FIRST SERVE

CLOSE CALLS

• Indiana had chances to pick up a signature win last weekend at Wilkinson Hall but again let late leads slip away down the stretch. The Hoosiers had a late lead in set three to try and take the advantage vs. No. 9 Purdue on Friday but lost the set. The same thing happened in set four against No. 20 USC on Sunday afternoon.

RALLY-ERA RECORD UP NEXT

• A staple of the program for four seasons, senior setter Camryn Haworth will create even more history with just 13 assists against Iowa. She will break the rally-era career assists record soon as she attempts to pass Megan Tallman (3,711 - 2013-16) this weekend.

• Haworth has run away with the all-time aces record - currently at 206 - and will now look for another rally-scoring era record (since 2001). Before the current scoring systems went into effect, setters often had bloated assist numbers (upwards of 80-90) that can no longer be achieved.

NUMBER 30 ON DECK

• IU's four-year senior class - which includes the likes of Haworth and outside hitter Mady Saris - needs just one more Big Ten win to reach 30 for their careers. Along with Kenzie Daffinee and Carly Mills, they would become the first four-year class (2024) with 30 Big Ten wins since 2010.

BIG BLOCK IN LAST FIVE

• IU's block has been up and down all season but has really picked up over the past five games. Since the Northwestern contest (10/27), IU is averaging 2.67 blocks per set including double-digit outputs against Rutgers (12.0) and Purdue (11.0).

• Junior middle blocker Madi Sell has 20 blocks over the past five matches including seven against Purdue (three solo) that matched a career best.

SWEET, SWEET CANDE

• Junior outside hitter Candela Alonso-Corcelles has been the focal point of the offense this season and has performed admirably. While inheriting the bulk of responsibility in serve receive, she has still put up big offensive numbers.

• In her last five matches, all double-digit kill outputs, she is averaging 4.17 kills per set. She had a season best 23 in the win over Rutgers and has nine matches this season with 15-or-more kills.

THE PATH TO A WINNING SEASON

• IU needs to finish the season 4-2 to secure back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1999-2000. Its final six games includes three of the last four at home.

Final Games

» at Iowa, at #2 Nebraska, vs. UCLA, at Ohio State, vs. Michigan, vs. Illinois

HOOSIER WATCH

#32 Ramsey Gary • Sophomore

Libero

- Second in Big Ten in digs per set (4.20)
- 13 career 20-dig matches
- Single season digs record in 2023 (530)
- Season high 24 digs in win over UC Davis (9/2)

#3 Candela Alonso-Corcelles • Junior

Outside Hitter

- 24 kills vs. Minnesota (11/12/23) - career high
- 19 matches with 10+ kills in 2024
- Season best 23 kills at Rutgers (11/1)
- First player in program history from Spain

NUMBERS TO KNOW

Senior Camryn Haworth is the program record holder with 206 service aces in her career.

The Hoosiers started the season 7-0 at Wilkinson Hall, a program record for a home start to a campaign.

IU matched a regular season program wins record in 2023 with 21 wins.

Haworth is now top five in program history in assists after surpassing 3,650 for her career.

TEAM NEWS AND NOTES

2023 IN REVIEW

It was a marquee year for the Hoosiers in 2023, matching a program record with 21 regular season wins. Head coach Steve Aird and team finished in a tie for sixth in the Big Ten conference with an 11-9 record.

IU broke an 11-year losing streak to Purdue with a 3-1 victory over its in-state rival in front of a record crowd at Wilkinson Hall. Twice over the course of the season, the Hoosiers set attendance records in the five-year-old building.

Setter Camryn Haworth and libero Ramsey Gary were the backbone of an electric, tough volleyball team. Haworth was an AVCA and Volleyball Mag All-American after finishing the year with 1,247 assists and 73 service aces.

Gary, in her freshman season, was a Second Team All-Big Ten Selection and broke program records for single season digs and freshman single season digs (530).

The Hoosiers were well balanced offensively with six different players providing 170+ kills on the season. Graduate student middle blocker Kaley Rammelsberg joined Haworth and Gary on the All-Big Ten teams.

After the season, head coach Steve Aird was awarded an extension to keep him in Bloomington through the end of the 2029 season. Associate coach Rachel Morris, assistant coach Kevin Hodge and director of operations Hallie Enderle continue their roles on his staff.

2023 OFFSEASON

With five departing seniors, and six departing players in total, IU added some depth at key positions with the addition of eight players to the program. Junior middle blocker Madi Sell (Missouri) and graduate student and defensive specialist Delaynie Maple (USC Beach) joined as transfers.

A five player freshman class includes outside hitter Reese Hazelton (Philipsburg, Pa.), right side Avery Daum (Peachtree Corners, Ga.) and middle blocker Ella Boersema (Churubusco, Ind.)

PRESEASON PRIMER

The Indiana volleyball program officially kicked off its 2024 season with report day to Bloomington on August 7th (Wednesday) and the first day of practice on August 8th (Thursday).

IU won 11 conference games in 2023, the most since 1999, and returns its starting setter (Camryn Haworth), starting libero (Ramsey Gary) and the top four pin options from a season ago.

Led by juniors Candela Alonso-Corcelles and Avry Tatum and seniors Mady Saris and Morgan Geddes, the Hoosiers have the most talent and depth at the outside/opposite hitter position of any season in the Steve Aird era.

Gary and Haworth form one of the most potent libero/setter combinations in the league. They join Nebraska (Rodriguez/Reilly) as the only other setter-libero duo to earn All-Big Ten honors last season.

Here are some facts to know and notes to follow ahead of the 50th season of volleyball at Indiana as a varsity sport.

BIG TEN MEDIA DAYS

The Big Ten Conference held its third annual Volleyball Media Days on August 5th and 6th in Chicago, Ill. Grad student defensive specialist Delaynie Maple and sophomore libero Ramsey Gary joined head coach Steve Aird to talk about the program's upcoming season and partake in fun social media trends, behind the scenes interviews and photo shoots at network studios.

AIRD NAMES TEAM CAPTAINS

Senior setter Camryn Haworth, senior outside hitter Kenzie Daffinee and graduate student defensive specialist Delaynie Maple were named the three captains for the 2024 season. Haworth and Daffinee have each spent four years with the Hoosiers while Maple was a multi-time captain with the USC Beach Program.

THE LAST COVID WAIVER

Morgan Geddes will be the final IU athlete to use her fifth-year COVID player to close out her volleyball career at Indiana. A member of the 15th-ranked recruiting class in 2020, Geddes has transformed herself into a potent Big Ten arm for Steve Aird.

Despite battling some injuries at times, Geddes has produced at a high level and will be a reliable option for the Hoosiers. IU has had good success with players using their COVID waiver including setter Brooke Westbeld (2021), libero Paula Cerame (2022) and middle blocker Kaley Rammelsberg (2023).

FINAL RIDE FOR A PROGRAM GREAT

Camryn Haworth is one of seven seniors on this year's roster. A starting setter in some capacity since her freshman year, Haworth has been a treat for IU fans and has helped create some memorable moments over the past three years.

She will have a chance to break the all-time aces record at Indiana and will climb the ranks in all-time assists before its all said and done. She's helped IU to a 37-28 record the last two years and 20 conference wins in 2022 and 2023.

Already an All-American and a unanimous All-Big Ten selection, Haworth will have a plethora of offensive options to pick from in 2024 and will hope to parlay that into ending an NCAA Tournament drought at IU that dates back to 2010.

HOOSIER NOTES

NEWCOMERS

The Hoosiers welcomed eight new athletes to the roster in 2024.

Delaynie Maple | Gr. | DS | San Diego, Calif.

• An All-American and National Champion for the USC beach program, Maple will play her lone season of collegiate indoor volleyball for IU in 2024.

Madi Sell | Jr. | MB | Ballwin, Mo.

• A top-100 prep recruit in the class of 2022, Sell transferred from Missouri after two years with the Tigers. She enrolled in January and went through spring practice with IU.

Reese Hazelton | Fr. | OH | Philipsburg, Pa.

• The Gatorade State Player of the Year in Pennsylvania, Hazelton recorded over 2,400+ kills in high school. She graduated early to join the Hoosiers in the spring of 2024.

Ella Boersema | Fr. | MB | Churubusco, Ind.

• A strong and athletic middle blocker, Boersema joins the Hoosiers as a potential day one starter. She played for Team Pineapple, one of the fastest growing clubs in Northern Indiana.

Emma Segal | Fr. | DS | Brookston, Ind.

• Segal, another Indiana native, will provide back row help for IU in 2024. An outside hitter in high school, she will transition back to her defensive specialist role for IU. She is well-regarded as an outstanding server.

Avery Daum | Fr. | RS | Peachtree Corners, Ga.

• A PrepVolleyball top-100 recruit and an AVCA Third Team High School All-American, Daum played for AS Volleyball Club and brings loads of experience to Bloomington as an efficient blocker and offensive weapon.

Jaide Cummings | Sr. | DS | Buffalo, N.Y.

• Walked-on to program in spring of 2024. Currently enrolled as a student in the McKinney School of Law while doubling as a back row reserve player for the volleyball team.

Sade Ilawole | Fr. | S/DS | Woodland Hills, Calif.

• A PrepVolleyball top-100 recruit and a dynamic setter at Sierra Canyon High School. Over 3,000 career assists in high school and played high school volleyball with 2023 AVCA National Freshman of the Year Olivia Babcock (Pitt).

AIRD SIGNS EXTENSION

Following an outstanding season in which the Indiana volleyball team matched a program record with 21 regular season wins, head coach Steve Aird was awarded a contract extension through the 2029 season.

The Hoosiers won 11 games in the Big Ten for the first time in 24 years and finished in a tie for sixth in the conference. IU broke a losing streak to Purdue that dated back to 2012. Camryn Haworth earned the program's first All-American honors since 2010.

MORRIS NAMED TO UNDER 40 COACHING LIST

Rachel Morris, one of the nation's finest young coaches, was named to Volleyball Magazine's Under 40 College Coaching Hotshots list in the spring of 2024.

Morris, the program's associate head coach and recruiting coordinator, helped improve an IU offense that hit a collective .237 in 2023. She works directly with setter Camryn Haworth who was a unanimous First Team All-Big Ten selection.

She has also helped recruit a pair of outstanding recruiting classes with the 2025 class set to put pen to paper in November of 2024.

PUTTING PLAYERS IN PROS

Two of IU's most recent alumni, Paula Cerame and Kaley Rammelsberg, are off to their second year of pro volleyball in the 2025 season.

In the second year of the Pro Volleyball Federation, Cerame and Rammelsberg will be reunited as members of the Columbus Fury. It will be a homecoming for Rammelsberg. She grew up in Westerville, Ohio, just outside of Columbus.

50 YEARS OF VOLLEYBALL

The Hoosiers will be celebrating 50 season of volleyball and 50 seasons of opportunities for female student-athletes in 2024. A program that began in 1975, six years before the Big Ten and NCAA began sponsoring it, has grown to encompass sellouts in Wilkinson Hall.

During the season, IU will honor volleyball alumni and welcome back some of the program's finest players to showcase how the sport has developed and grown in Bloomington. Alumni weekend will be held on November 8th-10th when the Hoosiers host Purdue and USC.

A THREE-YEAR RUN

Led by the outstanding senior setter Camryn Haworth and veteran outside hitters Morgan Geddes and Mady Saris, IU has turned in back-to-back stellar years.

Returning most of the squad for 2024, Steve Aird's bunch will be chasing big things. A number of streaks are up in the air for IU to grab in the 50th year of Indiana Volleyball. All stats are considered since the NCAA and Big Ten began sponsoring volleyball in 1981.

CHASING HISTORY

Boosted by the return of a strong, veteran core, IU will have the chance to accomplish a handful of things never done in program history. A new-look Big Ten, featuring 18 teams, will present challenges but a talented group of Hoosiers will look to meet that.

HUSTLE AND HEART

Steve Aird took his first full recruiting class, the No. 15 ranked class in 2020, into the heart of the pandemic. One of the youngest teams in the country, the Hoosiers struggled in the 2021 calendar year but came out in a much better place.

Since 2020, with a class that featured players like Grae Gosnell, Savannah Kjolhede and Morgan Geddes, IU has steadily improved. Geddes is now in her fifth year and pairs with a deep senior class that features All-American setter Camryn Haworth.

STAYING COMPETITIVE

One of the biggest signs of growth in a program is being competitive, especially in the nation's deepest volleyball league. Filled with talent and tough environments, IU has built a program that has the ability to compete with anyone in any environment.

Below is a comparison in a collection of stats from the two years before Steve Aird took over (2016-17) to the past two years of his tenure (2022-23). Aird, who inherited a 1-win Big Ten program, has completely shifted the foundation and state of IU's program.

IU'S COMMITMENT TO WOMEN'S EXCELLENCE

As women's sports like volleyball, basketball and softball become more popular across the country, IU and its administration has committed to being at the forefront of its success.

IU was the only Big Ten program in the 2023 calendar year to have all of its teams in the four major women's sports finish in the top-6 of the conference standings.

WINNING AT WILKINSON HALL

Paired with a rise in success on the court, the Hoosiers have begun to build a stellar home environment in Wilkinson Hall. An arena where everyone is close to the court, IU enjoyed multiple attendance records in 2023 and a big collection of wins.

2023 Wilkinson Hall by the Numbers

- 10 wins at home - most since 2010
- 7-3 at home in the Big Ten (best record since 2010)
- Beat #15 Purdue - first ranked win at Wilkinson Hall
- An attendance of 2,400+ on three occasions
- 2 sellouts - vs. #2 Nebraska and #15 Purdue
- Wilkinson Hall Attendance Record - 2,725 vs. #15 Purdue

THE NEW LOOK BIG TEN

Already an elite volleyball conference with a deep history, the Big Ten will get even scarier this year as Oregon, Washington, UCLA and USC join the league.

Each team will play everyone once and have double plays with three teams. IU will keep a protected rival in Purdue each year, the most played matchup in Big Ten history.

INDIANA TEAM NOTES

OPENING TOUGH

Head coach Steve Aird has been no stranger to challenging his teams in the non-conference since becoming the head man at Indiana. With a veteran team in 2024, he's upped the challenge. The Hoosiers headed down to take on the defending National Champions, Texas, on the second weekend of the year.

Texas, led by Final Four MOP Madisen Skinner and a host of other starters, made life difficult for IU in a sold-out Gregory Gym. The Longhorns won in straight sets. The next night against Miami, a second round tournament team from last season, IU battled but fell in four sets.

CLOSING IN ON 100

Forced to build a new culture and new program upon arrival in 2018, Steve Aird took some lumps in the early years but has now provided back-to-back outstanding seasons and will continue to try and build upon that success.

He could potentially reach 100 all-time wins at Indiana this season with another outstanding group of talent at his disposal.

NATIONAL TV SPOTLIGHT

The Hoosiers will take center stage in 2024 as part of an expanded volleyball schedule on national television for the Big Ten Conference. Eight IU matches, including four straight at the end of October, will be broadcasted nationally.

Back-to-back matches against Wisconsin (Oct. 24) and Northwestern (Oct. 27) at Wilkinson will be on FS1 and Big Ten Network respectively. This year's slate is set to be a program record for matches picked up by the national television partners.

HOME SWEET WILKINSON HALL

Over the past three seasons, head coach Steve Aird has helped transform Wilkinson Hall into one of the premier volleyball atmospheres in the entire country.

The Hoosiers have responded well on the court, taking care of business. They've won at least seven home contests in the past three years.

CLOSE CALLS

Part of building IU's program out of the bottom of the Big Ten is becoming more competitive against the best teams in the conference. Steve Aird has helped IU do that but is still looking to beat top-ranked Big Ten teams on a more consistent basis.

ROAD WOES

The following six teams have held firm with their home court advantage over the Hoosiers over the past 30 years. IU has never won at Penn State and has gone decades since winning at Minnesota.

IU has one more chance to break a long standing road losing streak when it goes to Nebraska in November. It will have to wait another year to end streaks at Illinois, Purdue and Wisconsin.

PLAYER TRENDS

FIRING TOGETHER

When juniors Candela Alonso-Corcelles and Avry Tatum are at their best, IU is very tough to stop offensively. With a setter in Camryn Haworth running a fast offense, the two pins have enjoyed great success together this season.

In matches that both players reach double-digit kills this season, IU is 8-4. All the defeats have come at the hands of teams that have been in the top-25 this season.

ACES AT THE READY

Camryn Haworth has been extremely consistent from the end line in her four years at IU. She's the only player in rally-era program history with a match of at least five aces in all four years of her career.

SETTERS

ACES AWAY

Camryn Haworth has been lethal from the end line since arriving in Bloomington. She's totaled 40+ aces in all four of her college seasons including an outstanding 73 in 2023. No player in program history has ever totaled 40-or-more aces in all four years of their career.

BIG TEN SETTER HISTORY

One of the most dynamic setters the conference has seen in recent years, Haworth's career numbers are a reflection of her on-court hustle and desire to be an offensive-minded setter. She joins Penn State's Micha Hancock (2011-14) as the second Big Ten player in rally-era history with the following career stat line.

3,500 assists, 800 digs, 300 kills, 200 aces Rally Era (since 2001)

THE LEGACY OF NUMBER 10

Haworth, already one of the best players in program history, will have the chance to match achievements set by the great Ashley Benson (2007-10). Both players wore the No. 10 and will go down as arguably the two-best players to don the cream and crimson.

PIN HITTERS

PINS LEADING THE WAY

IU pushed its pin hitters to new levels in the offseason, changing its offense to run a fast tempo on balls from setter Camryn Haworth. With all of its players in Bloomington during the spring, the Hoosiers have gotten increased performance from their top offensive options.

Candela Alonso-Corcelles and Avry Tatum have led the way offensively, each combining for over 3.00 kills per set. In fact, they've turned into one of the best offensive duos in the Big Ten.

THE SPANISH STANDARD

Candela Alonso-Corcelles has been phenomenal in Big Ten play during her time at Indiana. She became a six-rotation player for the Hoosiers in 2023 and averaged 3.34 kills per set during conference play.

She had 264 kills in conference play including back-to-back games in 2023 with 20+ vs. Minnesota (11/12) and Maryland (11/17). She's played in 88 of 89 matches in three seasons and has been a part of 49 wins across her first three years at IU.

RICH TRADITION AT IU

Over the past 20 seasons, the Hoosiers have produced their fair share of quality middle blockers. Led by the two-time All-American and IU Hall of Famer Ashley Benson, running the middle has become a strong suit of IU and will look to continue with a new trio of athletes in 2024.

HOT AND COLD BLOCK

After graduating two veteran middle blockers, the Hoosiers have struggled with consistency at the net. IU has had four matches with 13 blocks as a team but also a handful of matches under five total stuffs.

When the block shows up to play, the team has been much better. Ava Vickers and Madi Sell have held their own in the middle while pin hitters have been productive at times.

MIDDLE BLOCKERS

THREE OPTIONS IN THE MIDDLE

Head coach Steve Aird will have a variety of options to choose in the middle this year after graduating veterans in Kaley Rammelsberg and Savannah Kjolhede.

Ava Vickers returns after playing sparingly over the course of the 2023 season but is as athletic and versatile as they come. Incoming freshman Ella Boersema is strong and physical while transfer Madi Sell (Missouri) is a long and athletic blocking presence.

FRESHMAN STARTERS

The Hoosiers haven't been shy to use freshmen in the starting lineup from the jump of a season. IU has used a freshman in 10-consecutive season-opening lineups. It's a trend that now continues in 2024 with Ella Boersema making an immediate appearance at middle blocker.

VICKERS UP FOR THE FIGHT

With some struggles for young freshman Ella Boersema, sophomore middle blocker Ava Vickers has been asked to fill into a big role offensively for IU during conference play.

She's answered every challenge and has started all of IU's Big Ten matches. Despite being undersized, she's shown to be a productive middle in the conference.

LAST TIME OUT

vs. #9 Purdue (Nov. 8, 2024)

L, 1-3 (21-25, 25-21, 22-25, 17-25)

Postgame Notes

- Purdue continues its commanding lead in the all-time series, pushing its record to 79-35 against the Hoosiers. The Boilermakers have won 22 of 40 matches in Bloomington and five of six at Wilkinson Hall. Eva Hudson's 26 kills were the most by a visiting player in Wilkinson Hall history.

- The Hoosiers racked up 11.0 total team blocks on the night, the eighth double-digit output in the category from IU this season. Junior middle blocker Madi Sell matched a career high with seven blocks (three solo). She's hit seven blocks in her career on four occasions, three of those coming this year. Her three solo stuffs were a career best.

- Junior outside hitter Candela Alonso-Corcelles had a team high 15 kills for IU. It was her 18th career match with at least 15 kills. 15 of those matches have come in Big Ten play. She's reached the threshold on nine occasions this year and in four of the last eight contests.

- Both IU and Purdue continued their trend of being fantastic in reception on Friday night. Two of the best teams at the skill in the league combined to allow just three total service aces. It was the fewest number of reception errors (3) in an IU match since Sept. 24, 2021 vs. Michigan State (2).

vs. #20 USC (Nov. 10, 2024)

L, 1-3 (24-26, 25-17, 15-25, 24-26)

Postgame Notes

- IU fell to 0-8 this season against ranked opponents, four of those coming in tight four-set losses. Over those eight matches, IU is 3-13 in sets decided by four or fewer points. The Hoosiers have lost all six deuce sets in those matches including five that were settle in extra points.

- Junior outside hitter Candela Alonso-Corcelles recorded double-digit kills for the fifth-straight match. She picked up her 13th career double-double (11 kills, 12 digs). In her IU career, she's been in double figures for kills in 33 of 54 Big Ten matches played.

- Senior setter Camryn Haworth racked up four service aces – including three straight in game two. It was the 12th match of her career with four-or-more aces and the third this season. She is the first player in program history with 40+ aces in four-straight seasons. She has 3,699 assists for her career – just 13 away from breaking the rally-era assist record for the Hoosiers.

WILKINSON HALL

Wilkinson Hall Dedication: January 16, 2019
*Wilkinson Hall Capacity: 3,000

An exciting chapter began for Indiana University Athletics in the 2018-19 school year as IU unveiled a new, state-of-the-art, 3,000-seat facility - Wilkinson Hall.

Wilkinson Hall is a multi-use training and performance center that is the new home venue for the Indiana Volleyball and Wrestling programs. One of the earliest volleyball specific arenas in the country, athletes and coaches have unlimited access to practice time and resources few schools in the country can provide.

Consistent with the university's master plan, the facility brings these two programs' home competitions back onto the IU Athletics campus from their former University Gymnasium home at the intersection of 10th Street and the 45/46 bypass.

In addition, Wilkinson Hall will provide the entire Indiana University Athletic Department and its programs with a new top-flight facility for year-round training, and will serve as a venue to host department and university events.

Wilkinson Hall is named after IU alumnus Jay Wilkinson and his family, who have an incredible history of support for IU Athletics and its student-athletes.

Indiana Volleyball played its first official matches in Wilkinson Hall during the 2019 campaign and has played there every year since.

In 2019, the opening year of Wilkinson Hall, the Hoosiers were 15th in the NCAA in attendance, the highest the team has ever been in program history.

Following a condensed COVID-19 season in 2020-21, fan support for IU volleyball has continued to grow in the three seasons following the pandemic.

The Hoosiers averaged over 1,300+ fans per season in 2022 and 2023. Matches against Purdue and Nebraska in 2023 were completely sold-out. The match with the Boilermakers, broadcasted on Big Ten Network, saw 2,725 fans in attendance.

Three of IU's four-biggest crowds in volleyball-specific arenas came in 2023 in matches against No. 15 Purdue, No. 2 Nebraska and No. 3 Wisconsin.

The Big Ten Network broadcasted live on two occasions from Wilkinson Hall with the Hoosiers knocking off their first top-25 opponent against No. 15 Purdue on Oct. 11, 2023.

Assistant Coach: Cincinnati (2005-07)

Assistant Coach: Auburn (2002-05)

PRIOR TO INDIANA

MARYLAND

Head Coach (2014-17)

• His time at Maryland saw him inherit a program that not only went 13-19 and finished 13th in the Atlantic Coast Conference in 2013, but was also preparing the join arguably the nation's best volleyball conference - the Big Ten.

• After winning just 10 matches overall and three in the Big Ten in his debut season, Aird quickly turned the Terrapins' fortunes around. His 18 wins in 2017 represented the program's most since 2010, while the seven conference victories were the most since joining the Big Ten.

• Notable wins that fall came against eventual Elite Eight participant USC as well as NCAA qualifier Purdue.

• Among Aird's greatest attributes is his ability to recruit. In 2016, Aird welcomed the nation's 16th ranked recruiting class to College Park, Md., and he followed that up with the program's first-ever top-10 class in 2017.

• That infusion of talent not only helped elevate Maryland in the Big Ten standings, but also created a level of excitement that had been lacking. Six of the program's top-10 attendance marks came during Aird's four-year stint.

PENN STATE

Assistant Coach (2007, 2012-13)

• Helped the Penn State program to NCAA Championships in both 2007 and 2013 as well as an additional Final Four berth in 2012.

• The 2007 team began a stretch of four-straight national titles in Happy Valley and also went a perfect 20-0 in the Big Ten while losing just two matches overall the entire year.

CINCINNATI

Assistant Coach (2005-07)

• Helped coach consecutive 20-win seasons in 2005 and 2006 at Cincinnati in the Big East.

AUBURN

Assistant Coach (2002-05)

• After finishing winless in SEC play his first year on the plains, Auburn won six SEC games in his third year there and improved in each of his three seasons as an assistant.

PENN STATE

Player (1998-2001)

• A team captain in Happy Valley, Aird helped Penn State to three final four appearances and an undefeated conference slate in 2000.

INDIANA

Head Coach (2018-Present)

2024

• Signed a contract extension through the 2029 season

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH • RACHEL MORRIS

3rd Season • Oregon ('10)

Rachel Morris completed second season with the Indiana Volleyball program in 2023. She was elevated to associate head coach and recruiting coordinator on July 1, 2023.

Programmed with a desire to develop student-athletes on and off the court, Morris helped implement daily meditation, conversations about mental health and group-bonding activities upon arrival to Bloomington in 2022.

Morris, handed the keys to the team's offensive gameplan, helped orchestrate a team that hit .237 on the season, the fourth-best mark in program history. She oversaw the development of junior setter Camryn Haworth who was the only conference setter to be named a unanimous selection to the All-Big Ten First Team in 2023.

Haworth led the Big Ten in assists (1,247) and led the Big Ten and NCAA in service aces (73), the most in a single season at IU since volleyball became a NCAA sponsored sport in 1981. She was the only power five player with multiple triple-doubles and finished the season with 10.22 assists per set.

The Hoosiers matched a program record with 21 regular season wins in 2023 and beat Purdue for the first time since 2012. IU finished in a tie for sixth in the conference standings, the best finish by the program since the Big Ten expanded to 14 teams.

ASSISTANT COACH • KEVIN HODGE

2nd Season • Penn State

Kevin Hodge completed his first season in Bloomington in 2023. A longtime friend, teammate and co-worker of Aird's, he was named an assistant coach for Indiana volleyball on July 6, 2023.

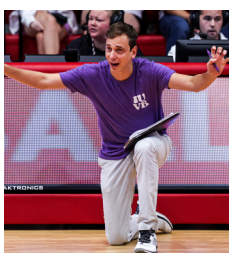

Hodge spent time working with the team's defensive gameplan and in-game serving strategy. The Hoosiers totaled 215 aces in 2023, becoming the first Big Ten program since 2001-02 with consecutive seasons of 200+ aces. IU's defense was vastly improved in 2023, totaling 1,647 digs and 303 blocks.

The Hoosiers matched a program record with 21 regular season wins in 2023 and beat Purdue for the first time since 2012. IU finished in a tie for sixth in the conference standings, the best finish by the program since the Big Ten expanded to 14 teams.

Freshman libero Ramsey Gary, who worked closely with Hodge, broke both IU's freshman and all-time single season digs record (530). She was a unanimous selection to the Big Ten All-Freshman Team and earned a nod as a Second Team All-Big Ten selection.

Hodge joins the IU program after working as the Director of Girls Indoor Recruiting at WAVE, California's premier club volleyball program, since 2015. He took on a variety of roles for the club, most notably being named 2019 National 17's Club Coach of the Year.

ASSISTANT COACH • MATT KEARNS

1st Season • Xavier ('17)

Matt Kearns was named the program's third assistant coach on August 5th, 2024.

Known for his work in volleyball analytics and game preparation, Kearns joins the Indiana program after serving one season as the head coach at Louisiana-Monroe.

Prior to his first head coaching job in 2023, Kearns spent six seasons in various roles at mid-major powerhouse Northern Kentucky. He helped lead the Norse to an NCAA Tournament bid in 2019, winning the conference's tournament title with three-straight wins.

In six seasons at Northern Kentucky, the program compiled a 108-69 record with overall season mark above .500 in the final five campaigns. He helped coach a number of All-Horizon League selections including libero Ashton Terrill and outside hitter Anna Brinkmann.

Kearns did his undergraduate studies at Xavier University where he assisted with the volleyball program for parts of four seasons. He became integrated with the Date Volley program, learning the system that helps with analytics and trends in matches. He worked as a Technical Advisor and then as a student coach from 2014-17. He graduated with a degree in Philosophy.

Originally from Bellingham, Mass., Kearns will join the Hoosiers for the beginning of fall camp on head coach Steve Aird's 2024 coaching staff.

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS • HALLIE ENDERLE

3rd Season • Central Michigan ('15)

Hallie Enderle completed her second season with the Indiana Volleyball program in 2023. She was elevated to director of operations on July 1, 2023.

Her duties include coordinating travel, equipment and facility arrangements as well as helping with the overall function and day-to-day operations of the Indiana Volleyball program.

Enderle spent four seasons playing college volleyball at Central Michigan where she recorded 367 kills for the Chippewas. During her playing career, Central Michigan won the MAC's automatic bid in 2011 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament.

In 2021, Enderle served as Head Coach for Northern Indiana Volleyball Association's 18-1s, bringing home a USAV National Championship at the 18 Patriot Division.

Previously, Enderle served as the head coach for ages 14-16s for Krush Volleyball Club for four seasons and head varsity coach for Beal City High School for one season.

Currently, Enderle is in her second year coaching and overseeing operations for BTown Volleyball Club. She is also pursuing her PhD in School Psychology through Indiana University.
