22 | Jeff Mercer

Entering his fifth season at the helm of the Indiana baseball program, head coach Jeff Mercer continues to build the program through high-level high school talent and deliberate evaluation of the transfer portal. The player development within the program has also shown in his first four seasons with a Big Ten-best 19 student-athletes drafted over that span.

Mercer start this his IU coaching career has seen him join IU coaching legend Everett Dean as the only IU coaches to win a Big Ten title in their first year as a head coach, a trip to the NCAA Louisville Regional, a season cut short due to a global pandemic and the first-ever conference-only slate in Big Ten history.

Mercer brought a winning background to Indiana. In his time as a head coach (2017-18) and an assistant coach (2014-16) at Wright State, he was a part of three Horizon League regular season and conference tournament titles, three NCAA appearances, and a combined record of 199-92 (.684). The Raiders won four NCAA tournament games over that span, having reached the regional finals twice.

Indiana Era (2019-present)

In 2022, the freshman trio of Carter Mathison, Josh Pyne and Brock Tibbitts each earned Freshman All-America honors, while the trio was joined by Evan Goforth on the Big Ten All-Freshman Team. The freshman home run record was topped by Mathison at 19 home runs, which raced past Alex Dickerson's mark (14) from 2009. That total ranked No. 3 among Division I freshmen and his 58 RBIs were No. 8 among rookies nationally.

Catcher Matthew Ellis – a junior college transfer – was among the veterans to impact the 2022 season with his 18 home runs ranking No. 2 on the team. Ellis was a third-team All-Big Ten selection at seasons end. Starting pitcher Jack Perkins made the most of his one year in Bloomington with 15 starts and 91 strikeouts, before the Oakland Athletics made him the organization's fifth-round pick in the 2022 Major League Baseball Draft.

Bradley Brehmer and Reese Sharp also hear their names called in the draft, both by the Baltimore Orioles. Brehmer was the 12th round selection and Sharp was the taken in the 20th round of the event.

The conference-only slate of 2021 produced just the second 20-plus win Big Ten effort in program history (2014) and a school-record 26 wins against B1G opponents. Twice during the season, the Hoosiers won eight of nine games, including eight straight games after dropping the season opener. Grant Richardson was a first-team All-Big Ten pick, while Gabe Bierman (second team), McCade Brown (second team) and Cole Barr (third team) also earned all-conference honors.

In the Major League Baseball Draft, the Hoosiers saw its three weekend starting pitchers, closer and top two RBI producers selected. With four picks in the first 10 rounds, the 2021 edition marked the second time in program history that four Hoosiers were taken in the top 10 rounds (2009).

In the shortened 2020 season, Mercer led the Hoosiers to a 9-6 record overall. Indiana recorded three road victories over ranked teams, beating No. 11 LSU, No. 30 South Alabama, and No. 17 East Carolina. IU also defeated in-state rival Purdue, 17-2, in seven innings.

Individually, Richardson posted a .424 batting average with three doubles, two triples, five home runs, 17 RBI and 21 runs scored over 15 games. The sophomore led the Big Ten in runs scored, home runs, slugging percentage, and total bases. He finished among the top 20 nationally in runs per game (No. 5), total bases (No. 11), slugging percentage (No. 12) and RBIs (No. 19).

In his first season as head coach, Mercer led the Hoosiers to the 2019 Big Ten regular season title and earned Big Ten Coach of the Year. The conference title was the seventh in program history for IU and the first since 1914.

The Bargersville, Indiana, native became the first Big Ten head coach since 1982 (John Anderson, Minnesota) to win a regular season conference title in their first season as the skipper. He became just the second coach in IU history – any sport, men's or women's – to win an outright Big Ten championship in his or her first year. Everett Dean (1924-25) did it in baseball in his first year at the helm.

Indiana earned the No. 2 seed in the NCAA Louisville Regional and finished the season with an overall record of 37-23 and a Big Ten mark of 17-7. A school-record 10 Hoosiers were selected in the 2019 MLB Draft, led by outfield Matt Gorski. The highest drafted Hoosier since Kyle Schwarber (No. 4 overall) in 2014, Gorski was picked in the second round (57th overall) by the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Wright State, 2009

Pitcher Andrew Saalfrank was named the Big Ten Pitcher of the Year and earned a spot on the All-Big Ten first team along with utility player Matt Lloyd. Scotty Bradley, Cole Barr and Gorski each made the second team. Elijah Dunham rounded out the all-conference honors with a third-team selection.

Wright State Era (2014-18)

The first former student-athlete to be named head coach of the baseball program, Mercer led Wright State for two seasons and amassed 77 victories. In his two seasons at the helm, WSU won nearly 70 percent of its games and averaged 38.5 wins per season. The 2018 Horizon League Coach of the Year, the Raiders won the regular season and conference tournament title in the 2018 to earn a spot in the NCAA Stanford Regional. In 2017, Mercer's squad earned the programs first-ever national ranking.

The 2018 Horizon League champions, Wright State won eight of its last 10 games and 15 of its last 19 to close the season. The Raiders grabbed the tournament title with three-straight wins and outscored opponents 32-11 during the run. With a 39-17 overall record and a 22-6 league mark, WSU ranked No. 8 in the country in scoring (7.8 rpg) and stolen bases (110) and was No. 21 in on-base percentage (.394). The Raiders' .979 fielding percentage was No. 10 nationally.

Wright State was led by Horizon League Player of the Year Gabe Snyder, who paced the conference in home runs (15) and RBI (73), and was second in batting average (.359), missing the league's Triple Crown by one batting average point. Snyder was one of 11 Raiders who earned all-league honors, including five first team honorees (Snyder, Matt Morrow, Chase Slone, Peyton Burdick and Ryan Weiss), four second teamers (Seth Gray, JD Orr, Zane Harris and Derek Hendrixson) and two named to the freshman team (Harris and Quincy Hamilton).

Wright State saw three players drafted in the 2018 MLB Draft, each taken in the first 21 rounds, led by Weiss in the fourth round by the Arizona Diamondbacks (129th overall). Caleb Sampen (20th round) was picked by the Los Angeles Dodgers and Snyder (21st round) went to the Minnesota Twins.

Known for his strength as a recruiter, Mercer and his staff helped Wright State compiled its first-ever top 100 ranked recruiting class. The 2018 signing class was ranked 87th nationally.

WSU received its first-ever top 25 ranking in 2017 and finished the year at 38-21 and 21-9 in league action. Mercer's aggressiveness in the run game resulted in Wright State ranking No. 2 nationally with 130 stolen bases.

Weiss was selected as the 2017 Horizon League Freshman of the Year and first-team all-league along with Morrow. Pitcher Danny Sexton was named a second-team All-Horizon League along with Hendrixson and Gray. Both Weiss earned Freshman All-American and second-team ABCA All-Midwest selection.

Mercer, who was a two-time All-Horizon League honoree in 2008 and 2009, returned to the Raiders as an assistant coach in 2013 and promptly helped WSU set a then-school record for wins (43) in 2015. The Raiders followed that up with a program-record 46 victories.

He assisted then-head coach Greg Lovelady, who is now the head coach at UCF, and coached six players that were taken in the MLB Draft, including five in 2016. During Mercer's three years as an assistant, the Raiders had 30 All-Horizon League honorees, two Horizon League regular season and tournament titles and two NCAA appearances.

The program's recruiting coordinator, Mercer brought in a wealth of talent to one of the premier mid-major programs in the country. He also excelled in his role as hitting coach, with 47 home runs in 2016, its most in a season since 2009

Early Coaching Career (2010-13)

Prior to the return to his alma mater, Mercer spent two seasons as a volunteer assistant coach at Western Kentucky University (2012-13). While with the Hilltoppers, he worked with pitchers and outfielders, and was also instrumental in the development and organization of the program's camps.

His first Division I experience came at the University of Michigan as the volunteer assistant coach in 2011. During his time with the Wolverines, he worked with the catchers and outfielders.

Before his arrival in Ann Arbor, Mercer spent the 2010 season as the graduate assistant coach at Ohio Northern University where he was in charge of the infielders and hitters and was the recruiting coordinator.

Indiana placed multiple student-athletes on the All-Big Ten First Team for the first time since 2019 and brought home the top individual freshman honor for the third time in program history when the conference office announced its awards before the Big Ten Tournament.

Devin Taylor earned Freshman of the Year, as well as first-team All-Big Ten. He is the second Indiana freshman position player to garner first-team All-B1G honors and just the third rookie first-teamer overall, joining Larry Blackwell (DH) in 1979 and Joey DeNato (SP) in 2011.

Ryan Kraft was named the first-team All-Big Ten relief pitcher after going 4-0 in league play with a league-best 2.50 ERA.

- The 2023 pitching staff features 20 student-athletes, with just four throwing a pitch for the Cream and Crimson entering 2022. Of the 15 newcomers, six are true freshmen, eight are Division I additions and one is a junior college transfer.
- All 19 available pitchers have appeared on the mound in 2023, the most in program history. The previous high came in 2011 when 18 arms were used.
- With experience at every level of baseball from high school to Major League Baseball, pitching coach Dustin Glant has impacted the IU staff in just two seasons.
- In his first year, Indiana became the second team in Big Ten history to reach the 600-strikeout mark in a season. In 2022, the Hoosiers joined Iowa (602 strikeouts) as the only Big Ten programs to strikeout 600 in a single season.
- The Hoosiers finished No. 2 in the Big Ten in total strikeouts (600) and strikeouts per nine innings (10.5), a total that sat No. 12 in Division I.
- During his time at Ball State, Glant's staff set a then-NCAA record with 11.1 strikeouts per nine innings during the 2019 season.

- Since 2019, Indiana has seen a Big Ten-best 19 student-athletes taken in the Major League Baseball Draft, with 11 of those pitchers.
- The 11 pitchers drafted includes eight of the possible 12 weekend starters over that span. All three weekend starters were picked in 2019 and 2021 and seven of the 11 had at least one year of eligibility remaining, with two drafted after their second full collegiate seasons.

- Sophomore Luke Hayden is a Bloomington, Indiana, native and appeared in 20 games with six starts in 2022. He collected four wins to rank No. 2 on the team.
- Hayden missed time during 2023 with an injury (wrist - non-throwing), but returned to close out the Ohio State victory and earn the win. He fired 3 1/3 innings and allowed one run on one hit with five strikeouts.
- As Indiana got set for the final weekend series of 2023, Hayden played a big role in the final midweek win. He threw the final four innings - a career-high-tying effort - and allowed just one run on three hits with four strikeouts to earn his first career save.

- Fishers, Indiana, native Craig Yoho spent his first two collegiate seasons as a hitter at University of Houston, before transferring to Indiana for the 2021 season.
- Yoho suffered a pair of injuries that kept him out of the 2021 (arm) and 2022 (knee) seasons. In the offseason, he married the former Sydney Dusek on July 2, 2022 in Dripping Springs, Texas.

- The right-hander fired his first collegiate pitch against Miami (Ohio) on February 21, 2023 and worked two scoreless innings with five strikeouts in his first collegiate game in 1,082 days.

- Over 16 appearances in 2023, Yoho has piled up 59 strikeouts in 34 1/3 innings of work - 15.4 strikeouts per 9 innings - and walked just 16 batters.

- After four seasons at Davidson College, right-hander Gabe Levy adds versatility to the Indiana staff, as he has served as a starter and closer in his career.
- Levy started 20 of 40 appearances over his first three seasons at Davidson, before 23 relief appearances with eight saves as a senior. He also had 11 saves as a freshman in 2019.
- After posting nine quality starts in 12 starts on the mound for Tacoma Community College in 2022, Seti Manase was named the Northwest Athletic Conference West Region Pitcher of the Year in 2022.
- In 2020, Manase led Tacoma C.C. in victories (9), innings pitched (74 2/3), strikeouts (92), ERA (1.69), appearances (13) and games started (12) and allowed three-or-fewer runs in 10 of 12 starts.
- In 2023, Manase has made 15 appearances - 13 starts - and allowed just 10 earned runs on 32 hits over 33 innings of work. Opponents are hitting just .256 against the right-hander.
- After one season at Western Kentucky, Luke Sinnard arrived on campus in Bloomington with 26 1/3 innings and has almost tripled that total in 2023.
- Sinnard earned his first action in the cream and crimson in the series finale at Auburn (2/19) with five innings of one-run work. He struck out four, walked one and allowed just one hit in a victory.
- The 6-foot-8 right-hander followed that with five innings of two-run work on Sunday at Texas (2/26) to earn the victory. He struck out seven with five hits allowed and no walks.
- A quality start versus Georgetown at the LeClair Classic in Greenville, North Carolina, was followed by a career-best 13 strikeouts over six innings of work (72% of outs via strikeout) against Morehead State. He allowed two runs on two hits in a no decision and was a part of the Collegiate Baseball Magazine National Player of the Week Honor Roll for his efforts.

- His first Big Ten outing lasted six innings in the middle game of the series versus Ohio State. He struck out eight, walked one and allowed four runs on eight hits in a no decision.
- A third quality start came against Iowa with six innings of scoreless work and 12 strikeouts. He didn't walk a batter and hit one batter in a no decision and a game that Indiana eventually won, 2-0, in the 10th inning.
- Entering the Big Ten Tournament, Sinnard is closing in on the program record for a single season. He eclipsed the 100-strikeout mark at Michigan State, just the seventh Hoosier to reach the mark in program history.
