HEAD COACH JEFF MERCER

Entering his seventh season at the helm of the Indiana baseball program, head coach Jeff Mercer continues to build the program through high-level high school talent and deliberate evaluation of the transfer portal. The player development within the program has also shown in his first four seasons with a Big Ten-best 19 student-athletes drafted over that span.

Mercer's start to his IU coaching career has seen him join IU coaching legend Everett Dean as the only IU coaches to win a Big Ten title in their first year as a head coach, a trip to the NCAA Louisville Regional, a season cut short due to a global pandemic and the first-ever conference-only state in Big Ten history.

Mercer brought a winning background to Indiana. In his time as a head coach (2017-18) and an assistant coach (2014-16) at Wright State, he was a part of three Horizon League regular season and conference tournament titles, three NCAA appearances, and a combined record of 199-92 (.684). The Raiders won four NCAA tournament games over that span, having reached the regional finals twice.

Indiana Era (2019-present)

Despite suffering a number of injuries to impact players, Mercer helped guide IU to a second-straight NCAA Tournament appearance in 2024.

The Hoosiers, who set a single season team record for doubles (140), won 33 games and finished third in the Big Ten while being selected for an at-large spot in the NCAA Knoxville Regional.

Devin Taylor earned First Team All-Big Ten and Third Team All-American honors while Jacob Vogel added to a long list of first-year players to earn Freshman All-American honors.

IU was a dominant offensive force, leading the conference in hits (625), runs scored (482), doubles (140), RBIs (451) and total bases (1030). The Hoosiers were also second in home runs (83).

Mercer returned the Hoosiers to the NCAA Tournament in 2023 with 43 wins overall and a second-place finish in the Big Ten conference. IU made the regional final for the first time under Mercer, advancing to the championship game of the Lexington Regional.

IU's 43 wins were the most since 2013 and tied for the fifth most in a single season in program history. The Hoosiers had the highest RPI (31) and the most Quad 1 wins (10) in the Big Ten and won a record 26 games at Bart Kaufman Field.

Devin Taylor was named IU's third Big Ten Freshman of the Year, joining Alex Dickerson (2008) and Sam Travis (2012) while becoming just the third Hoosier to earn First Team All-Big Ten honors as a freshman.

Taylor earned Freshman All-American honors alongside RHP's Craig Yoho and Braydon Risedorph, marking the second-straight season the Hoosiers have put three players on the Freshman All-American team.

In his first season with the program, Luke Sinnard broke the single-season strikeout record with 109 as the team finished with 593 overall, the second most by a team in school history.

The Hoosiers had eight All-Big Ten selections and four ABCA All-Region honors. Taylor earned three Big Ten Freshman of the Week awards which is tied for No. 5 in conference history.

In 2022, the freshman trio of Carter Mathison, Josh Pyne and Brock Tibbitts each earned Freshman All-American honors, while the trio was joined by Evan Goforth on the Big Ten All-Freshman Team. The freshman home run record was topped by Mathison at 19 home runs, which raced past Alex Dickerson's mark (14) from 2009. That total ranked No. 3 among Division I freshmen and his 58 RBIs were No. 8 among rookies nationally.

Catcher Matthew Ellis – a junior college transfer – was among the veterans to impact the 2022 season with his 18 home runs ranking No. 2 on the team. Ellis was a third-team All-Big Ten selection at seasons end. Starting pitcher Jack Perkins made the most of his one year in Bloomington with 15 starts and 91 strikeouts, before the Oakland Athletics made him the organization's fifth-round pick in the 2022 Major League Baseball Draft.

Bradley Brehmer and Reese Sharp also hear their names called in the draft, both by the Baltimore Orioles. Brehmer was the 12th round selection and Sharp was the taken in the 20th round of the event.

The conference-only slate of 2021 produced just the second 20-plus win Big Ten effort in program history (2014) and a school-record 26 wins against BIG opponents. Twice during the season, the Hoosiers won eight of nine games, including eight straight games after dropping the season opener. Grant Richardson was a first-team All-Big Ten pick, while Gabe Bierman (second team), McCade Brown (second team) and Cole Barr (third team) also earned all-conference honors.

In the Major League Baseball Draft, the Hoosiers saw its three weekend starting pitchers, closer and top two RBI producers selected. With four picks in the first 10 rounds, the 2021 edition marked the second time in program history that four Hoosiers were taken in the top 10 rounds (2009).

In the shortened 2020 season, Mercer led the Hoosiers to a 9-6 record overall. Indiana recorded three road victories over ranked teams, beating No. 11 LSU, No. 30 South Alabama, and No. 17 East Carolina. IU also defeated in-state rival Purdue, 17-2, in seven innings.

Individually, Richardson posted a .424 batting average with three doubles, two triples, five home runs, 17 RBI and 21 runs scored over 15 games. The sophomore led the Big Ten in runs scored, home runs, slugging percentage, and total bases. He finished among the top 20 nationally in runs per game (No. 5), total bases (No. 11), slugging percentage (No. 12) and RBIs (No. 19).

In his first season as head coach, Mercer led the Hoosiers to the 2019 Big Ten regular season title and earned Big Ten Coach of the Year. The conference title was the seventh in program history for IU and the first since 2014.

The Bargersville, Indiana, native became the first Big Ten head coach since 1982 (John Anderson, Minnesota) to win a regular season conference title in their first season as the skipper. He became just the second coach in IU history – any sport, men's or women's – to win an outright Big Ten championship in his or her first year. Everett Dean (1924-25) did it in baseball in his first year at the helm.

Indiana earned the No. 2 seed in the NCAA Louisville Regional and finished the season with an overall record of 37-23 and a Big Ten mark of 17-7. A school-record 10 Hoosiers were selected in the 2019 MLB Draft, led by outfield Matt Gorski. The highest drafted Hoosier since Kyle Schwarber (No. 4 overall) in 2014, Gorski was picked in the second round (57th overall) by the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Pitcher Andrew Saalfrank was named the Big Ten Pitcher of the Year and earned a spot on the All-Big Ten first team along with utility player Matt Lloyd. Scotty Bradley, Cole Barr and Gorski each made the second team. Elijah Dunham rounded out the all-conference honors with a third-team selection.

2025 Preseason Primer

Fresh off back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances and top-three finishes in the Big Ten, the Indiana Baseball team has big expectations again in 2025.

Head coach Jeff Mercer - in his seventh season - has created one of the best player development programs in the country. The high school driven model has turned out professional players and a plethora of wins over the last seven years.

With a strong returning core and one of his deepest rosters to date, the Hoosiers are expected to contend in the new-look Big Ten Conference.

Here are some notes and numbers to know ahead of a much-anticipated 2025 campaign.

Dates to Know

- Friday, January 24th: First Full Team Practice
- Friday, February 14th: Season Opener
- Tuesday, February 19th: Home Opener
- Friday, March 7th: Big Ten Opener
- Saturday, May 10th: Senior Day
- Tuesday, May 20th: Big Ten Tournament Begins

Returning Depth in the Field

The Hoosiers return six different position players that made at least 40 starts last season. Junior Tyler Cerny (SS) and senior Josh Pyne (3B) both started all 60 games a year ago. Junior Devin Taylor (OF) started 59 contests, missing just one due to personal reasons.

Head coach Jeff Mercer will have what is expected to be his deepest and most talented offensive roster of his seven-year tenure in Bloomington.

Paired with the six returning starters, IU brought another strong crop of prep players to campus this fall. Hogan Denny (C/OF) and Jake Hanley (1B) are the blue-chip pieces but Cooper Malamazian (INF) and Cole Decker (OF) could also see plenty of at-bats.

Transfers Korbym Dickerson (Louisville) and Tyler DeMartino (Xavier), along with sophomore Andrew Wiggins, give the Hoosiers plenty of outfield options alongside Taylor.

New Look, New Feel on the Mound

After losing a number of big arms to the 2024 MLB Draft (Sinnard, Foley and Risedorph), the Hoosiers completely overhauled their pitching staff with the goal to throw strikes at a more consistent rate this year.

Pitching coach Dustin Glant, who has turned IU into a strikeout machine on the mound, will rely on transfers Gavin Seebold (Southern Indiana), Cole Gilley (Indiana State) and Jackson Yarberry (Saint Louis) as expected starters.

Returning pitchers Drew Buhr, Ryan Kraft and Aydan Decker-Petty will give IU a number of long-relief options. Buhr worked a 3.31 earned run average last year, developing into a reliable option out of the bullpen.

At the back end of the bullpen, Jacob Vogel will return for late-inning action. Ben Grable and Will Eldridge have electric arms and give Glant more firepower to close down games.

Other options on the mound include freshmen Brayton Thomas and Henry Brummel as well as Seth Benes, Clayton Weisheit, Grant Holderfield, Trey Telfer and Deron Swanson.

DT Legacy Season

Devin Taylor will go down as one of the best players in program history. One of the smoothest swings to ever grace Bloomington, the junior will be on record watch throughout the year.

The expected top-15 MLB Draft Pick this summer is just 12 home runs away from breaking the program's all-time home run record. He needs just 51 hits to reach 200 in his IU career and is currently batting .338 across his first two seasons.

Only two other players in IU history (Sam Travis, Alex Dickerson) was named a Big Ten Freshman of the Year and Big Ten Player of the Year during their career. Taylor already was the league rookie of the year (2023) and will now search for the top individual prize in the Big Ten.

Mercer Keeps the Hoosiers Going

Since being hired as the skipper in Bloomington, head coach Jeff Mercer has kept the Hoosiers humming along at a high level. He is just 16 Big Ten wins away from becoming the fastest coach to 100 league wins in program history.

He needs 25 overall wins for 200 in his career at IU and is also on track to become the first IU coach in program history to take the team to three-straight NCAA Tournaments.

Milestones Coming

Players and coaches aren't the only ones with milestones on the horizon in 2025. As a program, the Hoosiers need just 29 wins to reach 2,500 all-time victories. The program is heading into its 131st season and has become a nationally-recognized team over the past 15 years.

If the Hoosiers could get to 40 wins, it would be the fifth 40-win season since 2013. Three different coaches have led IU to a 40-win season in that span. Since 2013, IU has had at least 30 wins in all but one fully contested season.

THE TEAM AND THE RUN

One of the best teams in program history, and one of the best the Big Ten has ever seen, returned to Bloomington in November of 2023 to celebrate the 10-year anniversary of a historic run to Omaha and the College World Series in 2013.

Led by future MLB players Kyle Schwarber, Sam Travis, Aaron Slegers, Scott Effross and Kyle Hart, the Indiana Baseball team began one of the best two-year runs in history of any Big Ten baseball program with an outright regular season title and conference tournament title in 2013.

The Hoosiers won a modern-era program record 49 games in 2013 and made the program's one and only trip to Omaha for the College World Series. After sweeping the Bloomington Regional, IU went down to Tallahassee and beat No. 7 Florida State in the Super Regional.

After taking care of Louisville in the opening round of the College World Series, the Hoosiers were handed a pair of one-run losses to Mississippi State and No. 3 Oregon State. IU would go on to win 44 games in 2014 and win the Big Ten title once again.

Not only could the 2013 team hit the ball, seven starters finished with an average above .300, but it also produced the deepest staff in program history on the mound. IU's top four pitchers, which featured three future big leaguers and the program's all-time wins leader in Joey DeNato, combined to go 33-7 on the bump.

The 2013 team held a 2.64 earned run average across 65 games, second in the modern era only to the 2014 staff which produced a 2.33 earned run average with most of the same staff. DeNato is the only pitcher in school history to win 10-or-more games in two different seasons, collecting 10 victories in 2013 and 14 in 2014.

Offensively, IU combined to hit .301 across 65 contests with 53 home runs, 407 runs batted in and 134 doubles. Dustin DeMuth led the Hoosiers with a .377 batting average and would go on to win the Big Ten batting title in 2014. Schwarber and Travis hit 28 home runs combined with Scott Donley driving in 61 runs on the season.

To this day, that 2013 team is the only to make the College World Series in IU history and sparked the change of standard in Big Ten Baseball for years to come.

Big Ten: 13-30-1 (.307)

Larry Smith coached Indiana to a 73-75-1 record and a 13-30-1 record in the Big Ten with a third-place finish in 1983.

BOB MORGAN – 1984-2005*Overall: 782-499-4 (.610)Big Ten: 245-323-1 (.432)*

Bob Morgan completed his 22-year career as IU's head baseball coach with 782 victories, the most in the program's history. After finishing the 1996 regular season with a school-record 18 wins against conference opposition, Morgan took his team to the Big Ten Tournament, where Indiana's 6-4 victory over Illinois in the championship game gave the Hoosiers their first conference title since 1949 and a historic first NCAA Tournament appearance.

TRACY SMITH – 2006-14*Overall: 287-237 (.548)Big Ten: 127-111 (.534)*

Tracy Smith led the Hoosiers baseball program for nine seasons, completing his illustrious run as IU's coach after the 2014 season.

Smith the 2013 National Coach of the Year and Big Ten Coach of the Year in 2013 and 2014 lifted Indiana University Baseball to heights unseen in the program's history over his final two seasons. The Hoosiers made their first ever College World Series in 2013, ending a 29-year CWS drought for the Big Ten Conference. Indiana's magical run included an 18-game winning streak, Big Ten regular season title, Big Ten Tournament crown, hosting of an NCAA Regional, Super Regional sweep at Florida State and an appearance in the College World Series. In 2014, Indiana repeated as Big Ten regular season and tournament champions, clinching the No. 4 seed in the NCAA Tournament and hosting the regional.

Indiana's first Big Ten title under Smith came in 2009 when the Hoosiers dominated the conference tournament, outscoring the competition 49-6 en route to four consecutive victories and berth to an NCAA Regional. More Hoosiers earned All-American honors under Smith than the rest of IU Baseball history combined.

CHRIS LEMONIS – 2015-18*Overall: 141-91-2 (.607)Big Ten: 55-37-1 (.597)*

Chris Lemonis took over an IU program in 2015 that had gone 93-31 the previous two seasons, including its first-ever College World Series appearance in 2013 and the No. 4 overall seed in the 2014 NCAA Baseball Championship. With a new look roster, his program immediately lived up to the expectations, posting a 35-24 overall record and earning a berth into a third-straight NCAA Regional.

With a 34-24-2 overall record and a 14-9-1 mark in Big Ten play, Indiana was selected to the 2017 NCAA Baseball Tournament field. Lemonis and the No. 2-seeded Hoosiers earned a berth into the Lexington Regional.

In 2018, he lead the program to a 40-win season and a regional final appearance in Austin, Texas. He became the only coach in program history to make three regionals in his first four seasons as IU's skipper. He ties Tracy Smith (2009, 2013, 2014) for the most NCAA postseason appearances in program history.

JEFF MERCER – 2019-Present*Overall: 175-125-1 (.583)Big Ten: 84-56 (.600)*

In his first season as head coach, Mercer led the Hoosiers to the 2019 Big Ten Regular Season title, earning Big Ten Coach of the Year honors. The conference title was the seventh in program history for IU and the first since 2014.

Mercer became the first Big Ten head coach since 1982 (John Anderson, Minnesota) to win a regular season conference title in his first season as the skipper. He was just the second coach in IU history – in any sport, men's or women's – to win an outright Big Ten championship in his (or her) first year. Everett Dean (1924-25) did it in baseball in his first year as both baseball and basketball coach.

Indiana earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament, finishing the season with an overall record of 37-23 and a Big Ten mark of 17-7. A school-record 10 Hoosiers were selected in the 2019 MLB Draft, led by outfielder Matt Gorski, who was selected in the second round (57th overall). Gorski was the highest-drafted Hoosier since Kyle Schwarber in 2014 (1st round, fourth overall).

The Hoosiers have earned two bids to the NCAA Tournament (2019, 2023) under Mercer and have twice finished in the top-two of the Big Ten standings (winning the regular season title in 2019).

In 2022 and 2023, IU had at least three freshmen All-American selections including Carter Mathison (2022) and Devin Taylor (2023). Taylor would win the Big Ten Freshman of the Year honor in 2023.

Despite a season full of injuries, Mercer guided the Hoosiers back to a second-straight NCAA Regional, finishing third in the Big Ten and making the conference tournament semifinals along the way. Devin Taylor was a First Team All-Big Ten selection and the team broke the single-season doubles record (140) led by Tyler Cerny (24) and Josh Pyne (22).
