paid his dues – and along the way has put together a résumé of success.

During his 23 years as an assistant, he coached in 12 bowl games and five I-AA playoff games. He spent one season (2007) with the NFL's Atlanta Falcons. As a Division I coach, he was on staffs who combined for a 152-93 record – a .650 winning percentage.

He already made his mark at Idaho when he coached two players who have been inducted into the Vandal Athletics Hall of Fame – running back Sherriden May and receiver Yo Murphy. They are just a small sampling of the successes of his players. In the 2012 NFL draft, five offensive players under his tutelage were drafted. The group, which included four receivers, represented the greatest number of players coached by one coach in that year's draft.

For Petrino, the return to Moscow was a return to his Northwest roots. A native of Butte, Mont., he was raised in Helena where his football legacy began. After serving as an assistant to his dad for two seasons (1990-91), he headed to Moscow for his first stop with the Vandals when he was hired as the receivers/running backs/special teams coach in 1992. His next stop was Utah State (receivers/special teams, 1995-97) then on to Louisville (receivers, 1998-99), Southern Miss (quarterbacks, 2000-03), Louisville (offensive coordinator/receivers, 2003-06), Atlanta Falcons (receivers, 2007), Arkansas (offensive coordinator/receivers, 2008-09), Illinois (offensive coordinator/receivers, 2010-11), and Arkansas (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks, 2012).

Petrino and his wife Maya have three children: Mason, Anne Mari and Ava.

BIG SKY PEDIGREE

THE RETURN

Idaho made its return to the Big Sky Conference in 2018. The Vandals were charter members of the Big Sky in 1963, competing in the league through 1995. Idaho won eight conference titles during that time and advanced to the FCS (then Division I-AA) Playoffs 11 of its final 14 years in the league. Idaho's first conference game as a member of the Big Sky since 1995 was Sept. 22, 2018, at UC Davis. The first home conference game was a 20-7 win against Portland State (Sept. 29).

THE KIBBIE DOME

The Kibbie-ASUI Activity Center, also called the "Kibbie Dome," is one of the most unique facilities in all of the NCAA.

The Kibbie Dome has been the home of Vandal athletics since 1975, when the barrel-arch roof was completed. In 1976, the building earned the award for America's Outstanding Structural Engineering Achievement.

It took nearly seven years to complete the 14-story-tall structure, which is tall enough that Idaho's Theophilus Tower dormitory would fit inside. Construction began in 1969 on the site of the former Neale Stadium, which had been partially destroyed by fire. The field and stands were completed in 1971, but it took four more years to finish the unique roof. The east end addition, which includes the athletic department offices, locker rooms, training rooms and a weight room, was completed in 1982.

In 2004, the facility began its next phase of improvement, as enhanced academic and athletic support facilities were added for student-athletes. The Norm and Becky Iverson Speed and Strength Center was added to more than double the size of the previous weight room to 7,000 square feet. Locker rooms were also expanded to more than 14,000 square feet.

Team meeting rooms, two student-athlete computer labs and study rooms and expanded academic support areas have also been added. In 2010, the athletic training and equipment rooms were expanded and upgraded to nearly double their respective work areas.

In 2010 and 2011, the old plywood end walls were replaced with state-of-the-art KalWall translucent panels as part of a major renovation to bring the building up to code. In conjunction with the end-wall replacement and fire-safety measures, the Litehouse Center, Bud and June Ford Club and expanded premium seating, suites and loge boxes were added and the Bob Curtis Press Box was completely rebuilt on the North side of the facility. Those improvements were privately funded.

The Kibbie Dome serves as both a training and competition facility for many of Idaho's 16 varsity athletic teams, including football, basketball, track & field, tennis and starting in 2017 soccer. The facility has a capacity of more than 16,000. When the fans get excited, the Kibbie Dome crowd noise can be deafening and intimidating to opposing teams.

Beneath the football field, which is rolled up and stored at season's end, is a premier indoor track & field facility, as well as a full indoor tennis facility. The Cowan Spectrum, where Idaho men's and women's basketball play their home games, is also a part of the Kibbie Dome floor. With 93,000 square feet of floor, there is plenty of room for each team to practice at the same time.

Vandal track & field athletes can practice year-round in the facility. The track is a 290-meter flat circular with eight lanes in the straightaway. It also has two long jump pits, two pole vault pits and two throwing circles. The spacious floor area also gives the Kibbie Dome enough space to host indoor discus and javelin competitions, a boast few other indoor facilities in the nation can make.

The Idaho men's and women's tennis programs use the facility to train and compete during the winter and in times of inclement weather conditions. The floor can be cleared for action on up to nine courts at once.

The Kibbie Dome is for more than just Vandal Athletics, too. The facility has been used to host a multitude of different events, including Idaho high school football playoffs, concerts, student activities, intramural sports, community events and graduations. The facility is also used by students and staff as a workout venue.

The internationally-renowned Lionel Hampton International Jazz Festival also calls the Kibbie Dome its home. One of the banner accomplishments of the University of Idaho, the festival was recently awarded the National Medal of Arts, the nation's most prestigious arts honor. The festival dates back to 1967 and during its history, it has featured some of the best jazz musicians to ever play, including Ella Fitzgerald, Gerry Mulligan, Dizzy Gillespie, Dianne Reeves, Stan Getz, Carmen McRae, Diana Krall, Wynton Marsalis and Sarah Vaughan and of course, Lionel Hampton and his New York Big Band.

Every year, thousands of high-school, middle-school and elementary-school students from hundreds of schools all around the United States and Canada make the pilgrimage to Moscow to take part in adjudicated performances, workshops and concerts.
