HEAD COACH JEFF MERCER

Head coach Jeff Mercer wrapped up his seventh season as the skipper of Indiana following the 2025 season. Mercer continues to build the program through high-level high school talent and deliberate evaluation of the transfer portal. The player development within the program has also shown in his first seven seasons with a Big Ten-best 30 unique student-athletes drafted over that span.

He has continued a tradition of excellence in his first seven years on the job. He has led the Hoosiers to 100 Big Ten victories, 30 unique MLB Draft Picks, all five contested Big Ten Tournaments, three NCAA Regional appearances and a Big Ten regular season championships (2019).

Mercer brought a winning background to Indiana. In his time as a head coach (2017-18) and an assistant coach (2014-16) at Wright State, he was a part of three Horizon League regular season and conference tournament titles, three NCAA appearances, and a combined record of 199-92 (.684). The Raiders won four NCAA tournament games over that span, having reached the regional finals twice.

Indiana Era (2019-present)

In the beginning of a new era of the Big Ten, Mercer provided another 30-win seasons and a top-70 RPI during the 2025 campaign. After getting hit heavy by the MLB Draft the year before, the Hoosiers counted on the services of several freshmen to contribute right away.

First baseman Jake Hanley – the second Big Ten Freshman of the Year coached by Mercer – was a unanimous Freshman All-American and spent most of the year batting cleanup. Cooper Malamazan and Will Moore were each All-Big Ten Freshman Team selections.

The highlight of the Mercer era was the play of All-American outfielder Devin Taylor. The Cincinnati, Ohio native wrapped up his college career in 2025 by breaking the program's all-time home run record (54). He racked up 229 career hits and 179 career RBIs.

He and redshirt sophomore outfielder Koryn Dickerson combined to make a formidable duo in the middle of IU's lineup. The two players collected 37 home runs and recorded over 130 RBIs for the Hoosiers. Each player was a First Team All-Big Ten selection and earned at least one All-American honor.

Four IU players, and two high school signees, were selected in the 2025 MLB Draft. All four IU players were taken before the end of the 11th round. Taylor, who left IU as one of the best players in program history, became Mercer's highest-drafted player ever when he was taken in the second round (2-48) by the Athletics.

Dickerson, and veteran pitchers Cole Gilley and Ben Grable, all transferred to IU in the offseason and left their time in Bloomington by being picked in the MLB Draft. Dickerson was a fifth-round pick by the Mariners while Gilley and Grable were selected in the 10th and 11th rounds respectively by the Phillies and Yankees.

Despite suffering a number of injuries to impact players, Mercer helped guide IU to a second-straight NCAA Tournament appearance in 2024. The Hoosiers, who set a single season team record for doubles (140), won 33 games and finished third in the Big Ten while being selected for an at-large spot in the NCAA Knoxville Regional.

IU was a dominant offensive force, leading the conference in hits (625), runs scored (482), doubles (140), RBIs (451) and total bases (1030). The Hoosiers were also second in home runs (83).

Mercer returned the Hoosiers to the NCAA Tournament in 2023 with 43 wins overall and a second-place finish in the Big Ten conference. IU made the regional final for the first time under Mercer, advancing to the championship game of the Lexington Regional.

IU's 43 wins were the most since 2013 and tied for the fifth most in a single season in program history. The Hoosiers had the highest RPI (31) and the most Quad 1 wins (10) in the Big Ten and won a record 26 games at Bart Kaufman Field.

Devin Taylor was named IU's third Big Ten Freshman of the Year, joining Alex Dickerson (2008) and Sam Travis (2012) while becoming just the third Hoosier to earn First Team All-Big Ten honors as a freshman.

Taylor earned Freshman All-American honors alongside RHP's Craig Yoho and Braydon Risedorph, marking the second-straight season the Hoosiers have put three players on the Freshman All-American team. In his first season with the program, Luke Sinnard broke the single-season strikeout record with 109 as the team finished with 593 overall, the second most by a team in school history.

In 2022, the freshman trio of Carter Mathison, Josh Pyne and Brock Tibbitts each earned Freshman All-American honors, while the trio was joined by Evan Goforth on the Big Ten All-Freshman Team. The freshman home run record was topped by Mathison at 19 home runs, which raced past Alex Dickerson's mark (14) from 2009. That total ranked No. 3 among Division I freshmen and his 58 RBIs were No. 8 among rookies nationally.

Catcher Matthew Ellis – a junior college transfer – was among the veterans to impact the 2022 season with his 18 home runs ranking No. 2 on the team. Ellis was a third-team All-Big Ten selection at seasons end. Starting pitcher Jack Perkins made the most of his one year in Bloomington with 15 starts and 91 strikeouts, before the Oakland Athletics made him the organization's first-round pick in the 2022 Major League Baseball Draft.

Bradley Brehmer and Reese Sharp also hear their names called in the draft, both by the Baltimore Orioles. Brehmer was the 12th round selection and Sharp was the taken in the 20th round of the event.

The conference-only slate of 2021 produced just the second 20-plus win Big Ten effort in program history (2014) and a school-record 26 wins against BIG opponents. Twice during the season, the Hoosiers won eight of nine games, including eight straight games after dropping the season opener. Grant Richardson was a first-team All-Big Ten pick, while Gabe Bierman (second team), McCade Brown (second team) and Cole Barr (third team) also earned all-conference honors.

In the Major League Baseball Draft, the Hoosiers saw its three weekend starting pitchers, closer and top two RBI producers selected. With four picks in the first 10 rounds, the 2021 edition marked the second time in program history that four Hoosiers were taken in the top 10 rounds (2009).

In the shortened 2020 season, Mercer led the Hoosiers to a 9-6 record overall. Indiana recorded three road victories over ranked teams, beating No. 11 LSU, No. 30 South Alabama, and No. 17 East Carolina. IU also defeated in-state rival Purdue, 17-2, in seven innings.

In his first season as head coach, Mercer led the Hoosiers to the 2019 Big Ten regular season title and earned Big Ten Coach of the Year. The conference title was the seventh in program history for IU and the first since 2014.

The Bargersville, Indiana, native became the first Big Ten head coach since 1982 (John Anderson, Minnesota) to win a regular season conference title in their first season as the skipper. He became just the second coach in IU history – any sport, men's or women's – to win an outright Big Ten championship in his or her first year. Everett Dean (1924-25) did it in baseball in his first year at the helm.

Indiana earned the No. 2 seed in the NCAA Louisville Regional and finished the season with an overall record of 37-23 and a Big Ten mark of 17-7. A school-record 10 Hoosiers were selected in the 2019 MLB Draft, led by outfield Matt Gorski. The highest drafted Hoosier since Kyle Schwarber (No. 4 overall) in 2014, Gorski was picked in the second round (57th overall) by the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Pitcher Andrew Saalfrank was named the Big Ten Pitcher of the Year and earned a spot on the All-Big Ten first team along with utility player Matt Lloyd. Scotty Bradley, Cole Barr and Gorski each made the second team. Elijah Dunham rounded out the all-conference honors with a third-team selection.

2026 Preseason Primer

With a deep sophomore offensive core and a veteran group on the mound, the Indiana baseball program will be looking for a third NCAA Tournament trip in the last four seasons. The Hoosiers have won at least 32 games in each of the last three years.

Eighth-year skipper Jeff Mercer has loaded up a challenging non-conference schedule to prepare his ballclub for the second season of the 17-team Big Ten. IU has road trips against North Carolina, Oregon and Nebraska this season that will present a number of RBI-boosting opportunities.

The Hoosiers are schedule to play 24 games at Bart Kaufman Field, highlighted by weekend series against Illinois, Iowa and Washington. The season kicks off in Chapel Hill on February 13th.

Dates to Know

- Friday, February 13th: Season Opener
- Tuesday, February 17th: Home Opener
- Friday, March 6th: Big Ten Opener
- Friday, May 15th: Senior Day
- Tuesday, May 19th: Big Ten Tournament Begins

The Sophomore Core: IU played a deep collection of freshman position players last season. Four players made at least 35 starts with three of them making the Big Ten All-Freshman team. That entire group is back in 2026 and will take over the reins in the middle of Mercer's lineup.

First baseman Jake Hanley, the reigning Big Ten Freshman of the Year, broke on to the scene in 2025. He hit .333 with 14 home runs and 52 RBI's, becoming the fourth player in program history to earn the league's premier first-year award. He started all 56 games and was a national Gold Glove finalist.

Him, alongside shortstop Cooper Malamazian, third baseman Will Moore, catcher Hogan Denny and outfielder/pitcher Caleb Koskie are now the veteran group in Bloomington and will be the main source of production for the Hoosiers in 2026. Add in Brayden Ricketts and Cole Decker and IU's 2024 recruiting class is poised for a big two-year run on the diamond.

New Era on the Mound: After pitching coach Dustin Giant departed for a job with the Washington Nationals, Mercer replaced the post with veteran leader Matt Myers. He will usher in a new era on the bump with a talented group of arms to work with. Myers was the head coach at Western Kentucky when Mercer worked as an assistant (2012-13).

Mercer and his staff went out and brought in a collection of fourth and fifth-year arms to supplement some talented returners. Jackson Bergman (Toledo), Tony Neubeck (Missouri), Kaden Jacobi (Missouri) and Reagan Rivera (Coppin State) all have at least four years of college experience. Gavin Seebold, Pete Haas, Brayton Thomas, Jacob Vogel and Jackson Yarberry are all back after making at least 10 appearances a season ago. Talented freshman Xavier Carrera is a name to keep an eye on for Myers' bullpen group.

Mercer Milestone: Head coach Jeff Mercer has been one of the best coaches in the midwest over the decade. In an area of the country that is hard to win at a consistent pace, Mercer has defied that notion. He needs just 16 wins in 2026 to reach 300 overall wins in his 10th year as a skipper.

Omaha Regulars: IU has been the most consistent Big Ten team over the past decade. If they qualify this year, the Hoosiers will have made 13-straight Big Ten tournaments, the longest such streak in the league. Since 2011, IU has finished short of 30 wins in a full season just once.

The Sophomore Jump: Position players under Jeff Mercer have often played well as freshmen but even better as sophomores. With four players that appeared regularly in the lineup back for their second seasons, expect the likes of Hogan Denny or Cole Decker to take off in their sophomore campaign in Bloomington.

Tough Slate: There will be no easing into the 2026 season for the Hoosiers. IU will head down to North Carolina, a super regional host in 2025, for an early three-game set. It will follow that up by playing LSU, the defending national champions, in Jacksonville. A tough conference slate that includes Oregon and Nebraska will have IU prepped for the stretch run this year.

Veteran Breakout: IU has done a great job at taking veteran arms out of the portal and molding them into pro prospects. After adding a plethora of talented arms, IU is hoping to get similar returns from its pitching staff in 2026. Expect Tony Neubeck, Michael Sarfath and Jackson Bergman to have big seasons for the Hoosiers.

The Next Great Freshman: It's no secret that IU loves to play freshmen from the jump. A freshman position player always finds their way into the lineup. Mateo Noto and Cal Gates are talented options to get some early at-bats during the 2026 season.

Sophomore southpaw Brayton Thomas returns for second year in Bloomington

BART KAUFMAN FIELD

Bart Kaufman Field Dedication: April 27, 2013 Capacity: 2,500

On August 19, 2011, the Indiana University Board of Trustees approved plans for a new baseball–softball complex. These new fields would be located just north of Assembly Hall, near the intersection of the 45/46 bypass and Fee Lane.

The new baseball field would replace Sembower Field, which had been the Hoosiers' home field since 1951. On February 15, 2012, Indiana University announced that the new baseball field would be named after Bart Kaufman, CEO of the Indianapolis-based Kaufman Financial Corporation, and an Indiana baseball alumnus. This announcement came after Kaufman pledged $2.5 million to the construction of a new stadium.

Construction began on Bart Kaufman Field in May 2012, and was finished in March 2013; the stadium was formally dedicated on April 27 of that year. The Hoosiers' first game in the stadium was March 20, 2013, with a 15–1 win over Miami University.

On December 19, 2017, Indiana University Athletics announced plans to install an LED video scoreboard, beyond the outfield wall. The size of the new scoreboard is estimated to be 26.8 feet (8.16 m) high by 48.7 (14.84m) feet wide.

Installation of the new scoreboard was completed prior to the start of the 2018 season, with it being utilized for the Hoosiers' home opener on March 6, 2018, against Cincinnati.

The facility has a clubhouse and locker room, training area and team rooms, indoor and outdoor hitting cages, turf field, press box, lights for night play, bench and stadium chair seating, entry plaza, picnic area, concessions and restrooms.

The stadium hosted an NCAA Regional in its first two years of existence; it marked the first two times the IU baseball program has played tournament games on campus. Bart Kaufman Field hosted its first Big Ten baseball tournament from May 24 to 28, 2017.

THE TEAM AND THE RUN

One of the best teams in program history, and one of the best the Big Ten has ever seen, returned to Bloomington in November of 2023 to celebrate the 10-year anniversary of a historic run to Omaha and the College World Series in 2013.

Led by future MLB players Kyle Schwarber, Sam Travis, Aaron Slegers, Scott Effross and Kyle Hart, the Indiana Baseball team began one of the best two-year runs in history of any Big Ten baseball program with an outright regular season title and conference tournament title in 2013.

The Hoosiers won a modern-era program record 49 games in 2013 and made the program's one and only trip to Omaha for the College World Series. After sweeping the Bloomington Regional, IU went down to Tallahassee and beat No. 7 Florida State in the Super Regional.

After taking care of Louisville in the opening round of the College World Series, the Hoosiers were handed a pair of one-run losses to Mississippi State and No. 3 Oregon State. IU would go on to win 44 games in 2014 and win the Big Ten title once again.

Not only could the 2013 team hit the ball, seven starters finished with an average above .300, but it also produced the deepest staff in program history on the mound. IU's top four pitchers, which featured three future big leaguers and the program's all-time wins leader in Joey DeNato, combined to go 33-7 on the bump.

The 2013 team held a 2.64 earned run average across 65 games, second in the modern era only to the 2014 staff which produced a 2.33 earned run average with most of the same staff. DeNato is the only pitcher in school history to win 10-or-more games in two different seasons, collecting 10 victories in 2013 and 14 in 2014.

Offensively, IU combined to hit .301 across 65 contests with 53 home runs, 407 runs batted in and 134 doubles. Dustin DeMuth led the Hoosiers with a .377 batting average and would go on to win the Big Ten batting title in 2014. Schwarber and Travis hit 28 home runs combined with Scott Donley driving in 61 runs on the season.

To this day, that 2013 team is the only to make the College World Series in IU history and sparked the change of standard in Big Ten Baseball for years to come.

BOB MORGAN – 1984-2005*Overall: 782-499-4 (.610)Big Ten: 245-323-1 (.432)*

Bob Morgan completed his 22-year career as IU's head baseball coach with 782 victories, the most in the program's history. After finishing the 1996 regular season with a school-record 18 wins against conference opposition, Morgan took his team to the Big Ten Tournament, where Indiana's 6-4 victory over Illinois in the championship game gave the Hoosiers their first conference title since 1949 and a historic first NCAA Tournament appearance.

TRACY SMITH – 2006-14*Overall: 287-237 (.548)Big Ten: 127-111 (.534)*

Tracy Smith led the Hoosiers baseball program for nine seasons, completing his illustrious run as IU's coach after the 2014 season.

Smith the 2013 National Coach of the Year and Big Ten Coach of the Year in 2013 and 2014 lifted Indiana University Baseball to heights unseen in the program's history over his final two seasons. The Hoosiers made their first ever College World Series in 2013, ending a 29-year CWS drought for the Big Ten Conference. Indiana's magical run included an 18-game winning streak, Big Ten regular season title, Big Ten Tournament crown, hosting of an NCAA Regional, Super Regional sweep at Florida State and an appearance in the College World Series. In 2014, Indiana repeated as Big Ten regular season and tournament champions, clinching the No. 4 seed in the NCAA Tournament and hosting the regional.

Indiana's first Big Ten title under Smith came in 2009 when the Hoosiers dominated the conference tournament, outscoring the competition 49-6 en route to four consecutive victories and berth to an NCAA Regional. More Hoosiers earned All-American honors under Smith than the rest of IU Baseball history combined.

CHRIS LEMONIS – 2015-18*Overall: 141-91-2 (.607)Big Ten: 55-37-1 (.597)*

Chris Lemonis took over an IU program in 2015 that had gone 93-31 the previous two seasons, including its first-ever College World Series appearance in 2013 and the No. 4 overall seed in the 2014 NCAA Baseball Championship. With a new look roster, his program immediately lived up to the expectations, posting a 35-24 overall record and earning a berth into a third-straight NCAA Regional.

With a 34-24-2 overall record and a 14-9-1 mark in Big Ten play, Indiana was selected to the 2017 NCAA Baseball Tournament field. Lemonis and the No. 2-seeded Hoosiers earned a berth into the Lexington Regional.

In 2018, he lead the program to a 40-win season and a regional final appearance in Austin, Texas. He became the only coach in program history to make three regionals in his first four seasons as IU's skipper. He ties Tracy Smith (2009, 2013, 2014) for the most NCAA postseason appearances in program history.

JEFF MERCER – 2019-Present*Overall: 207-149-1 (.581)Big Ten: 100-70 (.589)*

In his first season as head coach, Mercer led the Hoosiers to the 2019 Big Ten Regular Season title, earning Big Ten Coach of the Year honors. The conference title was the seventh in program history for IU and the first since 2014.

Mercer became the first Big Ten head coach since 1982 (John Anderson, Minnesota) to win a regular season conference title in his first season as the skipper. He was just the second coach in IU history – in any sport, men's or women's – to win an outright Big Ten championship in his (or her) first year. Everett Dean (1924-25) did it in baseball in his first year as both baseball and basketball coach.

Indiana earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament, finishing the season with an overall record of 37-23 and a Big Ten mark of 17-7. A school-record 10 Hoosiers were selected in the 2019 MLB Draft, led by outfield Matt Gorski, who was selected in the second round (57th overall). Gorski was the highest-drafted Hoosier since Kyle Schwarber in 2014 (1st round, fourth overall).

The Hoosiers have earned two bids to the NCAA Tournament (2019, 2023) under Mercer and have twice finished in the top-two of the Big Ten standings (winning the regular season title in 2019).

In 2022 and 2023, IU had at least three freshmen All-American selections including Carter Mathison (2022) and Devin Taylor (2023). Taylor would win the Big Ten Freshman of the Year honor in 2023.

Despite a season full of injuries, Mercer guided the Hoosiers back to a second-straight NCAA Regional, finishing third in the Big Ten and making the conference tournament semifinals along the way. Devin Taylor was a First Team All-Big Ten selection and the team broke the single-season doubles record (140) led by Tyler Cerny (24) and Josh Pyne (22).

Mercer led IU to another 30-win season in 2025 and made the Big Ten Tournament once again. Jake Hanley was the Big Ten Freshman of the Year while Devin Taylor was a unanimous All-American.
