HOOSIERS SET FOR FIRST WEEKEND AT WILKINSON HALL

- Indiana to play first two home games this year against Cal Poly and Eastern Illinois
- IU has finished .500 or better in each of the last four seasons - the program has won 80 games since 2022
- Since the beginning of 2023, the Hoosiers are 33-9 inside the friendly confines of Wilkinson Hall

FIRST SERVE

WINNING AT HOME: Dating back to 2023, the Hoosiers have won 23-consecutive matches against unranked opponents at Wilkinson Hall. That includes a run of 9 non-conference teams in that same stretch. Wins over Cal Poly and Eastern Illinois would improve IU to 35-9 at Wilkinson Hall since the 2023 season.

BOERSEMA'S BIG WEEK: Third-year middle blocker Ella Boersema averaged 3.44 kills per set in four games last week. That included 21 kills as an opposite hitter against No. 12 Texas A&M and 16 as a middle blocker against Southern Indiana. She hit .441 over that stretch of play for the Hoosiers.

BIG T OFFENSE: Second-year setter Teodora Kričковиć has become a much bigger offensive threat during her second college campaign. Over the last two years, IU is 4-0 when she records at least 5 kills in a match. That includes games against No. 12 Texas A&M (7) and Southern Indiana (5) this season.

CALIFORNIA CONNECTION: Between Cal Poly (13) and Indiana (4), there will be 17 kids from the state of California involved in Thursday's match in Bloomington. Both of each team's leading scorers - Jaidyn Jager, Indiana (3.42 kills per set) and Kendall Beshear, Cal Poly (3.44 kills per set) - are from the Golden State.

STEPPING UP: In win over Southern Indiana, middle blockers Ella Boersema (16) and Victoria Gray (11) combined for 27 kills. It was the first time that IU had a pair of middle blockers each reach double figures in the same match since 2023 (at Northwestern - Oct. 29, 2023, Rammelsberg - 15, Kjolhede - 10).

EMERGING HELP: Third-year opposite hitter Avery Daum made her first start on the right side with 7 kills and 4 blocks against Southern Indiana. She has been a fantastic practice player for the Hoosiers and finally got her chance to shine. All five primary attackers had at least 7 kills in the win.

KEEP CLIMBING: Second-year setter Teodora Kričковиć is closing in on 1,500 career assists during her time in Bloomington. She would only be the 12th setter in program history to hit that plateau. The Serbian has 1,398 over the last two years and is averaging 10.59 assists per set in her career.

TALLYING WINS: Since the 2022 campaign (four-plus years), Indiana has racked up 80 wins under head coach Steve Aird. That includes at least 15 wins in each full season during that stretch. IU will be looking to reach that plateau again for the 5th-straight year.

LAST TIME VS. OPPONENTS

INDIANA -, CAL POLY -

- These two teams have never played in volleyball.

INDIANA 3, EASTERN ILLINOIS 0

Sept. 10, 2011 | University Gym | Bloomington, Ind.

- The Hoosiers made quick work of Eastern Illinois during the 2011 campaign, winning in straight sets in a match in Bloomington. IU held a .324-.022 advantage in hitting percentage and allowed the Panthers to score just 48 total points.

- Setter Mary Chaudoin tied for the team lead with seven kills. She also had 22 assists and 6 digs. Kristen Seaton provided seven kills for IU in the victory.

A WIN WOULD

CAL POLY: Be the second of the year against a team that made last year's regional semifinals. It would also improve IU to 34-9 in the last four years at Wilkinson Hall

EASTERN ILLINOIS: Be the 10th win in program history against Eastern Illinois and the second of the year against an OVC program.

BOTH: Put the Hoosiers at five wins during the early portion of the season and move then to 35-9 at Wilkinson Hall since 2023.

2025 IN REVIEW

BEST SEASON IN PROGRAM HISTORY

- The Hoosiers went 25-8 last year on their way to just the second regional appearance in program history. IU broke single-season records for wins (25) and Big Ten wins (14) in the NCAA era and hosted the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament for the second time ever.

ALL-AMERICAN HOOSIERS

- For the first time ever, IU had two different players named AVCA All-Americans in the same season. Opposite hitter Avry Tatum and setter Teodora Kričković had their names etched into history at Wilkinson Hall after brilliant 2025 campaigns.

PLAYING THE KIDS

- A deep and talented freshman class was one of the big reasons behind a great campaign last year. Outside hitter Jaidyn Jager, setter Teodora Kričković, libero Audrey Jackson and middle blocker Victoria Gray were all 30-match starters during their debut seasons.

BIG WINS

- IU won four matches against AVCA top-25 opponents last year with three of them coming on the road. That included the first ever victory on the road at Penn State and back-to-back wins in Los Angeles against USC and UCLA. IU also knocked off Colorado in the NCAA Tournament.

WILKINSON MAGIC

- It was another big year of winning games inside Wilkinson Hall in Bloomington. The Hoosiers went 12-2 on their main home court with the only defeats coming at the hands of No. 1 Nebraska and No. 20 Minnesota. IU was 7-2 in Bloomington during Big Ten play.

SERIES VS. OPPONENTS

CAL POLY: Indiana and Cal Poly have never played in volleyball. However, the two schools did recently play in men's soccer with the Hoosiers coming out on top. The last school from the Big West that IU played in volleyball was against Long Beach State in 2023.

EASTERN ILLINOIS: These two sides have played just twice since 1985 but played nearly every season before that. IU leads the all-time series 9-2 with a win in the most recent contest in 2011.

The first volleyball match in program history (1975) actually came against Eastern Illinois and resulted in a win for the Hoosiers. In 1981, the first year that women's volleyball was an NCAA sanctioned sport, IU beat Eastern Illinois again.

Jaidyn Jager had 20 kills in last year's home opener against SEMO

QUICK HITTERS - BROADCAST NOTES

JAIDYN GETS IT DONE

- Second-year outside hitter Jaidyn Jager is on a run of four-straight games with double-digit kills, all of those coming since the month of September began. She twice had a stretch of six-straight games with 10+ kills during her standout freshman campaign in 2025.

TOUGH TESTS

- Cal Poly is the second of seven teams from last year's NCAA regional semifinals that IU will play this year. The Hoosiers are off to a 1-1 start in such games this year after dispatching of Texas A&M in five sets and losing to Louisville. The next match will be against Wisconsin (Oct. 1).

MORE OFFENSE

- Seven different players have had at least seven kills in a match for the Hoosiers this year. That number comes without third-year outside hitter Izzy Clark or fifth-year opposite hitter Avry Tatum having even played on the campaign.

GETTING BETTER

- After struggling against No. 7 Louisville in the season opener, IU's defense has picked up. Its next four opponents have all hit under .245. During that time, the Hoosiers are averaging 13.44 digs per set. That includes 67 in a win over Southern Indiana.

GREAT PASSING

- Third-year middle blocker Ella Boersema played in her natural position in a win over Southern Indiana on Monday. Her 16 kills in the win were the most by an IU player at that position since Kaley Rammelsberg also had 16 in a game against Georgia Tech in 2021.

ROSTER NOTES

#1 GROWING UP IN THE GYM: First-year outside hitter Sara Snowbarger is one of four IU players that were coached by their mom during their high school careers. Sara grew up in the gym where her mom, Jen, was Wooster's all-time winningest coach. Sara finished top-10 in Ohio state history in career kills. Jen was a star player at Kent State back in the 1990's.

#2 DESTINATION BLOOMINGTON: No player was born to play for IU more than Bloomington North product and second-year defensive specialist Avery Freeman. She's the first local product to sign with the Hoosiers since All-American Ashley Benson (2007-10). Freeman spent time at volleyball camps at IU dating back to her early years. Both of her parents attended Bloomington North as well and stayed in town to raise their family.

#3 SEEING DOUBLE: First-year defensive specialist Ellie Hepler is extremely close with her brother, A.J. The reason being - they are twins. The two both grew up playing sports and will each head off to college to continue their careers. Ellie will play volleyball for IU while A.J. plays baseball at Grace College.

#5 ACTION JACKSON: Second-year utility player Audrey Jackson was never supposed to end up at Indiana. She was originally committed to play beach volleyball at Texas but decommitted towards the end of the 2024 calendar year. She took her official visit at the end of the season and ended up playing every match of her freshman campaign in 2025.

#6 CALIFORNIA CLARK: Third-year outside hitter Izzy Clark joins a recent pipeline of Hoosiers joining the program from California. She was a first team All-WCC selection in both seasons at San Diego after being the 2024 WCC Freshman of the Year. She played her high school ball at powerhouse Mater Dei and was also briefly a club teammate of Sade Ilawole during her younger days.

#7 NEXT UP: Second-year defensive specialist Hannah Leftridge is the youngest of three daughters in her family. Hannah became an aunt in July when her sister, Amy, gave birth to her first child. Much like her sister, Hannah also intends to go into nursing after her volleyball career is over.

#8 FICKELL + FOOTBALL: Fourth-year setter Luca Fickell is the lone daughter - and one of six kids - of Wisconsin head football coach Luke Fickell. The four eldest kids have all gone on to play college sports. This fall, she will play volleyball at IU while her twin brothers - Ashton and Aydon - join their father in the Wisconsin football program.

#11 SWISS ARMY KNIFE: Fourth-year middle blocker Ava Vickers is more than just a volleyball player. She spends her free time doing modeling and fashion gigs while also cutting her teeth in the art of making clothes out of items that she thrifted. In addition to those hobbies, she studies interior design and is well set up for her future after graduating from IU.

#12 INTERNATIONAL FLARE: Second-year setter Teodora Kričковиć was sought after by head coach Steve Aird for the majority of the spring of 2025. Aird hasn't been shy to add international pieces to his teams at Indiana. In fact, she's the seventh "true" international player to play for IU. She has played at the U19, U21 and U22 levels for Serbia and has goals to set the olympic team in the future.

#13 SHE'S BACK: Fifth-year opposite hitter Avry Tatum rejoined the team in August with a pursuit of getting eligibility to use her last season to play with the Hoosiers at a big position of need. The 2025 All-American brings over 1,100 kills to the table during her collegiate career so far.

She started a match against No. 8 Wisconsin in 2024 and is believed to be the shortest setter to ever start a game for the Hoosiers. She is also a two-time team captain and represented IU at Big Ten Media Day in 2026.

#18 BUSINESS AS USUAL: No one has taken advantage of the academic opportunities at IU more than third-year opposite hitter Avery Daum. She is studying in the prestigious Kelley School of Business and has plans to enter the business world after her graduation in Bloomington. She spent some of the summer interning in Atlanta.

CHARTING THE AIRD ERA

• Head coach Steve Aird was named the head coach of Indiana Volleyball on Dec. 27, 2017 following four seasons rebuilding the Maryland program. Before that, he was prominently known as elite recruiter for legendary head coach Russ Rose at Penn State.

• Aird inherited an IU team that went 1-19 in the Big Ten in 2017 and finished 13 out of 14 programs in the conference. The Hoosiers were swept 14 times in league play the year before he arrived.

• When Aird arrived in Bloomington, the transfer portal wasn't what it was today. The roster stayed mostly in tact from the season before. He led the Hoosiers to a winning record (16-15) and finished on the outside of the NCAA tournament bubble.

• Since taking over the program, the world of college athletics has completely changed. His first full recruiting class was scheduled to arrive for the 2020 season - a season that never fully happened.

College Athletics Changes (since Aird's first year in 2018)

Fall 2020	Fall volleyball season is canceled
2020	Aird's first recruiting class, ranked 15th, arrives on campus
2020-21	Big Ten plays a spring, conference-only schedule
2021	All COVID players granted a fifth year of eligibility
2021	Transfer portal eliminates normal transfer rules
2021	NIL introduced, allowing athletes to profit off their name
2024	Big Ten expands to 18 teams
2025	Revenue sharing introduced at college level

• Following a tough 2021 calendar year - where most Big Ten schools had fifth-year seniors, Aird made adjustments to his staff. He hired Rachel Morris and Spencer McLachlin as assistant coaches. He added Kevin Hodge in 2023 to replace McLachlin. Matt Kearns was added in 2024.

• In 2022, the fruits of Aird's work began to take shape. Following a European tour with a roster full of his players, the Hoosiers began to turn into a competitive force in the Big Ten.

• Over the last four years, IU has gone 77-51 overall and 40-15 at Wilkinson Hall. It has won 42 Big Ten games during that stretch, the most in a four-year span in program history. With top-15 recruiting classes on the way in 2026 and 2027, Aird has the program on the right track.

• Aird signed a contract extension through the 2031 season after guiding IU to a 25-win campaign in 2025 and a trip to the NCAA regional semifinals. The Hoosiers had two All-Americans and four All-Big Ten selections during his eighth season at the helm of the program.

• Prior to Aird arriving as head coach, the program was in a bad spot. The Hoosiers played off campus and had very little student support. Below is a list of things that Aird has flipped during his time in Bloomington.

IMPORTANT WINS IN THE AIRD ERA

Indiana has picked up some fantastic wins over the last eight seasons. All of them have had an impact in getting the program back to the NCAA Tournament during the 2025 season.

Below, we take a look back at some of the best wins of the Steve Aird era. Most of them have come in the last four seasons as the program has taken a jump to the next level.

W, 3-0: vs. #24 Colorado - Dec. 5, 2025

- In front of a fantastic crowd at Wilkinson Hall, IU swept fifth-seeded Colorado to advance to the Sweet 16 for the second time in program history. Senior outside hitter Candela Alonso-Corcelles had 16 kills in the win.

W, 3-0: at #19 Penn State - Nov. 2, 2025

- For the first time in program history, the Hoosiers beat Penn State on the road in State College. For Steve Aird, it was the first time beating his alma mater as a head coach. IU was ranked No. 18 after the weekend.

W, 3-1: vs. #15 Purdue - Oct. 11, 2023

- IU broke a long losing streak to in-state foe rival with a 3-1 victory on the Big Ten Network in front of a sold-out Wilkinson Hall. It was Aird's first win over the Boilermakers as IU head coach and kickstarted a 21-win season.

W, 3-2: at #5 Ohio State - Nov. 20, 2022

- At the time, IU picked up its biggest road win in program history. The Hoosiers beat No. 5 Ohio State in Columbus behind a fantastic performance from setter Camryn Haworth. The victory helped recruiting momentum that summer in Bloomington.

W, 3-2: at #15 Kentucky - Sept. 14, 2019

- The Hoosiers went down to Lexington to pick up the first ranked win of his IU career. Breana Edwards had 20 kills in the victory while the team picked up 17 blocks. It was the statement win that Aird needed.

PRO PLAYERS

On top of success in Bloomington, 13 different players have graduated from IU and gone on to play at least one season of professional volleyball. That list includes former outside hitter Candela Alonso-Corcelles, IU's first ever draft pick in Major League Volleyball.

AIRD ERA ITEMS

• A deliberate use of the transfer portal and strong prep recruiting has been the key to getting IU's program back among the national ranks. Head coach Steve Aird is about the development and relationships in the program but has used the transfer portal to fill big areas of need during each season.

• More often than not, those transfers end up developing to a whole new level during their time in Bloomington. That includes the likes of All-Big Ten talents Avry Tatum and Kaley Rammelsberg.

Impact Transfers (since 2021)

Player	Previous School
Avry Tatum (OPP)	Cincinnati
- Stats at Indiana: 91 matches, 936 kills, .273 hitting percentage, 188 blocks
Kaley Rammelsberg (MB)	High Point

Madi Sell (MB)	Missouri
- Stats at Indiana: 52 matches, 207 kills, .315 hitting percentage, 168 blocks

• While recruiting the elite prospects can make life easier, head coach Steve Aird has also been able to identify and develop talented players that weren't high in the prep rankings. The balance between both sides in the recruiting game has helped him turn things around in Bloomington.

• In some cases, Aird has even helped that student athlete to go on and play professional volleyball in the United States or overseas. That caliber of player continues to help raise the bar in the gym.

• With the 3-1 win over Northwestern, IU is now 17-27 all-time in Big Ten openers. The Hoosiers now hold a 5-0 record when opening conference play against Northwestern.

• In all seasons in program history, it was tied for the third-longest streak in program history. It's just the fourth time overall that the Hoosiers had ever won 10-consecutive games (across any seasons).

• This run of results includes the only time in program history that IU has won consecutive regular season games against ranked opponents. The Hoosiers did that in early October of 2025 with wins at No. 17 USC and No. 24 UCLA in Los Angeles. IU followed it up on Nov. 2, 2025 with a win at No. 19 Penn State.

• Over the past five seasons, head coach Steve Aird has helped transform Wilkinson Hall into one of the premier volleyball atmospheres in the entire country. IU won 10+ games in three-straight seasons (2023-25) for the first time since 1998-2000.

• The Hoosiers' 11 wins at home in the 2024 regular season were tied for second most in a single season program history. Their 10 wins in the 2023 and 2025 regular season were tied for sixth in program history.

• All four players are hitting above .335 for their career and have combined for over 1,000 kills during their collegiate careers.

• Since the beginning of 2022, IU has the second-most aces by any Big Ten program. That includes seasons of 190+ aces in 2022, 2023 and 2025. The Hoosiers return three players with at least 25 aces from last year.

SEASON NOTES AND TRENDS

• Head coach Steve Aird has never been shy about playing other programs with NCAA Tournament aspirations early in the season. Even while scheduling in the non-conference can be quite difficult, he has made an effort to get very good programs on the docket.

• Over the last five years, IU has beaten at least one SEC or ACC program before conference play in each year. That doesn't even include an NCAA Tournament win over Big 12 foe Colorado in 2025.

• Since the 25-point rally-scoring era began in 2008, she's just the 5th IU player to have 20+ kills on 40 or fewer swings while hitting .470 or above. It's the second time in the last two years that it has happened.

OFFENSIVE PRODUCTION

Since 2023, IU has seen an uptick in offensive production. A lot of that centered around star setter Camryn Haworth but also included some powerful middles and pin hitters.

With exceptional depth on the pins and returning production in the middle, IU can expect its offense to run fast and quite effective over the course of the season. Below is how it has stacked up over the last few years.

OFFENSE UNDER MORRIS

• Over the past five seasons, associate head coach Rachel Morris has been tasked with running the offense. She helped institute a fast tempo with former setter Camryn Haworth and that continued with new setter Teodora Kričković last season.

• IU has seen an uptick in offensive performances since she arrived in 2022. The Hoosiers broke a single-season program record for hitting percentage (.281) in 2025. While it's not all credited to Morris, she's helped reshape how the offense looks with a number of versatile pieces.

PRODUCTIVE CORE

The Hoosiers played a massive cohort of freshmen last season. That group, the highest-ranked recruiting class in program history, produced at a high level. IU advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2010. Now, as sophomores, that core group is back to continue its winning ways.

Indiana was the only school in the NCAA in 2025 with:

• A separate freshman with 1,000 assists, 380 kills and 100 blocks

Jaidyn Jager	383 kills
Teodora Kričković	1,212 assists
Victoria Gray	106 blocks

The Hoosiers also had:

• Four freshmen with more than 15 aces and four with more than 100 digs

100+ Digs	Indiana
- Jager (249), Kričković (201), Jackson (193), Freeman (119)
15+ Aces	Indiana

DOUBLE THE FUN

Jager has been good from both ends of the court in her career. She's a naturally gifted offensive player but also has the ability to make important defensive plays to keep rallies alive. In her career, she's up to 8 double-doubles during her time in Bloomington.

CLOSING THE CYCLE

IU has gone on a great run of form since the 2022 season. With each passing year, the Hoosiers continue to stack more overall wins and more Big Ten wins. They will look to close out another four-year cycle for senior athletes Luca Fickell and Ava Vickers.

NEVER HAVE WE EVER

There's a chance for continued history during the 2026 campaign. Last year's team set a standard that IU will hope it can continue to meet going forward.

Won 20 Games in Consecutive Seasons (NCAA era)

Current: 2025 (25), 2026 (3)

Won 10 Big Ten Games in Consecutive Seasons

Current: 2025 (14), 2026 (-)

THE LAST TIME

After a highly successful 2025 season, the Hoosiers have a chance to accomplish the following items with repeat success in 2026.

The Last Time Indiana - (NCAA era)

Made back-to-back NCAA Tournaments:	1998, 1999
Had back-to-back winning seasons:	1999, 2000
Had multiple ranked wins in back-to-back seasons:	1998, 1999

WHAT'S AT STAKE IN 2026

• Success inside the Big Ten has been a big catalyst in the rise of IU's program over the past five years. After breaking a single-season program record for league wins (14) in 2025, IU will be looking to follow that up with another great run through the conference slate.

Potential Season Outcomes

For a 17-game Big Ten slate:

Wins

12

- the third season in program history with at least 12 Big Ten wins

- make Ava Vickers and Luca Fickell:

- the winningest Big Ten duo in school history (45)

10

- back-to-back 10-win Big Ten seasons - first time in program history

- make Ava Vickers and Luca Fickell:

- the winningest Big Ten duo in school history (43)

RANKED WINS

• Part of building IU's program out of the bottom of the Big Ten has been beating ranked opponents. Head coach Steve Aird helped put four on the board in 2025 and will look to add to that tally as he rises the ranks in program history.

BORDER BATTLES

• Over the past few years, IU has caught up to some of its neighboring Big Ten programs. The Hoosiers have recruited at a high level and have started to beat programs like Michigan, Illinois and Ohio State.

• Additionally, IU has gotten recruits from those states to stay home. IU's 2025 and 2026 classes were both nationally recognized by multiple outlets.

STACKING UP HOME WINS

• Winning at Wilkinson Hall has been a driving force in program success over the last five seasons. If IU can win 10 games at home in 2026, it will be the first time in program history that the Hoosiers have had double-digit home victories in four-straight seasons.

WILKINSON HALL

Wilkinson Hall Dedication: January 16, 2019
*Wilkinson Hall Capacity: 3,000

An exciting chapter began for Indiana University Athletics in the 2018-19 school year as IU unveiled a new, state-of-the-art, 3,000-seat facility - Wilkinson Hall.

Wilkinson Hall is a multi-use training and performance center that is the new home venue for the Indiana Volleyball and Wrestling programs. One of the earliest volleyball specific arenas in the country, athletes and coaches have unlimited access to practice time and resources few schools in the country can provide.

Consistent with the university's master plan, the facility brings these two programs' home competitions back onto the IU Athletics campus from their former University Gymnasium home at the intersection of 10th Street and the 45/46 bypass.

In addition, Wilkinson Hall will provide the entire Indiana University Athletic Department and its programs with a new top-flight facility for year-round training, and will serve as a venue to host department and university events.

Wilkinson Hall is named after IU alumnus Jay Wilkinson and his family, who have an incredible history of support for IU Athletics and its student-athletes.

Wilkinson Hall sold-out vs. #2 Nebraska in 2023

Indiana Volleyball played its first official matches in Wilkinson Hall during the 2019 campaign and has played there every year since. In 2019, the opening year of Wilkinson Hall, the Hoosiers were 15th in the NCAA in attendance, the highest the team has ever been in program history.

Following a condensed COVID-19 season in 2020-21, fan support for IU volleyball has continued to grow in the years following the pandemic.

The Hoosiers averaged over 1,300+ fans per season in 2022 and 2023. Matches against Purdue and Nebraska in 2023 were completely sold-out. The match with the Boilermakers, broadcasted on Big Ten Network, saw 2,725 fans in attendance.

IU has rebroken the Wilkinson Hall attendance program record in each of the past three seasons in matches against Purdue. The top four biggest crowds in the gym's history have come in the past three campaigns.

The Hoosiers have beaten two ranked opponents since opening the doors to Wilkinson Hall in 2019. In 2025, IU hosted the first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament on its home floor. Nearly 2,000 fans watched IU dominate Colorado to advance to the regional semifinals for the first time since 2010.

IU students celebrate a win over #15 Purdue in 2023.

ASSOCIATE COACH • RACHEL MORRIS

5th Season • Oregon ("10)

Rachel Morris completed her fourth season with the Indiana Volleyball program in 2025. She has served as the associate head coach and recruiting coordinator since July 1, 2023.

Programmed with a desire to develop student-athletes on and off the court, Morris helped implement daily meditation, conversations about mental health and group-bonding activities upon arrival to Bloomington in 2022. Morris was also named to Volleyball Magazine's Under 40 College Coaching Hotshots list in 2023.

Morris, handed the keys to the team's offensive gameplan when she arrived at IU, has turned IU into one of the most effective offensives in the country. The Hoosiers finished with a top-20 national hitting percentage in 2025 (.281) - a mark that smashed a single-season program record.

In the four seasons that Morris has served as a coach in Bloomington, IU has won 77 games overall and 42 matches in the Big Ten. Both of those marks are program records in a four-year span. She has coached two All-American setters - Camryn Haworth (2023) and Teodora Kričović (2025 - over the last three years.

In 2025, Morris helped IU run the fastest pace in the entire country. All six players that played in a primary attacking role achieved career highs in hitting percentage. Middle blocker Victoria Gray (.378) finished second in a single season in program history in hitting efficiency.

Morris and assistant coach Kevin Hodge are engaged to be married. The couple lives in Bloomington with her dog, Kona.

ASSISTANT COACH • KEVIN HODGE

4th Season • Penn State

Kevin Hodge completed his third season as an assistant coach in Bloomington in 2025. A longtime friend, teammate and co-worker of head coach Steve Aird, he was named an assistant coach for Indiana volleyball on July 6, 2023.

Hodge spends time working with the team's defensive gameplan and in-game serving strategy. Over his three seasons in Bloomington, the Hoosiers have racked up 618 aces including 122 from All-American Camryn Haworth. The Fishers, Indiana native went on to break the program's all-time aces record (213) as a senior in 2024.

The Hoosiers were extremely efficient from the end line in 2025. Five different players had at least 20 aces, led by freshman Teodora Kričović with 38. IU finished with 192 aces in 2025 and only 233 service errors. On five occasions, IU had double-digit aces in a contest.

IU welcomed in a completely new cohort of back row players in 2025. Three freshmen helped anchor the libero jersey including Audrey Jackson. She became the team's primary ball handler in the libero jersey and racked up 193 digs while passing above a 2.10 on the season. Freshman outside hitter Jaidyn Jager led the team with 249 digs and passed at an elite level. Avery Freeman (119 digs) and Hannah Leftridge (67) each spent time in the jersey as well.

In the three seasons that Hodge has been at IU, it has racked up 61 wins overall and 33 conference wins. The Hoosiers have gone 33-9 (.786) at Wilkinson Hall during that span, winning 10+ home matches in three-straight years for the first time since 1998-2000.

ASSISTANT COACH • MATT KEARNS

3rd Season • Xavier ("17)

Matt Kearns was named as the third assistant coach for the Indiana volleyball program on July 29, 2024. He joins the staff after spending time with three different division one programs, including two in the Midwest. Kearns completed his second season with IU in 2025.

Kearns, known for his work in volleyball analytics and game preparation, comes to Bloomington after spending the 2023 season as the head coach at Louisiana-Monroe. Before his time with the Warhawks, Kearns spent six years at Northern Kentucky as a graduate assistant (2017-18) and an assistant coach (2019-22).

In his second year with the program, IU developed an impressive trio of middle blockers. Freshman middle blocker Victoria Gray became the fourth first-year player in program history to record 100 blocks in a season. Sophomore Ella Boersema was the Big Ten's leading blocker (1.40 per set) before sustaining a season-ending injury in October.

Kearns remained in charge of IU's scouting report for a record-setting 2025 season. The Hoosiers picked up 16 sweeps as part of a single-season record 25 wins. IU advanced to the regional semifinals for the first time since 2010 and had four All-Big Ten selections and two AVCA All-Americans.

The first season for Kearns in Bloomington in 2024 saw the Hoosiers pick up 15 wins overall and end the season winning three of four matches in the Big Ten. Kearns worked closely with the team's scouting report and helped IU's players with in-game blocking and defensive adjustments.
