► FIRST-AND-10

• Michigan State will be looking for its fourth win in the last five games when it hosts Indiana on Saturday, Nov. 19 at noon in Spartan Stadium. The game will be televised on the Big Ten Network with Cory Provus (play-by-play), Matt Millen (analyst) and Elise Menaker (sidelines) on the call. The Spartans (5-5, 3-4 Big Ten) won their second straight game with a 27-21 victory over Rutgers last Saturday in Spartan Stadium, while Indiana (3-7, 1-6 Big Ten) fell at No. 2 Ohio State, 56-14.

• Saturday's game marks the 69th meeting between Michigan State and Indiana. The Spartans lead the all-time series against the Hoosiers, 49-17-2, including a 26-7-1 record in East Lansing.

• Since 1950, the winner of the Michigan State-Indiana game has been presented the Old Brass Spittoon. The brass spittoon came from one of Michigan's earliest trading posts and is widely believed to be more than 200 years old. Legend has it that the spittoon was around when both institutions were founded – Indiana in 1820 and MAC in 1855. The trophy was initiated by the junior and senior classes and student council at Michigan State, and soon accepted by the Indiana Student Senate. Since 1950, Michigan State leads the series, 49-14-1.

• Redshirt sophomore linebacker Cal Haladay was named the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week for the second week in a row after recording a career-high 19 tackles in the win over Rutgers, the most by a Big Ten player this season. Haladay is just the second Spartan to be named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week in back-to-back weeks. In the win at No. 16 Illinois on Nov. 5, Haladay posted nine tackles, including a career-high 3.5 tackles for loss (10 yards). Haladay ranks second in the Big Ten with a career-high 99 tackles (9.9 pg).

• Redshirt junior quarterback Payton Thorne, who has started 24 consecutive games for the Spartans, is 191-of-302 passing (.632) for 2,152 yards, 16 touchdowns and nine interceptions through the first 10 games. He ranks fifth in the Big Ten with 16 passing touchdowns, including 10 of 25-plus yards. According to Pro Football Focus, Thorne has thrown nine TDs downfield for 20-plus yards (tied for first in the Big Ten and tied for 11th in the FBS). Currently with 5,967 career passing yards, Thorne needs just 33 passing yards to become the seventh quarterback in MSU history to pass for 6,000 career yards.

2022 SEASON

• All requests for working press, photo and broadcast credentials for Michigan State's 2022 home football games should be submitted online. Please contact athletic communications office coordinator Paulette Martis at (517) 355-2271 for the website.

• Priority for the issuance of credentials will be given to daily print/digital media outlets and radio and television stations which cover MSU football on a regular basis.

PRESS BOX

• The Spartan Stadium press box, located on level eight, is the working press deck for reporters that features 193 seats and three radio broadcast booths. Level six is the television camera deck as well as the broadcast location for national telecasts. Admission to the press box is through Gate F on the west side of the stadium. All press personnel are subject to search prior to entering Spartan Stadium.

POST-GAME PRESS CONFERENCES

• Post-game press conferences from both head coaches are conducted in the media center on the lower level of the north end zone facility at Spartan Stadium. Reporters can access the media center from the concourse. Following MSU head coach Mel Tucker's press conference, selected Spartan players will be available for interviews. Quotes from both head coaches and selected players will be posted online at msuspartans.com approximately one hour after the game.

MONDAY: WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE

• A weekly press conference with MSU head coach Mel Tucker will be held each Monday during the season. Please contact Ben Phlegar for more information.

MEDIA INTERVIEWS

• Outside the weekly press conference, interviews during the week with head coach Mel Tucker or any Spartan players should be arranged through the MSU Athletic Communications Department. The best time for player interviews is following practice on Tuesday. All player interviews should be completed by Wednesday. Please contact the MSU Athletic Communications Department for all player interview requests at least 24 hours in advance.

GAME NOTES/POST-GAME MATERIALS

• Upon request, a final statistics book, quotes and notes can be e-mailed to media members approximately 90 minutes after the conclusion of the game. To be added to the list, please e-mail football contact Ben Phlegar. In addition, statistics, game notes and quotes will be posted on msuspartans.com after the game.

Please note that all media policies are subject to change.

RESOURCES/PROGRAMMING

MSUSPARTANS.COM

• The official website of Michigan State Athletics, msuspartans.com, is the most complete source of information on the Spartans, featuring news releases, schedules, rosters, bios, statistics, game notes, photos, videos, archives and more. A complete video from the weekly press conference is available on the website Monday afternoon; weekly releases are available on Monday evenings. Each game day, the website will have stats, quotes and notes following the conclusion of the game.

SPARTAN VIDEO GOOGLE DRIVE UPDATES

• Links to download footage for broadcast television use only will be emailed when footage is made available. For questions or to be added to the list, please contact Ben Phlegar.

SPARTAN MEDIA NETWORK

• Michigan State Athletics and Playfly Sports announced in August 2020 a rebrand of the statewide Spartan Sports Network as the Spartan Media Network. In addition, long-term extensions were announced with the three flagship stations that anchor the network: Detroit's WJR 760-AM, Lansing's WFN 730/WJIM 1240-AM and 94.9 WMMQ-FM. The Spartan Media Network is the largest and most expansive radio network in the State of Michigan and extends its programming nationally and worldwide via partnerships with SiriusXM and TuneIn radio.

MEL TUCKER SHOW: THURSDAYS FROM 7-8 P.M.

• The Spartan Media Network produces and distributes Mel Tucker's weekly radio program Thursdays from 7-8 p.m. ET. Spartan play-by-play announcer George Blaha hosts this live show, featuring insight from Coach Tucker, special guests, features and phone calls. The Mel Tucker Show can be heard statewide as well as locally on flagship station WJIM Radio (AM 1240) and WMMQ (FM 94.9) and on msuspartans.com.

SPARTAN ALL-ACCESS

• Spartan All-Access, presented by Buick, is a sports docu-series providing an exclusive look into Michigan State Athletics, its student-athletes, coaches and the people that make the Michigan State Athletics family what it is. The series airs on Bally Sports Detroit on Mondays at 1:30 p.m. from Aug. 29 through April. The show is also available on YouTube at MSUSpartanAthletics.com and at msuspartans.com. The show is produced by the Emmy award-winning Spartan Vision team.

Redshirt sophomore Cal Haladay (No. 27) recorded a career-high 19 tackles in the win over Rutgers, the most by a Big Ten player this season.

• Sixth-year graduate senior punter Bryce Baringer continues to lead the FBS in punting with his 49.6-yard average. MSU also leads the FBS in net punting (46.0-yard average) as Baringer has only three touchbacks this season while placing 21 of his 42 punts (50 percent) inside the 20, including eight inside the 10. He also has 21 punts of 50-plus yards (50 percent), tied for second in the Big Ten, including eight of 60-plus yards. A two-time Ray Guy Award National Punter of the Week, Baringer was named a first-team midseason Associated Press All-American and he has made five appearances on the "Ray's 8" weekly honor roll.

• Michigan State has won three of its last four games since fifth-year senior safety Xavier Henderson and fifth-year senior defensive tackle Jacob Slade returned to the field in Week 7 vs. Wisconsin after missing extensive time with injuries. Henderson, who entered the season with 33 consecutive starts, left the Week 1 game against Western Michigan in the first half and missed five straight games before returning to the starting lineup against the Badgers. Slade, a second-team preseason Walter Camp All-American, was also out for four games prior to coming back against the Badgers. MSU is allowing an average of 205.5 passing yards in the last four games with Henderson commanding the secondary, compared to 292.0 yards in the first six games.

• Fifth-year graduate senior wide receiver Jayden Reed, a 2021 first-team All-American as an all-purpose player, leads the team with 45 catches for 548 yards and five touchdowns. He had four receptions for 90 yards in the win over Rutgers, including a 25-yard TD catch in the third quarter. Reed has one touchdown catch in five of the last six games. He ranks among the Big Ten leaders in TD receptions (tied for eighth with five), receiving yards (eighth with 60.9 ypg; 548 overall) and receptions (tied for eighth with 5.0 pg; 45 overall). Reed and quarterback Payton Thorne have teamed up for 15 touchdowns over the past two seasons (10 in 2021, five in 2022), including nine of 25-plus yards (seven in 2021; two in 2022). Reed needs just 19 yards to become the 12th Spartan in school history to record 2,000 career receiving yards.

• Sophomore wide receiver Keon Coleman ranks among the Big Ten leaders in touchdown catches (tied for fourth with six), receiving yards (eighth with 600; 60.0 ypg) and receptions (14th with 42; 4.2 pg). He had a career-high 155 receiving yards on just five catches at No. 4 Michigan on Oct. 29. According to Pro Football Focus, Coleman has 11 catches downfield of 20-plus yards, which leads the Big Ten and ranks tied for ninth in the FBS; in addition, his five TD catches downfield of 20-plus yards are most in the conference and tied for sixth in the FBS.

• Through 10 games, Michigan State has forced 14 fumbles, which is tied for third most in the FBS. The Spartans have recovered 10 of those fumbles, which is tied for 13th in the FBS. Last season, Michigan State led the Big Ten and ranked tied for seventh in the FBS with 15 forced fumbles and ranked tied for 16th in the FBS with 10 fumble recoveries.

LAST TIME OUT: MICHIGAN STATE 27, RUTGERS 21

► SERIES/TEAM

• Michigan State defeated Rutgers, 27-21, last Saturday afternoon in Spartan Stadium for its third win in the last four games . . . with the six-point victory, MSU improved to 8-0 in one-score games under third-year head coach Mel Tucker.

• Michigan State improved to 10-4 all-time against Rutgers . . . MSU is 5-3 vs. Rutgers in East Lansing . . . the Spartans are 8-1 against the Scarlet Knights in Big Ten games . . . MSU head coach Mel Tucker is 2-1 against Rutgers.

► OFFENSE

• Michigan State had 197 yards rushing, the most in a Big Ten game for the Spartans this season while matching their second-highest of the season overall, behind 260 vs. Akron (9/10/22) and equaling 197 vs. Western Michigan (9/2/22) in the season opener.

• The 453 yards of total offense by the Spartans was the most in a Big Ten game this season for MSU, and third-highest overall behind 430 vs. Western Michigan (9/2/22) and 496 against Akron (9/10/22).

• With 256 passing yards Saturday, redshirt junior quarterback Payton Thorne had his second-highest passing total in a Big Ten game this season, behind 265 vs. Wisconsin (10/15/22), as part of third-highest overall, behind a season-high 323 vs. Washington (9/17/22) . . . it marked Thorne's seventh 200-plus yard outing of the season in 10 games this year . . . Thorne was 19-for-35 with two TDs, marking his second-straight game with multiple TDs as part of third time in last four games.

• Thorne's two TDs gave him 46 for his Spartan career, moving up to tie for No. 5 on MSU's career passing TD list, matching Bill Burke (1996-99) . . . the 256 yards gives Thorne 5,967 passing yards, moving up to No. 7 on the Spartan career passing yards list . . . with 19 completions, Thorne now has 473 for his career, also moving up to No. 7 on the career pass completions list.

• Graduate senior wide receiver Jayden Reed snared four receptions for 90 yards and one TD, his second-most receiving yards this season behind a season-high 117 vs. Wisconsin (10/15/22) . . . Reed's TD catch was his second game in a row with a scoring reception and he has had one in five of the last six games played as part of five total on the season, as part of his 18th of his Michigan State career (seventh most in MSU history) and 26th of his collegiate career.

• Reed now has at least one catch in 29 straight games, which is every game of his Spartan career, and is No. 21 among active FBS players . . . he has a catch in 41 of 42 career collegiate games played.

• With the 90 yards Saturday, Reed now has 3,073 all-purpose yards during his MSU career, becoming the 25th player in Spartan history with 3,000 all-purpose yards . . . he also moved up to tie for No. 9 on MSU's career receptions list, now with 135 and tying Charles Rogers (2001-02).

• Redshirt sophomore running back Jalen Berger rushed for 85 yards on 16 carries, while graduate senior Jarek Broussard had 80 yards on 11 carries . . . the Spartan duo's combined 165 yards was their most in a Big Ten game this season and third-most overall this year behind a season high 188 vs. Akron (9/10/22) with 107 for Berger and 81 for Broussard, and 174 in the season opener vs. Western Michigan (9/2/22) with 120 for Berger and 54 for Broussard.

• Berger's 85 yards was his Big Ten-high for the second straight game, topping 81 at Illinois (11/5/22), and the third-highest of the year behind 120 vs. WMU and 107 vs. Akron . . . Broussard's 80 yards was also the most in a Big Ten game and his second-highest overall behind the 81 vs. Akron.

• Berger scored a 2-yard TD in the second quarter for his sixth rushing TD of the season and ninth of his collegiate career, with three during his career at Wisconsin.

• Graduate senior tight end Daniel Barker had four catches for 64 yards including a 26-yard TD pass for the Spartans' first score of the day . . . it was Barker's second TD catch of the season and 13th of his collegiate career after 11 during his time at Illinois . . . the 64 yards was Barker's most in a Big Ten game and second-most of the season behind 69 at Washington (9/17/22), while the four receptions was also his Big Ten-high and second-highest of the season behind seven also at Washington . . . Barker's 16.0 yards per catch was a season high.

► DEFENSE

• Redshirt sophomore linebacker Cal Haladay recorded a career-high 19 tackles, the most by a Spartan since Eric Smith had 19 against Notre Dame on Sept. 18, 2004 . . . Haladay also had a 3-yard tackle for loss.

• Fifth-year senior safety Kendell Brooks recorded double-digit tackles for the fourth time this season with 10 (one solo, nine assists) . . . Brooks also had a career-high two pass break-ups as part of five overall for the Spartans.

• Fifth-year senior linebacker Ben VanSumeren was credited with a 13-yard sack on an intentional grounding call in the second quarter . . . VanSumeren had eight stops overall in the game.

• Redshirt sophomore defensive end Avery Dunn collected a career-high six tackles, including his first career sack.

• Graduate senior linebacker Aaron Brule was credited with six tackles, including 1.5 for losses (15 yards) and a 13-yard sack.

• Michigan State had six tackles for loss (42 yards) and three sacks overall (33 yards) in the game.

• Fifth-year senior defensive tackle Jacob Slade blocked a 39-yard field goal attempt in the fourth quarter . . . it marked the first blocked field goal for the Spartans since Mike Panasiuk in 2018 vs. Purdue.

► SPECIAL TEAMS

• Graduate senior punter Bryce Baringer, the Ray Guy Award Watch List member and five-time Ray's 8 honoree, had three punts averaging 45.3 ypp . . . Baringer's game-long punt of 64 yards in the second quarter was downed at the Rutgers 4-yard line, and came after getting run into by a Rutgers defender . . . all three of Baringer's punts were inside the 20, with a 51-yarder being fair caught in the third quarter and a 21-yarder that was out-of-bounds at the Rutgers 17 . . . with two punts of over 50 yards, Baringer now has 21 punts of 50+ yards of his 42 total, good for 50.0 percent of his punts going for over 50 . . . the 64-yarder also gives Baringer eight punts of 60+ yards, good for 19.0 percent.

• Baringer has seven punts inside the 20 in the last two games, as part of 15 in the last five games with 20 total for the season.

• Redshirt junior placekicker Ben Patton made an MSU season-high two field goals, splitting the uprights from 34-yards out midway through the fourth quarter before a 48-yarder late in the game . . . the 48-yarder was Patton's second-longest of his collegiate career behind a 49-yarder during his career at Auburn, coming against Alabama (11/27/21) . . . while the two field goals tied his collegiate high for the third time, with both previous times coming while at Auburn, most recently vs. Houston (12/28/21) . . . Patton was also 3-for-3 on PATs and his now 11-of-12 during his MSU career and 19-of-20 for his collegiate career.

► A QUICK GLANCE AT INDIANA (3-7, 1-6 BIG TEN)

• The Hoosiers tote a 3-7 overall ledger and a 1-6 Big Ten mark into Saturday's battle for the Old Brass Spittoon. IU opened the 2022 season with a conference game, beating Illinois, 23-20, on Sept. 2. The Hoosiers then beat Idaho, 35-22 (Sept. 10) and Western Kentucky, 33-30 in overtime (Sept. 17), as IU started 3-0 for the third time under head coach Tom Allen. However, Indiana has been on a seven-game losing skein since, most recently a 56-14 loss at No. 2 Ohio State.

2022 SPARTAN FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

• The Hoosiers lead the Big Ten and rank 12th in the FBS in kickoff returns, averaging 23.4 yards per return.

• Individually, redshirt junior quarterback Connor Bazalak is fifth in the Big Ten in passing yards/game (234.6), while ranking ninth in passing TDs (12). Bazalak is 211-of-384 for 2,111 yards (10.0 ypc/234.6 ypg) with 12 TDs and nine INTs.

• Junior wide receiver Cam Camper leads the IU receiving corps with 46 catches for 569 yards (12.4 ypc/81.3 ypg) with two TDs, one of nine different Hoosiers with at least one receiving TD. Despite suffering a season-ending injury in Week 8 at Rutgers, Camper is still 10th in the conference in total receiving yards. Simmons adds 33 catches for 344 yards (10.4 ypc/34.4 ypg) with one TD.

• Junior tight end AJ Barner shares the team lead and is tied for 17th in the Big Ten in TD catches with three, with a total of 24 receptions for 164 yards (6.8 ypc/20.5 ypg). Senior running back Josh Henderson matches Shivers with three scores, part of 18 total catches for 232 yards (12.9 ypc/23.2 ypg).

• Senior Shaun Shivers leads the Hoosier ground attack with 114 carries for 419 yards (3.7 ypc/41.9 ypg) with four rushing TDs, ranking 14th in the league in rushing yards/carry, while ranking tied for 17th in both rushing TDs and total rushing yards.

• Redshirt senior linebacker Aaron Casey spearheads the IU defense with a team-leading 80 total tackles, also topping the team with 10.0 tackles for loss. In addition to ranking seventh in the Big Ten in tackles for loss, Casey ranks sixth in the conference in total tackles and seventh in the league in tackles/game (8.0).

• Senior cornerback Tiawan Mullen leads the Hoosier secondary and ranks tied for 13th in the Big Ten with eight passes defended on six pass break-ups and two interceptions, ranking tied for 15th in the league in PBUs and tied for 13th in INTs.

• Freshman kick returner Jaylin Lucas leads the Big Ten and is 14th in the FBS in kickoff returns with 26.1 ypr, with one kick return for a TD, the only Big Ten player and one of 23 players in the FBS with a kick return for a score. Lucas returned the opening kickoff at Rutgers back for a TD, registering Indiana's first kick return for a TD since 2012 in addition to the Hoosiers' first opening kickoff return for a TD since 2009.

• Redshirt senior placekicker Charles Campbell is a perfect 22-of-22 on PATs and 12-of-15 on field goals, with a long of 51 yards, and has had one blocked.

• Sophomore punter James Evans has punted 64 times for a 44.8 ypp average, with a long of 69 yards, one of 21 punts of 50+ yards, and has 25 inside the 20. Evans leads the Big Ten with 25 inside the 20, while

• Indiana head coach Tom Allen is 29-39 in his sixth season as head Hoosier, going 1-4 against Michigan State.

► MSU/INDIANA SERIES NOTES

• Saturday's game marks the 69th meeting between Michigan State and Indiana. The Spartans lead the all-time series against the Hoosiers, 49-17-2, including a 26-7-1 record in East Lansing.

• Since 1950, the winner of the Michigan State-Indiana game has been presented the Old Brass Spittoon. The brass spittoon came from one of Michigan's earliest trading posts and is widely believed to be more than 200 years old. Legend has it that the spittoon was around when both institutions were founded – Indiana in 1820 and MAC in 1855. Since 1950, Michigan State leads the series, 49-14-1.

► LAST TIME: MSU 20, INDIANA 15 (OCT. 16, 2021 IN BLOOMINGTON)

• The No. 10/9 Michigan State football team improved to 7-0 on the season after defeating Indiana, 20-15, on Oct. 16, 2021, at Memorial Stadium to reclaim the Old Brass Spittoon. Although the Spartans were limited to 241 yards of total offense, MSU forced three turnovers in the game, including Cal Haladay's 30-yard interception return for a touchdown in the first quarter. Kenneth Walker III had 23 carries for 84 yards for the Spartans, Payton Thorne was 14-of-26 passing for 126 yards and one touchdown, and Jayden Reed had four catches for 70 yards in the victory.

2022 COACHING STAFF

A new era of Spartan football began in 2020 as Mel Tucker started his head coaching tenure in East Lansing. Tucker, a 26-year coaching veteran with championship experience, was named Michigan State University's 25th head football coach on Feb. 12 following Mark Dantonio's retirement on Feb. 4. Tucker signed an updated contract on Nov. 24, 2021, that expires on Jan. 15, 2032. Tucker's contract includes non-performance related compensation of $9.5 million per year, including a $5.9 million base, $3.2 million in supplemental compensation for media and personal appearances, plus a $400,000 contingent annual bonus. The contract was approved by the MSU Board of Trustees on Dec. 17, 2021.

In just his second year in East Lansing in 2021, Tucker led MSU to an 11-2 record, a Top 10 ranking, and a win in the New Year's Six with a victory over ACC Champion and No. 12 Pittsburgh in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. Tucker was named a finalist for National Coach of the Year by multiple organizations, including the American Football Coaches Association, the Paul Bear Bryant Awards, the Football Writers Association of America and the Maxwell Football Club. He was also named the Big Ten Coach of the Year by both the coaches and media and the AFCA Region 3 Coach of the Year.

Going from two wins in 2020 to 11 wins in 2021, MSU completed the biggest turnaround in school history (previous: seven-game improvement from 2016 to 2017) and finished the season ranked No. 8 in the AFCA Coaches Poll and No. 9 in The Associated Press Poll. Tucker is the earliest Spartan coach to win double-figure games in a season (previous: Mark Dantonio with 11 wins in his fourth season at MSU in 2010).

With the win at No. 14 Illinois on Nov. 5, Tucker became the first FBS coach with four wins against AP ranked opponents on the road over the past four years (at MSU: 2022 vs. No. 14 Illinois; 2021 vs. No. 24 Miami; 2020 vs. No. 13 Michigan; at Colorado: 2019 vs. No. 24 Arizona State). Tucker is 8-7 overall against AP Top 25 teams (6-5 at MSU).

Tucker's resume, which began as a graduate assistant at Michigan State under Nick Saban, has an impressive track record of success. The journey that led him back to East Lansing included a head coaching position at Colorado (2019), five seasons as a defensive coach in the Southeastern Conference (2000; 2015-18), 10 seasons in the NFL (2005-14), and four seasons at Ohio State (2001-04). He was a defensive coordinator in the NFL for seven seasons and 11 seasons overall in his coaching career.

In 172 games as a full-time coach in the FBS, Tucker's teams have collected a 124-48 (.721) record, including 11 postseason bowl/playoff games (2000 Peach, 2002 Outback, 2003 Fiesta/BCS National Championship, 2004 Fiesta, 2004 Alamo, 2015 Cotton/CFP Semifinal, 2016 CFP/National Championship, 2016 Liberty, 2018 Rose/CFP Semifinal, 2018 CFP/National Championship, 2021 Peach), three conference championships, three national championship games and two national championships (2002 with Ohio State, 2015 with Alabama). Tucker also coached 160 games in the National Football League (64 with Cleveland, 64 with Jacksonville, 32 with Chicago).

Eight of MSU head coach Mel Tucker's 23 wins as a head coach have come against AP Top 25 opponents (2022: No. 14 Illinois; 2021: No. 24 Miami, No. 6 Michigan, No. 13 Pittsburgh; 2020: No. 11 Northwestern and No. 13 Michigan; 2019: No. 25 Nebraska and No. 24 Arizona State at Colorado). Tucker is 8-7 overall against AP Top 25 opponents (2-2 at Colorado; 6-5 at MSU). He became the first Spartan head coach to defeat a ranked team (AP No. 11 Northwestern) in his first home win.

Michigan State has three new assistant coaches for the 2021 season. Effrem Reed, who served as an offensive analyst the past two seasons, was promoted to running backs coach. Brandon Jordan, who has specialized in training elite defensive linemen the past few years, including more than 200 players on NFL rosters, was hired in January as a pass rushing specialist. In February, Marco Coleman joined the Spartan coaching staff as the defensive line coach and run game coordinator. Coleman played 14 seasons in the NFL and spent the past three seasons coaching the defensive ends and outside linebackers at Georgia Tech.

• Chris Kapilovic, who is in his third season as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator at Michigan State, was promoted to assistant head coach in January 2021. Kapilovic, 53, joined Tucker's staff in East Lansing in February 2020 after spending the 2019 season as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator in Colorado. Kapilovic has more than 30 years of coaching experience, including roles as an offensive coordinator and/or run game coordinator at Southern Mississippi (2008-11), North Carolina (2012-18) and Colorado (2019). He has coached multiple NFL players, first-round draft picks and record-setting offenses during his career. Last fall, the Spartan offensive line was named one of 13 semifinalists for the Joe Moore Award, which is given annually to the nation's top offensive line.

• Jay Johnson, a 2021 Broyles Award nominee for the nation's top assistant coach, is in his third season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Michigan State. Johnson, 52, is a veteran coach and administrator of 27 seasons, including 12 as an offensive coordinator at five FBS schools (Michigan State, Colorado, Minnesota, Louisiana, Southern Mississippi) in addition to coaching quarterbacks, running backs and tight ends as a position coach. Johnson arrived to East Lansing after serving as the offensive coordinator at Colorado for one season (2019) under head coach Mel Tucker.

• A 26-year coaching veteran with stints at all levels of collegiate football and the NFL, Scottie Hazelton is in his third season as the Secchia Family Defensive Coordinator. Hazelton arrived in East Lansing after spending one season as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Kansas State in 2019. He will also coach the linebackers for the Spartans in 2022.

• Ted Gilmore coaches the tight ends for the Spartans. Gilmore, who has coached 27 years, has experience at the FBS and NFL ranks and has developed numerous NFL players, draft picks and All-Americans during his career. He was named the 2011 FootballScoop Wide Receivers Coach of the Year after mentoring consensus All-American Robert Woods and 2011 Freshman All-American Marqise Lee at USC. Gilmore, 55, previously spent five seasons (2015-19) as the wide receivers coach at Wisconsin.

• Former Spartan great Courtney Hawkins is in his third season as the wide receivers coach. Hawkins oversaw one of the best wide receiver rooms in the Big Ten in 2021 as redshirt juniors Jayden Reed and Jalen Nailor formed a potent duo that fueled MSU's big-play offense that ranked third in the Big Ten in scoring at 31.8 points per game. Reed and Nailor both ranked in the top 10 in the conference in several categories, including receiving yards per game and yards per catch.

• With more than three decades of coaching experience, Ross Els is in his third season as the program's special teams coordinator. In addition, after coaching the linebackers his first two seasons in East Lansing, Els will help assist the nickelbacks in 2022. Els, 55, has previous experience in the Big Ten, serving as the defensive coordinator at Purdue in 2016 and four seasons at Nebraska under Coach Bo Pelini from 2011-14.

• Harlon Barnett, who is in his 14th season overall on the Spartan defensive staff and third with Tucker, coaches the secondary. Barnett has coached four All-Americans, nine first-team All-Big Ten selections and 10 NFL Draft picks during his time at MSU (2007-17; 2020-).

OFFENSIVE CAPSULE

► QUARTERBACKS

• #12 Katin Houser (Fr., 6-3, 213, Anaheim, Calif./St. John Bosco)
(1 game, 1-for-2 passing (.500), 2 yards, 0 TDs, 0 INTs)

• #14 Noah Kim (R-So., 6-2, 185, Centreville, Va./Westfield)
(4 games, 14-for-19 passing (.737), 174 yards, 3 TDs, 0 INTs)

• #10 Payton Thorne (2L, R-Jr., 6-2, 205, Naperville, Ill./Naperville Central)
(10 games/10 starts, 191-of-302 passing (.632), 2,152 yards, 215.2 ypg, 16 TDs, 9 INTs; 51 carries for 58 yards)

► PAYTON THORNE BACK AFTER RECORD-SETTING SEASON IN 2021

• After a record-setting season in his first year as the starting quarterback, redshirt junior quarterback Payton Thorne is back for the Spartans in 2022. He has started 24 consecutive games (16-8 record). Thorne set a school single-season record with 27 touchdown passes in 2021, surpassing Kirk Cousins, who previously held the record with 25 TDs in 2011. Overall in his first year as the starting quarterback, Thorne was 234-of-388 passing (.603) for 3,233 yards, 27 TDs and 10 interceptions.

• An honorable mention All-Big Ten selection by the coaches and media in 2021, Thorne was especially effective at throwing the ball downfield, ranking tied for sixth in the FBS with 14 TD passes of 20-plus yards and tied for ninth with eight completions for 50-plus yards. He threw for 200-plus yards in eight games and 300-plus yards in three games, including a career-high 354 yards in MSU's Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl victory over No. 12 Pitt. He has 16 career games of 200-plus yards passing and five with more than 300 yards.

• The Naperville, Illinois, native was named one of four captains last season and will also be counted on for his leadership for the Spartans this fall. He has been named a game captain in three of MSU's 10 games.

• Through 10 games this season, Thorne is 191-of-302 passing (.632) for 2,152 yards, 16 touchdowns and nine interceptions. He ranks fifth in the Big Ten with 16 passing touchdowns, including 10 of 25-plus yards. According to Pro Football Focus, Thorne has thrown nine TDs downfield for 20-plus yards (tied for first in the Big Ten and tied for 11th in the FBS).

• Thorne surpassed the 5,000-yard passing milestone in the Ohio State game and is now seventh in Michigan State history with 5,967 career passing yards. Thorne is also tied for fifth in MSU history in career touchdown passes (46), seventh in passing completions (473) and eighth in passing attempts (775). Thorne needs just 33 passing yards to become the seventh quarterback in MSU history to pass for 6,000 career yards.

• In Week 3, Thorne completed a career-high 30 passes against Washington on 42 attempts for 323 yards and three touchdowns (7 and 33 yards to Keon Coleman; 26 yards to Tre Mosley)

• In the first game of the season, Thorne tied his career high with four touchdown passes against Western Michigan in Week 1. Thorne was 12-of-24 passing for 233 yards overall, including scoring strikes to Germie Bernard (44 yards), Daniel Barker (13 yards), Coleman (41 yards) and Mosley (43 yards). Thorne joins Connor Cook as the only Spartans to throw four TDs in a single game four times in a career.

► NOAH KIM, KATIN HOUSER BACKING UP THORNE

• Redshirt sophomore Noah Kim serves as the back-up quarterback and is 14-of-19 passing (.737) for 174 yards and three touchdowns in four games. He was 2-for-2 passing for 22 yards against Akron in Week 2 and was 6-of-7 for 70 yards, including a 27-yard touchdown pass to Germie Bernard, vs. Minnesota. On his first official passing attempt of his career against the Zips he threw a 16-yard touchdown to Tre Mosley. Kim was 6-of-10 passing for 82 yards, including a 25-yard TD to Montorie Foster Jr., vs. No. 3 Ohio State.

• The Spartans also welcomed in freshman Katin Houser as an early enrollee in January and he participated in spring practice. Houser was rated a consensus four-star prospect and was an Elite 11 finalist last summer. He played six snaps in his collegiate debut vs. Akron.

• Offensive coordinator Jay Johnson is in his third year coaching the quarterbacks for the Spartans.

► RUNNING BACKS

• #8 Jalen Berger (R-So., 6-1, 215, Newark, N.J./Wisconsin)
(10 games/9 starts, 120 carries, 550 yards, 4.6 avg., 6 TDs, 55.0 ypg)

• #3 Jarek Broussard (Gr.-5, 5-9, 195, Dallas, Texas/Colorado)
(10 games/1 start, 58 carries, 284 yards, 4.9 avg., 3 TDs, 28.4 ypg)

• #24 Elijah Collins (3L, R-Sr., 6-1, 215, Detroit, Mich./University of Detroit Jesuit)
(10 games, 41 carries, 178 yards, 4.3 avg., 4 TDs, 17.8 ypg)

► TRANSFER JALEN BERGER LEADS SPARTAN RUNNING GAME

• The Spartans featured an explosive and resurgent rushing attack last year thanks to unanimous first-team All-American Kenneth Walker III, who had one of the best seasons in Michigan State history en route to winning the Doak Walker Award, the Walter Camp National Player of the Year and the Big Ten Running Back of the Year. Walker ranked second in the FBS with 1,636 rushing yards and his 18 rushing TDs ranked tied for eighth in the nation.

• Redshirt sophomore running back Jalen Berger, a Wisconsin transfer, leads the Spartans in carries (120), rushing yards (550) and rushing touchdowns (6). Berger rushed for a career-high 120 yards and one touchdown in his Spartan debut against Western Michigan, and followed that effort with a career-high three touchdowns and 107 yards vs. Akron in Week 2. He ran for 85 yards, the most in a Big Ten game by a Spartan running back this season, on 16 carries in the win vs. Rutgers on Nov. 12.

• Berger is 15th in the Big Ten in rushing (550 yards; 55.0 ypg) and tied for 10th in the conference in rushing TDs (six).

• Berger was rated a four-star prospect out of high school before attending Wisconsin for two years (2020-21). He rushed for 389 yards and three TDs in seven career games with the Badgers, including a team-leading 301 yards on 60 carries in just four games as a true freshman during the COVID-shortened 2020 season. The Newark, New Jersey, native enrolled at MSU in January and made strong gains toward the end of spring practice.

• Fellow running back transfer Jarek Broussard (Colorado) ranks second on the team with 58 carries for 284 yards and three TDs. He scored his first two touchdowns as a Spartan in the Week 2 win over Akron and had 15 carries overall for 81 yards against the Zips. Broussard ran for 80 yards, his most in a Big Ten game, on 11 carries (7.3 avg.) in the win over Rutgers on Nov. 12.

• Broussard, who joined the program in May from Colorado, rushed for 1,556 yards and seven TDs the past two seasons (2020-21) in just 17 games for the Buffaloes. He was named the 2020 Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year after leading the league with 895 rushing yards and five touchdowns in six games during the pandemic-shortened season, and followed up with 661 yards and two TDs last fall.

• Redshirt senior Elijah Collins ranks second on the team with four rushing touchdowns. He has seen his workload increase the second half of the season, including a season-high 14 carries for 43 yards and one TD in the victory over Wisconsin in Week 7. Collins nearly rushed for 1,000 yards (222 carries for 988 yards) in 13 games, including 12 starts, during his redshirt freshman season in 2019. He had 41 carries for 90 yards in 2020 and 18 carries for 102 yards in seven games last season while battling an ankle injury. Collins ranks third on the team in rushing (178 yards) and third among running backs in carries (41).

• Effrem Reed, who was an offensive analyst the past two seasons, was promoted to running backs coach in the offseason.

► RETURNING ALL-AMERICAN JAYDEN REED LEADS TALENTED WIDE RECEIVING CORPS

• Fifth-year graduate senior Jayden Reed, who earned first-team All-America honors as an all-purpose player by the American Football Coaches Association as a junior in 2021, leads a talented wide receiving corps for the Spartans. Reed's explosiveness was one of the main reasons for MSU's school-record turnaround season last year – he not only led the Spartans with 59 catches for 1,026 yards and 10 touchdowns, but he also ranked first in the Big Ten in punt returns (19.8 avg.; 12 returns for 238 yards) and tied for the FBS lead with two punt returns for touchdowns (62 yards vs. Nebraska, 88 yards vs. Western Kentucky). His 10 TD grabs were sixth most in an MSU single-season and his 1,026 receiving yards ranked ninth most.

• Reed has rounded back into form after missing time with an injury that sidelined him in Week 3 at Washington. He leads the team with 45 catches and ranks second in receiving yards (548), touchdown catches (five) and all-purpose yards (632; 548 receiving, 49 punt return, 20 kick return, 15 rushing).

• Reed leads the team with 13 explosive plays (20-plus yards), including 12 receptions and one kick return. He has a team-best 45 explosive plays the past two seasons (32 receptions; 10 kick returns; three punt returns).

• Reed recorded season bests in receptions (9) and receiving yards (117) against Wisconsin on Oct. 15 and accounted for both touchdowns in the double-overtime win – he threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to Keon Coleman on the first play of overtime, then caught a 27-yard pass from Payton Thorne on third-and-12 in the second overtime that clinched the victory for the Spartans. His performance against the Badgers landed him on the Paul Hornung Award weekly honor roll.

• Reed has started all 29 Michigan State games he has played in since 2020 and has at least one catch in every one of those games. He started 12 games as a freshman at Western Michigan in 2018 and earned Freshman All-America honors for the Broncos before sitting out the entire 2019 season due to NCAA transfer rules. Reed currently ranks tied for seventh in MSU history in touchdown catches (18), ninth in receptions (137) and 12th in receiving yards (1,981). His 15.6-yard career punt return average ranks second among active FBS players. Reed needs just 19 yards to become the 12th Spartan in school history to record 2,000 career receiving yards.

• Last season, Reed was named one of five finalists for the Paul Hornung Award – given annually to the nation's most versatile player – after averaging 18.0 yards per play (1,674 all-purpose yards on 93 total plays), which led the Big Ten and ranked tied for seventh in the FBS. Forty-two of Reed's 59 catches (.712) went for either a first down or a touchdown, and he led MSU with 32 explosive plays (20-plus yards), including 20 receptions, nine kick returns and three punt returns. In addition, seven of his 10 TD catches were from 25-plus yards.

- Sophomore wide receiver Keon Coleman ranks among the Big Ten leaders in touchdown catches (tied for fourth with six), receiving yards (eighth with 600; 60.0 ypg) and receptions (14th with 42; 4.2 pg). According to Pro Football Focus, Coleman has 11 catches downfield of 20-plus yards, which leads the Big Ten and ranks tied for ninth in the FBS; in addition, his five TD catches downfield of 20-plus yards are most in the conference and tied for sixth in the FBS.

- Coleman had a career-high 155 receiving yards on just five catches at Michigan on Oct. 29 (31.0-yard average). Coleman made a leaping 26-yard grab in the end zone in the first quarter and also had a 51-yard reception in the fourth quarter.

- Coleman showed flashes of his athleticism as a true freshman in 2021 and is now a full-time starter for the Spartans. The 6-foot-4-inch, 215-pound Coleman recorded a career-high nine catches for 116 yards and two TDs in Week 3 at Washington, and he also caught two two-point conversion passes.

- Coleman matched his two-TD game against the Huskies with two touchdowns in the Week 7 win over Wisconsin, including a leaping 25-yard catch on the first play of overtime that was thrown by Reed. The Opelousas, Louisiana, product had five catches for 79 yards overall vs. Wisconsin; he also had a 27-yard TD grab in the fourth quarter.

- Coleman spent last winter with the basketball team, playing in six games, to earn letters in both football and basketball as a true freshman in 2021-22.

- Redshirt junior Tre Mosley (R-Jr.) has been consistently productive for the Spartans throughout his career with 91 catches for 1,077 yards and eight touchdowns in 33 collegiate games, including 19 starting assignments. He has a career-high four touchdown catches this season to go along with 28 receptions for 260 yards. Mosley surpassed the 1,000-yard receiving milestone for his career in the Ohio State game with a season-best six catches for 40 yards.

- True freshman Germie Bernard has seven catches for 128 yards (18.3 avg.). He made an immediate impact in his first game as a Spartan, catching his first pass and racing 44 yards to the end zone in the first quarter against Western Michigan. He also caught a 27-yard TD pass vs. Minnesota from Noah Kim. Bernard joined the Spartans in January and competed in spring practice.

- After missing the first two games of the season due to an injury, junior Montorie Foster has played in the last eight games and has six catches for 82 yards and one TD.

- Courtney Hawkins is entering his third season as the wide receivers coach for the Spartans.

► OFFENSIVE LINE

- #53 OT Brandon Baldwin (R-So., 6-7, 315, Detroit, Mich./Independence CC, 7 games/3 starts at LT)
- #58 OT Spencer Brown (1L, R-Jr., 6-6, 315, Commerce Twp., Mich, Walled Lake Western, 10 games/10 starts at RT)
- #56 RG Matt Carrick (4L, Gr.-6, 6-5, 320, Minerva, Ohio/Perry, 9 games/9 starts at RG)

- #59 C Nick Samac (3L, Sr., 6-4, 300, Mentor, Ohio/Mentor, 10 games/10 starts at C)

► SPARTANS FEATURE 140 COMBINED CAREER STARTS ON OFFENSIVE LINE

- The Spartans lost eight lettermen from last season's offensive line, including four starters (center Matt Allen, guard Blake Bueter, tackle AJ Arcuri, guard/tackle Kevin Jarvis), but assistant head coach/offensive line coach/run game coordinator Chris Kapilovic still returned plenty of experience in 2022.

- Although Allen started every game at center in 2021, senior Nick Samac split time with Allen during the season and is now the full-time starter at center. Samac has 20 career starts under his belt and has played in 37 collegiate games.

Spartan play-by-play announcer George Blaha hosts this live show, featuring insight from Coach Tucker, special guests, features and phone calls. The Mel Tucker Show can be heard statewide as well as locally on flagship station WJIM Radio (AM 1240) and WMMQ (FM 94.9). The show can also be heard live on msuspartans.com.

• Senior J.D. Duplain, a second-team All-Big Ten honoree last season by Pro Football Focus, is back for his fourth consecutive season starting games at left guard. Duplain earned five starts at left guard as a true freshman in 2019 and five more as a sophomore in 2020 before starting every game at the position last season while helping pave the way for Doak Walker Award winner and unanimous All-American Kenneth Walker III. Duplain has started a team-best 28 consecutive games for the Spartans at left guard and has 33 career starts overall.

• At right guard, sixth-year graduate senior Matt Carrick brings 27 career starts and 47 games of experience to the table. Carrick rotated at right guard in the first seven games last season, but missed the second half of the year with an ACL injury. He returned to the starting lineup in the season opener against Western Michigan and started the first nine games of the season before missing the Rutgers game due to an injury. Carrick started all seven games at the position in 2020 and 11 times in 2019.

• Redshirt junior Spencer Brown, who still has three years of eligibility remaining, earned his first career start in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl victory over No. 12 Pitt, playing in all 89 snaps at right tackle against the Panthers. Brown has started all 10 games this season at right tackle for a streak of 11 consecutive starts.

• Fifth-year senior Jarrett Horst, who transferred to MSU in 2021 after starting two years (2019-20) at left tackle at Arkansas State, started the first eight games of last season at left tackle during the Spartans' 8-0 start. Although he missed the last five games of the year, Horst still earned honorable mention All-Big Ten accolades by the coaches and media in playing a total of 317 offensive snaps. Horst returned to the lineup in a reserve role at left tackle against Western Michigan in Week 1 and was back in the starting lineup for Week 2 against Akron, earning co-offensive player of the week honors for the Spartans. He has seven starts this season and 35 for his career (20 at Arkansas State, 15 at MSU).

• Another experienced transfer joined the Spartans over the summer, as Brian Greene landed in East Lansing from Washington State. A sixth-year graduate senior, Greene has played in 39 career games overall, including 10 starts at center for the Cougars (four in 2020, six in 2021). He has rotated at guard for the Spartans in 2022 and earned the start at right guard vs. Rutgers on Nov. 12.

• Redshirt sophomore Brandon Baldwin earned his first career start at left tackle in Week 1 against Western Michigan and played 41 snaps vs. the Broncos. Baldwin transferred to MSU in 2021 from Independence Community College but did not see game action last season. He returned to the starting lineup in the win at Illinois on Nov. 5 and also started vs. Rutgers on Nov. 12.

► TIGHT ENDS

• #9 Daniel Barker (Gr.-5, 6-4, 250, Fort Lauderdale, Fla./Illinois)
(10 games/4 starts, 18 catches, 209 yards, 11.6 avg., 2 TDs, 20.9 ypg)

• #6 Maliq Carr (1L, R-So., 6-5, 255, Inkster, Mich./Purdue)
(10 games, 10 catches, 161 yards, 16.1 avg., 0 TDs, 16.1 ypg)

• #97 Tyler Hunt (4L, Gr.-6, 6-3, 248, Gobles, Mich./Gobles)
(10 games/10 starts, 15 catches, 98 yards, 6.5 avg., 0 TDs, 9.8 ypg)

► TIGHT ENDS SEE A PROMINENT ROLE IN SPARTAN OFFENSE

• Although the Spartans lost Connor Heyward, who was selected in the sixth round of the 2022 NFL Draft by the Steelers after a successful season in 2021, there are still plenty of intriguing options at tight end for third-year coach Ted Gilmore.

• Former walk-on Tyler Hunt, who began his Spartan career as a punter, is in his sixth season in 2022. He has started every game this season and has a career-high 15 catches for 98 yards. Hunt made the transition from a specialist to a tight end during preseason practice in 2020.

• The program welcomed transfer Daniel Barker (Gr.-5) from Illinois during the summer, an experienced player who owns the Fighting Illini record for most touchdown catches by a tight end with 11. Barker racked up 64 receptions for 827 yards in 44 games at Illinois from 2018-21, including 21 starting assignments. That production has carried over to East Lansing, as he leads the Spartan tight end room with 18 catches for 209 yards and two TDs. In his Spartan debut against Western Michigan, Barker made a one-handed 13-yard touchdown grab in the left corner of the south end zone in the second quarter. In Week 3 at Washington, he had a career-high seven catches for 69 yards. Last week against Rutgers, Barker had four receptions for 64 yards, including a 32-yard TD grab.

• Redshirt sophomore Maliq Carr showed plenty of promise during his first season with the Green and White in 2021 with eight receptions for 135 yards, including a start in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl against No. 12 Pitt. Through 10 games this season, he has 10 catches for 161 yards (16.2 avg.). He had a 72-yard reception vs. Wisconsin, which was MSU's longest pass play this season.

DEFENSIVE CAPSULE

► DEFENSIVE LINE

- #8 DT Simeon Barrow (1L, R-So., 6-3, 290, Grovetown, Ga./Grovetown)

- #41 DT Derrick Harmon (R-Fr., 6-5, 320, Detroit, Mich./Loyola)
(10 games/5 starts, 27 tackles, 2.0 TFLs for 10 yards, 2.0 sacks for 10 yards, 1 FR, 1 PBU)
- #99 DE/DT Jalen Hunt (R-Jr., 6-4, 320, Belleville, Mich./Belleville)
(6 games/2 starts at DE, 6 tackles)
- #94 DE Dashaun Mallory (R-Sr., 6-2, 280, Bolingbrook, Ill./Bolingbrook)
(6 games, 9 tackles, 1.0 TFL for 1 yard, 2 FR)
- #47 DE Jeff Pietrowski Jr. (2L, Jr., 6-2, 250, Medina, Ohio/St. Edward)
(3 games/3 starts, 6 tackles, 0.5 TFL for 2 yards)
- #64 DT Jacob Slade (3L, Gr.-5, 6-4, 305, Lewis Center, Ohio/Olentangy)
(6 games/4 starts, 11 tackles, 1.5 TFLs for 2 yards)
- #91 DT Alex VanSumeren (Fr., 6-3, 300, Bay City, Mich./Garber)
(4 games, 3 tackles)

► SPARTANS BATTLING INJURIES ALONG DEFENSIVE LINE

- Due to a combination of injuries, the Spartans have utilized nine different starting defensive ends and four defensive tackles this season.
- At defensive end, the Spartans started a pair of former defensive tackles in Dashaun Mallory (R-Sr.) and Jalen Hunt (R-Jr.) in the win at Illinois. Hunt and Mallory took snaps alongside each other as defensive tackles the past two seasons, but have moved to the outside of the line. The duo helped contain Illinois, the Big Ten's No. 3 rushing offense entering the game with nearly 200 rushing yards per game, to 153 yards, its second-lowest total of the season. Mallory has 37 tackles, including 4.5 TFLs and two sacks, in 25 career games. The Bolingbrook, Illinois, native has nine tackles in six games in 2022. Hunt earned his second career start at defensive end vs. Rutgers and posted a career-high four stops against the Scarlet Knights.
- Redshirt sophomore Avery Dunn earned his first career start in the win over Rutgers on Nov. 12 and he responded with a career-best six tackles, including a 7-yard sack.
- Redshirt junior Michael Fletcher earned starting assignments against Wisconsin and Michigan but did not play at Illinois due to an injury; he returned to action in a reserve role vs. Rutgers. He tied his career high with four tackles at Michigan on Oct. 29 and has registered nine stops in six games this season.
- Junior Jeff Pietrowski Jr. started the first three games at defensive end, but has missed the last seven games due to an injury he suffered in Week 3 at Washington. He has six tackles, including a half tackle for loss, in three games of action. Pietrowski was productive in his second season with the Spartans in 2021, ranking tied for second on the team with 5.5 sacks and third with seven tackles for loss in 13 games and three starts. He played a total of 483 snaps on defense and also ranked tied for second in the Big Ten with three forced fumbles.
- The Spartans added impact transfer Khris Bogle from Florida to bolster the pass rush in 2022, but he has missed the last six games due to an injury. Rated a four-star prospect in the Class of 2019, Bogle was

Practice Roster (3):

AJ Arcuri, OT: Los Angeles Rams
Matt Sokol, TE: New England Patriots
Cody White, WR: Pittsburgh Steelers

Reserve/Injured (1):

Kenny Willekes, DE: Minnesota Vikings

Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform (1):

Joe Bachie, LB: Cincinnati Bengals

ranked one of the top 100 overall players in the nation coming out of Cardinal Gibbons High School in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. Bogle played three seasons (2019-21) with the Gators, collecting 69 tackles, 11.5 tackles for loss and eight sacks in 35 career games, including seven starts. He enrolled in January and participated in spring practice for the Spartans to get a head start for the 2022 season; he has 11 tackles, three tackles for loss (3 yards) and one sack (1 yard) in four games.

- First-year coach Brandon Jordan, who was hired in January as a pass rush specialist, works with the defensive ends, along with fellow first-year defensive line coach and run game coordinator Marco Coleman.

- The Spartans returned both starters from 2021 at defensive tackle (Simeon Barrow; Jacob Slade), but unfortunately injuries have shuffled the rotation much of the 2022 season. Barrow and Slade started the first two games of the season, but didn't start alongside each other again until Oct. 29 at Michigan. Barrow and Slade also split time in the playing rotation with Derrick Harmon (R-Fr.) and Maverick Hansen (R-Jr.).

- A preseason second-team All-American by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, Slade was named to watch lists for the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award entering the season, but missed four games after suffering an injury in Week 2 vs. Akron. He returned to the lineup vs. Wisconsin in Week 7, and the Spartans responded with a victory over the Badgers. Slade made a key play in the win over Rutgers on Nov. 12, blocking a field goal in the fourth quarter against the Scarlet Knights.

- A first-team All-Big Ten selection by Pro Football Focus, Slade posted career numbers in 2021 with 40 tackles, 5.5 tackles for loss and 2.5 sacks. According to PFF, he racked up 40 QB pressures, the most of any Big Ten defensive tackle and tied for 10th most in the FBS, and 33 QB hurries, No. 1 among Big Ten DTs and No. 3 in the FBS. He was named to the AP All-Bowl Team after recording a career-high two tackles for loss, including 1.5 sacks, to go along with six stops overall in the victory over No. 12 Pitt in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

- Barrow has started nine games for the Spartans and is building upon his strong redshirt freshman season in 2021 with another solid performance in 2022. Barrow has 32 tackles, including 7.0 for losses (21 yards) and 3.0 sacks (15 yards). He tallied 34 tackles, four TFLs and three sacks in 10 starts last season. After missing the last three games of the regular season due to an injury, Barrow stormed back on the field with six tackles and a TFL in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl win against Pittsburgh.

- Redshirt junior Maverick Hansen filled in for Barrow in the starting lineup for three games in 2021 and was equally effective during his time in the lineup. Hansen ranked fourth on the team with 3.5 sacks and 6.0 tackles for loss in 13 games overall. He has 34 stops this season, most among Spartan defensive tackles.

- Promising redshirt freshman Derrick Harmon played in four games last fall to preserve his redshirt season. He has earned five starting assignments (Akron, Washington, Maryland, Ohio State, Wisconsin) and has 27 tackles overall with two sacks in nine games. Harmon recorded his first career sack vs. Ohio State.

- Four-star prospect Alex VanSumeren, who was ranked one of the top overall players in the nation by Rivals, ESPN and 247Sports, enrolled in January at Michigan State and gained valuable experience during spring practice. He has three tackles in four games of action.

► LINEBACKERS

- #7 Aaron Brule (Gr.-5, 6-2, 242, New Orleans, La./Mississippi State)
(10 games/1 start, 23 tackles, 5.0 TFLs for 33 yards, 3.0 sacks for 26 yards)

- #10 Ma'a Gaoteote (So., 6-1, 230, Las Vegas, Nev./Bishop Gorman)
(9 games, 7 tackles, 1.0 TFL for 9 yards)

- #27 Cal Haladay (1L, R-So., 6-1, 230, Elysburg, Pa./Southern Columbia)
(10 games/9 starts, 99 tackles, 8.5 TFLs for 31 yards, 1.5 sacks for 12 yards, 1 FR for 21 yards, 1 FF)

- #13 Ben VanSumeren (Gr.-5, 6-3, 235, Bay City, Mich./Michigan)
(9 games/8 starts, 71 tackles, 2.0 TFLs for 21 yards, 1.0 sack for 13 yards, 2 PBUs)

► HALADAY NAMED BIG TEN PLAYER OF THE WEEK FOR SECOND STRAIGHT WEEK

• The linebackers, coached by Secchia Family Defensive Coordinator Scottie Hazelton, feature a strong position room, but unfortunately will be missing one of its key players this season as junior starter Darius Snow suffered a season-ending injury in Week 1 against Western Michigan. Snow played safety and nickelback last season and racked up 87 tackles before moving to linebacker during spring practice. His versatility will be missed in 2022.

• Returning starter Cal Haladay (R-So.) won the middle linebacker job as a redshirt freshman in 2021 and went on to earn Freshman All-America honors after tying for the team lead with 96 tackles. He also returned two interceptions for touchdowns, including a game-winning 78-yard return for a score with less than a minute remaining in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl victory to earn Defensive MVP honors in the game.

• Haladay ranks second in the Big Ten with 99 tackles (9.9 pg) and has posted double-digit tackles in five games, including a career-high 19 in the win over Rutgers on Nov. 12, the most by a Big Ten player this season. He became just the second Spartan to earn Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week honors in back-to-back weeks for his performance against the Scarlet Knights.

• Haladay was named the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week after recording nine tackles, including a career-high 3.5 tackles for loss (10 yards), in MSU's 23-15 win at No. 16 Illinois on Nov. 5. The Spartans held the Illini, which entered the game with the No. 3 rushing offense in the Big Ten (197.6 ypg), to 153 yards rushing, the second fewest by Illinois this season. MSU's defense had five fourth-down stops in the game, including two by Haladay in the second half.

• Graduate senior Ben VanSumeren has started eight games for the Spartans and ranks third on the team with 71 tackles. He has posted double-digit stops in four games, including a career-high 14 at Maryland in Week 5. VanSumeren played in a reserve role against Wisconsin and did not play at Michigan due to an injury.

• Aaron Brule started eight games and played in 12 last season at Mississippi State, recording 52 tackles, 7.5 TFLs and 2.5 sacks. He brought a wealth of experience from Starkville, where he collected 141 tackles, including 17.5 TFLs and 7.5 sacks, in 40 career games (19 starts) from 2018-21. Brule, who has seen his playing time increase the second half of the season, has 23 tackles, 5.0 TFLs and three sacks for the Spartans. He had five stops, including 1.5 TFLs and an 8-yard sack, and a fumble recovery in the win at No. 16 Illinois, and had six tackles with 1.5 TFLs and a 13-yard sack vs. Rutgers. Brule started his first Spartan game in the Week 7 victory over Wisconsin.

• Sophomore Ma'a Gaoteote, a former four-star and top-100 recruit out of Bishop Gorman High School, played in nine games as a true freshman to earn his first letter and will compete for time in the rotation. He has seven tackles and one TFL (9 yards) in nine games this season.

► XAVIER HENDERSON'S RETURN SPARKS SPARTAN SECONDARY

• Former Spartan All-American and NFL veteran Harlon Barnett is in 14th year overall on the defensive coaching staff at Michigan State, his third under head coach Mel Tucker. Barnett was the cornerbacks coach in 2020 before returning to coaching the entire secondary in 2021. Ross Els, who is also the special teams coordinator, will coach the nickelbacks this season, while Tucker will also assist with the cornerbacks.

• At cornerback, sixth-year graduate senior Ameer Speed enrolled in January after spending his first five years at Georgia (2017-21). Speed started in three games for the National Champion Bulldogs in 2021 and played in 13 games overall, playing a total of 181 snaps with 13 tackles. He started the first nine games of the season for the Spartans and ranks fourth on the team with 57 tackles. He recorded six tackles in his Spartan debut against Western Michigan and had a career-high 12 stops vs. Maryland in Week 5.

• Lining up opposite of Speed, sophomore Charles Brantley has started all 10 games this season and leads the team with six pass break-ups, including a career-high three vs. Akron in Week 2. He intercepted a C.J. Stroud pass and raced 32 yards into the end zone for a touchdown against the Buckeyes in Week 6. Brantley played in eight games in 2021 and earned a start at Purdue on Nov. 6, but he suffered a season-ending injury in the game and had his freshman season cut short by a month. Brantley sealed the win over No. 6 Michigan last season with a one-handed interception in the final minute of the game.

• Sixth-year graduate senior Ronald Williams started nine games at cornerback in 2021 and returned to the starting lineup for the first time this season vs. Rutgers on Nov. 12, posting a season-best seven tackles against the Scarlet Knights.

• Senior Chester Kimbrough, who transferred from Florida last season, started the first three games at nickelback and returned to the starting lineup the last two weeks in wins over Illinois and Rutgers. He moved to nickelback in spring practice after starting 11 games at cornerback for the Spartans in 2021. Kimbrough has 19 tackles, including two sacks for 13 yards, and three pass break-ups.

• A 2021 team captain, Henderson had started 34 consecutive games at safety before missing Week 2 against Akron. He left the season opener against Western Michigan in the second quarter and missed five games with an injury before returning in Week 7 vs. Wisconsin. Henderson recorded career highs in tackles (96) and tackles for loss (10) last year to earn third-team All-Big Ten honors by the media.

• Henderson returning to the starting lineup and started his 35th career game in the win over the Badgers and had five tackles. In his return, the Spartans allowed just 131 passing yards to Wisconsin, the fewest by an opponent in the Mel Tucker era.

• The Spartans have won three of the past four games with Henderson back in the starting lineup. MSU is allowing an average of 205.5 passing yards in the last four games with Henderson commanding the secondary, compared to 292.0 yards in the first six games.

• Henderson has started 38 games overall for the Spartans and will be playing in his final home game Saturday in Spartan Stadium.

• Following Henderson's exit from the game in Week 1, Kendell Brooks (Sr.-5) stepped up against Western Michigan and posted five tackles, including a forced fumble. Since then, he has gone on to lead the Spartan secondary in tackles and ranks second on the team overall with 87 stops; his 9.7 tackles per game average ranks third in the Big Ten.

• In his first career start against Akron in Week 2, Brooks caused another fumble and had seven tackles. He posted eight stops at Washington and forced a fumble in his third straight game; he ranks tied for third in the FBS with three forced fumbles. Brooks then had a career-high 18 stops vs. Minnesota, the most by a Spartan since Eric Smith had 19 vs. Notre Dame in 2004. Brooks transferred from Division II North Greenville in 2021.

• True freshman Jaden Mangham, a four-star prospect, earned his first career start at safety in Week 5 at Maryland and collected six tackles. He played 38 total snaps at safety before playing 73 snaps against the Terrapins. Mangham started against Ohio State in Week 6, but left the game with an injury and did not play vs. Wisconsin; he returned to action at Michigan.

SPECIAL TEAMS CAPSULE

Punter: Bryce Baringer is using his extra season of eligibility in 2022 and returned as the starting punter after a record-breaking season in which he set the MSU single-season record with his 48.4-yard punting average, a mark that also led the Big Ten and ranked No. 5 in the FBS. Baringer became the first Spartan punter to lead the Big Ten in punting since the late Mike Sadler in 2012. In addition, Baringer's 48.4-yard average was also the second-best average in Big Ten history, second only to Iowa's Reggie Roby in 1981 (49.8 avg.). Baringer also ranked second in the conference in punts of 50-plus yards (26), including 10 of 60-plus yards, to earn second-team all-league honors.

- A Ray Guy Award candidate, Baringer continues to lead the FBS in punting with his 49.6-yard average. MSU also leads the FBS in net punting (46.0-yard average) as Baringer has only three touchbacks this season while placing 21 of his 42 punts (50 percent) inside the 20, including eight inside the 10. He also has 21 punts of 50-plus yards (50 percent), tied for second in the Big Ten, including eight of 60-plus yards.

- A two-time Ray Guy Award National Punter of the Week, Baringer was named a first-team midseason Associated Press All-American and he has made five appearances on the "Ray's 8" weekly honor roll.

- Baringer ranks fourth among all active FBS punters with a 46.0-yard career punting average.

- For the second time this season, Baringer was honored as the Ray Guy Award National Punter of the Week for his performance in the win at Illinois on Nov. 5. Baringer, the nation's leading punter (50.0 avg.), punted five times for a 49.6-yard average, successfully punting in winds that were 25-30 mph with gusts up to 50 mph. He finished with four punts inside the 20, including two inside the 10. Baringer had a game-long 68-yarder with the wind in second quarter that went to the Illinois 6-yard line and also had a 62-yarder that went out of bounds at the 1-yard line in the fourth quarter.

- Baringer was named the Ray Guy Award National Punter of the Week after averaging 48.9 yards per punt against Ohio State (seven punts for 342 yards) in Week 6. He also tied a career high with five punts placed inside the 20.

- In the season opener, Baringer averaged 50.5 yards per punt on four punts (202 yards) against WMU to be named one of the Ray Guy Award's top-eight punters of Week 1. He had a game-long 70-yard punt, marking the third time he has punted a ball at least 70 yards in a game; his first punt of the game was a 67-yarder that was downed at the 4-yard line.

Placekicker: The Spartans have a new starting placekicker for the first time in five years following the departure of the school's all-time leading scorer and field-goal kicker, Matt Coghlin.

- MSU added graduate transfer Ben Patton from Auburn in August prior to the season opener, and he has earned the starting placekicking duties in the second half of the season. Patton is 11-of-12 on PATs and 3-of-5 on field goals this season. He made his first PAT as a Spartan in Week 5 at Maryland and connected on a 21-yard field goal at Illinois for his first field goal wearing the Green and White.

- Patton tied his career high with two field goals, both in the fourth quarter, against Rutgers in the 27-21 win over the Scarlet Knights on Nov. 12. He made a 34-yarder with 6:28 left in the game to put MSU on top, 24-14, and then made a season-long 48-yarder at the 3:22 mark to give the Spartans a 27-14 lead in the eventual 27-21 victory.

- True freshman Jack Stone is 15-for-16 on PATs and 1-for-3 on field goals; he made a 43-yarder vs. Akron for the first field goal of his young career in Week 2. Stone is averaging 58.7 yards on kickoffs with 11 touchbacks in 44 attempts (.250).

- While Coghlin battled an injury at the end of last season, Stephen Rusnak stepped in the last five games to earn his first letter. Rusnak was 4-of-5 on PATs and averaged 54.3 yards on kickoffs with four touchbacks on 21 kickoffs.

Long Snapper: Hank Pepper handled every snap for the Spartans as a true freshman in 2021 and is back for his second season as the starter; however, backup redshirt freshman Michael Donovan has started the past five games for MSU.

BIG TEN/FBS STAT LEADERS

Here's a glance at how Michigan State ranks among the Big Ten/FBS individual stat leaders in 2022:

Individual Statistics (Top 25 in FBS)

Forced Fumbles:

Jacoby Windmon (1st/1st at 0.75 pg)
Kendell Brooks (2nd/5th at 0.33 pg)

Fumbles Recovered:

Dashaun Mallory (1st/14th with 2)

Punting:

Bryce Baringer (1st/1st with 49.6 avg.)

Tackles for Loss:

Jacoby Windmon (2nd/17th with 1.3 pg)

Total Tackles:

Cal Haladay (2nd/15th at 9.9 pg)
Kendell Brooks (3rd/18th with 9.7 pg)

Kick Returner/Punt Returner: Redshirt senior Jayden Reed earned first-team All-America honors from the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) as an all-purpose player last season thanks to a dynamic return game, as Reed led the Big Ten in punt returns (19.8 avg.; 12 returns for 238 yards) and tied for the FBS lead with two punt returns for touchdowns (62 yards vs. Nebraska, 88 yards vs. Western Kentucky). Reed also ranked fourth in the Big Ten in kick returns (23.5 avg.) and second in the Big Ten and 23rd in the FBS in combined returns (614 yards). He was selected the Big Ten Special Teams Player of the Week vs. Nebraska after his 62-yard punt return late in the fourth quarter tied the game in MSU's eventual overtime victory against the Huskers.

- Reed was named one of five finalists for the Paul Hornung Award, which is given annually to the nation's most versatile player. As a team, Michigan State led the Big Ten and ranked third in the FBS in punt returns (18.2 avg.). Reed's two punt returns not only tied a school record, but he became the first Spartan to ever return touchdowns on back-to-back punts (fourth quarter vs. Nebraska; first quarter vs. Western Kentucky).

- Reed has seven punt returns for 49 yards (7.0 avg.) this season; his 15.6-yard career punt return average ranks second best among all active FBS players. He has had two punt returns for touchdowns called back this season due to penalties (86 yards vs. Akron; 81 yards vs. Wisconsin).

- Redshirt junior Cade McDonald has four punt returns for 44 yards (11.0 avg.), including a 21-yarder vs. Akron.

- Freshman Tyrell Henry leads the team in kick return yards with 127 on seven returns (18.1 avg.) Jarek Broussard ranks second with five returns for 95 yards (19.0 avg.).

SPARTAN FOOTBALL PROGRAM NOTES

► SPARTANS ADD 43 NEW PLAYERS TO 2022 ROSTER, INCLUDING NINE TRANSFERS

• Michigan State has 43 new players on the 2022 roster. Nine of those 43 players are transfers, while 34 are true freshmen. Here's a breakdown of the incoming transfers by conference:

-SEC (4): DE Khris Bogle-Florida; LB Aaron Brule-Mississippi State; K Ben Patton-Auburn; CB Ameer Speed-Georgia

-Big Ten (2): TE Daniel Barker-Illinois; RB Jalen Berger-Wisconsin

► TWO FOOTBALL PLAYERS INDUCTED IN MSU ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME IN 2022

• Among the nine inductees for the 2022 MSU Athletics Hall of Fame Class, two are football players: Herb Adderley and Greg Jones.

Herb Adderley | Football (1957-60) | Philadelphia, Pa.

- 1960 First Team All-Big Ten
- Led MSU in all-purpose yards and receiving as a junior and senior
- 1980 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee, becoming the first Spartan enshrined
- 1961 NFL Draft First-Round selection by the Green Bay Packers
- Three-time Super Bowl Champion (I, II, VI)
- Seven-time All-Pro, including five-time first-team honoree
- Won six NFL Championships (1961, 1962, 1965, 1966, 1967, 1971)

Greg Jones | Football (2007-10) | Cincinnati, Ohio

- Two-time consensus first-team All-American (2009-10) – just the fourth Spartan to be a two-time consensus first-team selection
- Three-time first-team All-Big Ten (2008-10)
- 2009 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year – led conference in tackles with 154
- Two-time MSU Alderton Male Athlete of the Year (2009-10, 2010-11)
- 2010 Team MVP
- Led team in tackles four consecutive years, finishing third in school history with 465
- Two-time team captain (2009, 2010)
- Super Bowl XLVI Champion with the New York Giants

► LORENZO WHITE NAMED TO ROSE BOWL HALL OF FAME CLASS OF 2022

• The Tournament of Roses announced on Nov. 8 that former Michigan State All-American running back Lorenzo White has been named to the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame Class of 2022. White is the second Spartan to be inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame, joining Dave Kaiser, who kicked a game-winning 41-yard field goal in the final seconds of the 1956 Rose Bowl over UCLA.

• White will be recognized during the Indiana game on Nov. 19 by the Tournament of Roses for his induction into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame. This year's Rose Bowl Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony will be a private event held in Pasadena the week of the game. The inductees will also be honored in the Rose Parade presented by Honda and on the field during the 109th Rose Bowl Game on Jan. 2, 2023.

• The Rose Bowl Hall of Fame was established in 1989 to pay tribute to members of the Rose Bowl Game who have contributed to the history and excitement of the game, and those who embody the highest level of passion, strength, tradition, and honor associated with The Granddaddy of Them All®.

• Along with White, former Oregon and Penn State coach Hugo Bezdek, recently retired Rose Bowl Stadium CEO Darryl Dunn, and 1977 Rose Bowl Game MVP Vince Evans will also be inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame as the Class of 2022.

• A member of the College Football Hall of Fame, White is the leading rusher in the history of Michigan State football with 4,887 yards from 1984-87, including an MSU single-season record of 2,066 yards in 1985. He finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy balloting in 1985 and 1987 while also earning first-team All-America honors.

• White led the Spartans to a 20-17 victory over USC in the 1988 Rose Bowl Game, rushing for 113 yards and two scores in the win. His first touchdown came in the first quarter and gave Michigan State a 7-3 lead, then he added another score in the second quarter to push the lead to 14-3. His 35 carries in the game ranks as the third most in Rose Bowl Game history.

HEAD COACH MEL TUCKER

Mel Tucker, a 26-year coaching veteran with championship experience, was named Michigan State University's 25th head football coach on Feb. 12, 2020.

In just his second year in East Lansing in 2021, Tucker led MSU to an 11-2 record, a Top 10 ranking, and a win in the New Year's Six with a victory over ACC Champion and No. 12 Pittsburgh in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. Tucker was named a finalist for National Coach of the Year by multiple organizations, including the American Football Coaches Association, the Paul Bear Bryant Awards, the Football Writers Association of America and the Maxwell Football Club. He was also named the Big Ten Coach of the Year by both the coaches and media and the AFCA Region 3 Coach of the Year. In June 2022, Tucker was named the College Coach of the Year by the National Coalition of Minority Football Coaches.

Going from two wins in 2020 to 11 wins in 2021, MSU completed the biggest turnaround in school history (previous: seven-game improvement from 2016 to 2017) and finished the season ranked No. 8 in the AFCA Coaches Poll and No. 9 in The Associated Press Poll. Tucker is the earliest Spartan coach to win double-figure games in a season (previous: Mark Dantonio with 11 wins in his fourth season at MSU in 2010).

Tucker's resume, which began as a graduate assistant at Michigan State under Nick Saban, has an impressive track record of success. The journey that led him back to East Lansing included a head coaching position at Colorado (2019), five seasons as a defensive coach in the Southeastern Conference (2000; 2015-18), 10 seasons in the NFL (2005-14), and four seasons at Ohio State (2001-04). He was a defensive coordinator in the NFL for seven seasons and 11 seasons overall in his coaching career.

In 172 games as a full-time coach in the FBS, Tucker's teams have collected a 124-48 (.721) record, including 11 postseason bowl/playoff games (2000 Peach, 2002 Outback, 2003 Fiesta/BCS National Championship, 2004 Fiesta, 2004 Alamo, 2015 Cotton/CFP Semifinal, 2016 CFP/National Championship, 2016 Liberty, 2018 Rose/CFP Semifinal, 2018 CFP/National Championship, 2021 Peach), three conference championships, three national championship games and two national championships (2002 with Ohio State, 2015 with Alabama). Tucker also coached 160 games in the National Football League (64 with Cleveland, 64 with Jacksonville, 32 with Chicago).

The 50-year-old Tucker is nationally recognized as a top recruiter and developer of talent, working with numerous NFL Draft selections, including 16 first-rounders, and multiple All-Americans and Pro Bowlers. He has been on staffs with some of the top collegiate coaches in the game, including Saban, Mark Dantonio, Kirby Smart and Jim Tressel. The recruiting momentum under Tucker landed the Spartans a consensus Top 25 recruiting ranking for the Class of 2022 (No. 15 ESPN, No. 23 Rivals, No. 25 247Sports); the No. 23 247Sports team composite recruiting ranking for the Class of 2022 was the highest for the Spartans in six years.

The results on the field in Tucker's second season at MSU in 2021 put the program in the national spotlight all season long, ending with a thrilling fourth-quarter comeback over No. 12 Pitt in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl that gave the Spartans an 11-2 overall record and a Top 10 ranking. He led the Spartans to an 8-0 start and garnered national coach of the week accolades by the Dodd Trophy and The Athletic following Michigan State's 37-33 victory over No. 6 Michigan on Oct. 30, as he became the first Spartan coach to win his first two games against the Wolverines (27-24 victory at No. 13 Michigan on Oct. 31, 2020). Michigan State was ranked as high as No. 3 in the College Football Playoff rankings, matching its highest-ever CFP ranking, and was featured in all six CFP rankings during the 2021 season. In addition, the Spartans defeated three AP-ranked opponents (No. 24 Miami, No. 6 Michigan, No. 13 Pittsburgh) and seven bowl-eligible teams.

A total of 19 Spartans earned All-Big Ten honors in 2021, including Big Ten Running Back of the Year Kenneth Walker III, who became the first Spartan in school history to win the Walter Camp National Player of the Year and the Doak Walker Award. The unanimous first-team All-American ranked second in the FBS in rushing with 1,636 yards and was a second-round NFL Draft selection by the Seattle Seahawks. Four Spartans were drafted overall, the most for the program since 2016 (Walker; WR Jalen Nailor, sixth round, Minnesota; TE Connor Heyward, sixth round, Pittsburgh, OT AJ Arcuri, seventh round, LA Rams).

Tucker signed an updated contract on Nov. 24, 2021, that expires on Jan. 15, 2032. His contract includes non-performance related compensation of $9.5 million per year, including a $5.9 million base, $3.2 million in supplemental compensation for media and personal appearances, plus a $400,000 contingent annual bonus. The contract was approved by the MSU Board of Trustees on Dec. 17.

Before even coaching a game at Michigan State, Tucker helped lead the Spartan program through an offseason in 2020 that was filled with challenges. He demonstrated a forward-thinking approach for adjusting to adverse conditions, especially for a new staff, by adapting to the most up-to-date technology while maintaining connection. In response to societal issues, Tucker launched a website titled "Communicate, Educate, Resources" that contains a multitude of information on a variety of topics, including voting rights and registration, social justice causes and mental health awareness. A member of the Big Ten Anti-Hate and Anti-Racism Coalition, he has also invited numerous local and state government representatives, along with other industry leaders, to speak to the team. In addition, Tucker has embraced social media as a way to connect with the new Spartan fan base and recruits, bringing energy and enthusiasm to the program with his "Relentless" philosophy.

On the field, Tucker became just the second Spartan head coach, joining his mentor Saban, to beat Michigan in his first game against the Wolverines with a 27-23 win at Michigan Stadium over 13th-ranked U of M on Oct. 31. Tucker also recorded his first Top 10 win as head coach of the Spartans with a 29-20 triumph over eighth ranked and eventual Big Ten West Champion Northwestern on Nov. 28 in Spartan Stadium.

During his first season as a collegiate head coach at Colorado in 2019, Tucker posted wins against Washington, Stanford, Arizona State, Nebraska and Colorado State en route to a 5-7 overall record. The three Pac-12 wins were the second most by the Buffaloes since joining the conference in 2011. Six players earned All-Pac 12 honors, including first-team linebacker Nate Landman, who ranked fourth in the league with 109 tackles. Colorado's 2020 recruiting class was ranked No. 35 in the nation by 247Sports, the highest for the Buffaloes since 2008.

Prior to accepting the head coaching role at Colorado, Tucker spent three seasons (2016-18) as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Georgia. The Bulldogs were 32-9 under Tucker's leadership of the defensive unit and finished in the FBS Top 20 for total defense three consecutive years (No. 16 in 2016; No. 6 in 2017; No. 13 in 2018). One of the staff's top recruiters, Tucker was ranked as the No. 14 recruiter in the nation by 247Sports based off the class he helped signed before the 2018 season.

UGA had a banner year in 2017, finishing No. 2 in the national polls with a 13-2 record after winning the SEC title over Auburn and the College Football Playoff Semifinal at the Rose Bowl against Oklahoma, while playing in the CFP National Championship vs. Alabama. Georgia's defense finished second in the SEC and sixth nationally in both scoring defense (16.4 ppg) and in total defense (294.9 ypg), while also finishing second in the conference in rushing defense. Roquan Smith, who was named a unanimous All-American, won the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker and was the eighth-pick overall in 2018 NFL Draft. Tucker also mentored cornerback Deandre Baker at Georgia, who won the 2018 Jim Thorpe Award, was named a first-team All-American, and was drafted in the first round of the 2019 NFL Draft (No. 30 overall) by the Giants. Both Smith and Baker also earned first-team All-SEC honors. In 2021, cornerback Eric Stokes became the third Bulldog drafted in the first round that Tucker coached at Georgia, going to Green Bay at No. 29 overall. Three Bulldogs that played under Tucker at Georgia in 2018 were selected in the first round of the 2022 NFL Draft (DT Jordan Davis, No. 13, Philadelphia; LB Quay Walker, No. 22, Green Bay; DT Devonte Wyatt, No. 28, Green Bay).

Tucker arrived in Athens after helping Alabama win the 2015 national championship as the assistant head coach/defensive backs coach in his lone season in Tuscaloosa under Saban. Tucker worked with future NFL first-rounders and Pro Bowlers Marlon Humphrey and Minkah Fitzpatrick, along with first-team All-SEC safety and eventual Pro Bowler Eddie Jackson, during the Crimson Tide's national championship season, which included wins over Florida for the SEC Championship, Michigan State in the CFP Semifinal/Cotton Bowl, and Clemson in the CFP National Championship. It marked the third time Tucker was hired by Saban.

Saban originally gave Tucker his first job in the coaching profession as a graduate assistant at Michigan State for two seasons (1997-98), where he worked directly under Dantonio, the winningest coach in Spartan history.

Tucker landed his first full-time position in 1999 as a defensive backs coach at Miami (Ohio) for Terry Hoepfner, then reunited with Saban at LSU for one season in 2000 before joining Jim Tressel's staff at Ohio State for four years (2001-04) coaching defensive backs. Under Tressel, Tucker helped the Buckeyes go 14-0 in 2002 while winning the BCS National Championship over Miami (Fla.) in the Fiesta Bowl. Tucker, who was promoted to co-defensive coordinator in his final season at OSU in 2004, helped OSU collect a 40-11 record during his four seasons in Columbus. He also recruited exceptionally well for the Buckeyes, directly helping bring in four future first-round picks (WR Ted Ginn Jr.; WR Anthony Gonzalez; CB Vernon Gholston; DB Malcom Jenkins) and Troy Smith, the 2006 Heisman Trophy winner. During Tucker's time in Columbus, he coached four first-team All-Americans (S Mike Doss, S Will Allen, S Donte Whitner, LB A.J. Hawk) and four first-round NFL Draft picks on defense (CB Chris Gamble, S Donte Whitner; LB Bobby Carpenter, Hawk), along with multiple first-team All-Big Ten selections.

Following his successful stint at Ohio State, Tucker moved up to the professional ranks to coach his hometown Cleveland Browns as the secondary coach under Romeo Crennel, who had previously won a Super Bowl as a defensive coordinator for the Patriots. Tucker was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2008, and the Browns finished the season ranked second in the NFL in interceptions (23) and 16th in scoring defense (21.9 ppg). For his four seasons overall with Cleveland from 2005-08, the Browns ranked fifth in the league with 73 interceptions, seventh in passing yards allowed and gave up the fourth-fewest completions of 25-plus yards. Tucker continued his coaching career in the NFL with the Jacksonville Jaguars. He was hired by Jack Del Rio to be the defensive coordinator and secondary coach in 2009, then moved solely into the defensive coordinator role for the next two seasons. He served as the interim head coach for the final five games of the 2011 season, in which the Jaguars ranked sixth in the NFL in total defense (313.0 ypg). Tucker returned to Jacksonville for the 2012 season to be the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator under Mike Mularkey.

Tucker spent his last two seasons in the NFL as the defensive coordinator for the Chicago Bears working for Marc Trestman in 2013-14.

A 1995 graduate of the University of Wisconsin with his bachelor's degree in agricultural business management, Tucker was a member of the first recruiting class for Hall of Fame Coach Barry Alvarez. He lettered three times at both cornerback and safety from 1990-94 and was on the Badgers' 1993 Big Ten champion team that defeated UCLA in the Rose Bowl, 21-16. As a sophomore, he made a game-saving hit in the end zone with time running out that preserved a 19-16 win at Minnesota. He had 47 tackles and four pass deflections in his career (he missed his entire junior season after breaking a leg in fall camp).

Tucker remains close with several Badger teammates who have gone on to make their marks in football, including Troy Vincent (the NFL executive vice president for football operations), Chris Ballard (Indianapolis Colts general manager) and Darrell Bevell (Miami Dolphins passing game coordinator).

He was born Melvin Tucker II on Jan. 4, 1972, in Cleveland, Ohio, and graduated from Cleveland Heights High School, where he was an all-state performer in football and an all-conference basketball player. He is married to the former JoEllyn Haynesworth, who earned her undergraduate degree at the University of Illinois and her law degree from Rutgers University. The couple has two sons born on the same day (Feb. 18) two years apart, Joseph and Christian.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT COACH MEL TUCKER...

MARK DANTONIO,

WINNINGEST COACH IN MSU FOOTBALL HISTORY:

"I first came in contact with Mel when he was the graduate assistant here at Michigan State for Coach Saban. He did an outstanding job with the defensive backs. When I went to Ohio State to work for Coach Tressel, he asked me who should coach the secondary, and I immediately thought of Mel. He was a part of the national championship staff and has gone on to coach at the highest levels of football.

"Mel is charismatic, brings good energy, and is a very forward thinker. He's also an outstanding recruiter who connects with his players, but also holds them accountable. He's from the Midwest and has a Spartan background with knowledge of the Big Ten.

"I'm extremely excited for Mel and his family. I'm looking to support him in any way possible. Go Green!"

NICK SABAN,

ALABAMA HEAD FOOTBALL COACH:

"I've known Mel Tucker since my days coaching at Michigan State when he was a graduate assistant on our staff. Since then, Mel has made a name for himself as one of the best and brightest coaches in our profession. I believe he will do a tremendous job as the head coach of the Spartans. MSU is getting a guy with infinite class and a great personality, who is smart, works hard, and does it with an incredible amount of enthusiasm and positive energy. Mel is a tireless recruiter who knows the game of college football and understands what it will take to be successful in East Lansing."

BARRY ALVAREZ,

WISCONSIN ATHLETIC DIRECTOR:

"Mel was a part of my first recruiting class at Wisconsin and helped us turn the program around. He is an outstanding individual and a really good football person. His background, the people and the programs he has worked for and the success he's been a part of is very impressive. He's been successful at both the NFL and college level. He is truly a quality individual and it is great to have Mel back in the Big Ten Conference."

KIRBY SMART,

GEORGIA HEAD FOOTBALL COACH:

"I worked with Mel at Alabama and when I became the head coach at Georgia, a top priority was to bring Mel along in the defensive coordinator role. In his three years at UGA, he was a great coach, trusted friend and colleague, and role model for our players. Mel helped us build the foundation of the program we have at Georgia and I'm confident he'll be a great fit for the Spartans."

2022 GAME RECAPS

GAME 1 • NO. 15/14 MICHIGAN STATE 35, WESTERN MICHIGAN 13

Game 1 | No. 15/14 Michigan State 35, Western Michigan 13

Sept. 2, 2022 • East Lansing, Mich.

Spartan Stadium • Att: 73,928

Play-by-play, post-game quotes and notes available at msuspartans.com.

EAST LANSING, Mich. -- No. 15/14 Michigan State scored two touchdowns in less than three minutes in the fourth quarter to break open a close game en route to a 35-13 win over Western Michigan in front of 73,928 fans at Spartan Stadium under the Friday night lights on Sept. 2.

Redshirt junior quarterback Payton Thorne completed 12-of-24 passes for 233 yards and threw four touchdown passes to lead the way for the Spartans, while redshirt sophomore Jalen Berger had 16 carries for 120 yards and one touchdown. Sophomore wide receiver Keon Coleman caught four passes for 84 yards, including one touchdown, while redshirt junior wide receiver Tre Mosley had two catches for 51 yards and a score and freshman Germie Bernard caught a 44-yard touchdown pass.

Junior safety Angelo Grose and graduate linebacker Ben VanSumeren had 11 tackles apiece to lead the defense, while redshirt sophomore linebacker Cal Haladay and sophomore cornerback Charles Brantley each had 10 tackles. Senior linebacker Jacoby Windmon had seven tackles, four sacks for a loss of 17 yards and one forced fumble.

Western Michigan got on the board first as Palmer Domschke hit a 27-yard field goal with 6:31 left in the first quarter, but the Spartans scored touchdowns on their next three drives to take a 21-3 lead.

Bernard scored his first career touchdown as Thorne connected on a 44-yard score to the true freshman from Las Vegas with 4:37 remaining in the first quarter.

MSU pushed its lead to 14-3 on a one-handed grab in the left corner of the south end zone by Daniel Barker, marking the Illinois' transfer first career touchdown wearing the Green and White.

The Spartans took a 21-3 advantage on Coleman's 41-yard touchdown reception with 12:26 left in the second quarter.

Following a Spartan turnover on their first possession of the second half, the Broncos took advantage with a seven-play, 67-yard drive, capped by a Sean Tyler 4-yard touchdown run at the 8:20 mark to make it 21-10.

The Broncos made it a one-possession game on Domschke's second field goal of the night, this time from 42 yards out with 49 seconds left in the third quarter.

Michigan State responded with an eight-play, 91-yard touchdown drive to take a 28-13 lead. Berger, whose 50-yard run set up MSU in the red zone, finished the drive on fourth down with a 1-yard score, his first TD as a Spartan.

On the next possession, Western Michigan took over with 6:28 on the clock and moved to near midfield before turning it over on downs at its 43-yard line. Taking over with 4:07 left, Thorne threw a pass up the middle on the first play and connected with Mosley for the touchdown, giving the Spartans a 35-13 lead.

POST-GAME NOTES:

• The Spartans are 8-0 in home Friday night games since 2011 and 10-0 overall in Friday night games during that same time span . . . all of those Friday night games were in season openers for the Spartans.

Senior defensive lineman/linebacker Jacoby Windmon, a transfer from UNLV, had a spectacular debut as a Spartan in MSU's 35-13 season-opening win over Western Michigan. The New Orleans native recorded a career-high four sacks (17 yards), including a forced fumble, and had seven tackles overall while starting at defensive end. Windmon was named the Walter Camp Football Foundation National Defensive Player of the Week and the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week.

EAST LANSING, Mich. -- No. 14/11 Michigan State improved to 2-0 on the season with a 52-0 shutout over Akron on Sept. 10 in Spartan Stadium, accumulating nearly 500 yards in total offense, including 260 rushing yards.

The Spartans had six rushing touchdowns in the game, led by redshirt sophomore Jalen Berger, who had three TDs in addition to 107 yards on the ground.

Graduate running back Jarek Broussard had 15 carries for 81 yards and two touchdowns, while senior Elijah Collins had eight carries for 57 yards and one score. Redshirt junior quarterback Payton Thorne completed 18-of-28 passes for 212 yards.

Senior linebacker Jacoby Windmon, had five tackles, 1.5 sacks and 2.5 tackles-for-loss, along with three forced fumbles and one fumble recovery to lead the defensive unit. Graduate cornerback Ameer Speed led the team with nine tackles, while junior safety Angelo Grose and senior defensive back Kendell Brooks had seven tackles apiece.

Michigan State forced two early turnovers, which both resulted in touchdowns. On Akron's first drive, Brooks -- who made his first career start at safety in the absence of Xavier Henderson -- forced a fumble that was then recovered and returned 21 yards by Cal Haladay. The Spartans scored their first touchdown of the day on Broussard's 1-yard score at the 8:29 mark in the first quarter; it marked his first career touchdown for the Green and White.

Later in the first quarter, Windmon forced his second fumble in as many games, and MSU took advantage of the short field going 45 yards on eight plays, capped by a 1-yard Berger touchdown.

Windmon was at it again in the second quarter, recovering a fumble -- Akron's third turnover of the half -- setting up MSU for another touchdown drive. Berger scored his second touchdown of the day on another 1-yard run to make it 21-0 in favor of MSU with 2:16 left in the half.

Freshman Jack Stone connected on his first career field goal from 43 yards out with just one second remaining in the first half to put MSU on top, 24-0.

The Spartans were right back at it in the third quarter with four more touchdowns. Following a Spartan turnover to start the second half, Haladay forced the Zips' fourth turnover of the game on a sack fumble, which again resulted in an MSU touchdown. On the ensuing series, Noah Kim threw his first career touchdown pass with a 16-yard strike to Tre Mosley in the end zone.

MSU added three more rushing scores in the third to make it 52-0 in favor of the Spartans. Broussard scored his second touchdown of the game from 2 yards out at the 7:58 mark, while Berger scored his third touchdown of the game, a 2-yard run, to cap a 7-play, 60-yard drive with 3:59 left in the quarter. Collins capped the final scoring drive with a 1-yard run with 21 seconds remaining in the third.

POST-GAME NOTES:

• Michigan State shut out Akron, 52-0, marking MSU's first shutout since a 27-0 win at Rutgers on Nov. 23, 2019 . . . it was MSU's first shutout win at Spartan Stadium since a 49-0 victory over Rutgers on Nov. 16, 2016 . . . the 52-0 margin was the largest shutout victory for the Spartans since a 54-0 win over Indiana on Sept. 28, 1957.

Redshirt sophomore running back Jalen Berger rushed for a career-high three rushing TDs, nearly matching his previous career total of four, as he had one each in four previous games, including three during his time at Wisconsin, and most recently in his MSU debut last week vs. Western Michigan (9/2/22) . . . Berger's three rushing TDs were the most by a Spartan running back since Kenneth Walker III's five TDs last season vs. Michigan (10/30/21) . . . Berger rushed for 107 yards on 17 carries, for his second consecutive 100-yard outing after 120 yards, and a new career-high for rushing attempts for the second week in a row after 16 carries last week vs. WMU.

Game 3 | Washington 39, No. 11/9 Michigan State 28

Sept. 17, 2022 • Seattle, Wash.

Husky Stadium • Att: 68,161

Play-by-play, post-game quotes and notes available at msuspartans.com.

SEATTLE -- The No. 11/9 Michigan State football team fell at Washington, 39-28, on Sept. 17 before a crowd of 68,161 at Alaska Airlines Field at Husky Stadium.

Spartan quarterback Payton Thorne completed 30-of-42 passes for 323 yards and three touchdowns, while sophomore wide receiver Keon Coleman recorded career highs in receptions (9), receiving yards (116) and touchdown catches (2). Tight end Daniel Barker also had seven catches for 69 yards and Tre Mosley hauled in five passes for 64 yards, including a 26-yard touchdown.

Three Spartans had eight tackles apiece – Kendell Brooks, Simeon Barrow and Cal Haladay – to pace the defense.

Quarterback Michael Penix Jr. was 24-of-40 passing for 397 yards and four touchdowns to lead the Huskies.

Washington (3-0) scored a touchdown on its first series to quickly go up 7-0 as Penix threw an 8-yard TD pass to Ja'Lynn Polk. Later in the first, the Spartans stopped the Huskies on four consecutive runs inside the MSU 1-yard line, but on the ensuing series, Jarek Broussard was stopped for a safety, making it 9-0 in favor of Washington.

The Huskies then took advantage of good field position, driving 50 yards on just six plays, capped by a Cameron Davis 1-yard touchdown run. Washington increased its lead to 22-0 on a 19-yard Penix touchdown pass to Wayne Taulapapa with 8:32 left in the half.

The Spartans got on the board at the 1:30 mark in the second quarter as Thorne found Coleman in the end zone on fourth down for a 7-yard score. Coleman also caught the two-point conversion pass to cut into the Huskies lead, 22-8; however, Penix drove the Huskies down the field just before the half and threw his third TD pass of the first half with a 17-yard strike to Polk in the back corner of the end zone.

MSU received the ball first to start the second half and drove 75 yards on eight plays for a touchdown as Mosley caught a 26-yard pass in the end zone on fourth-and-6 from the UW 26. The Spartans failed to convert the two-point conversion, making it 29-14.

On the ensuing series, Washington answered with another touchdown pass by Penix, this time a 53-yarder to Polk for his third TD reception of the game to put UW on top, 36-14, with 11:02 remaining in the third.

In the fourth quarter, the Huskies tacked on a field goal to go up, 39-14, but the Spartans rallied back with two touchdowns to cut the margin to 39-28. Elijah Collins had a 1-yard TD run for the second straight game to cap an eight-play, 70-yard drive with 6:51 left in the game, and Thorne connected with Coleman on a 33-yard pass for his second TD of the game. On the second touchdown of the fourth quarter, Thorne found Coleman in the end zone for a two-point conversion.

The Spartans failed to recover the ensuing onside kick, but did force a Washington punt to get the ball back; however, MSU turned the ball over on downs with 2:52 left and the Huskies ran out the clock to win the game.

Sophomore wide receiver Keon Coleman had a career-high with his nine receptions for 116 yards and two TDs, all career bests, with the first 100-yard receiving outing of his Spartan career . . . Coleman topped his previous career-highs of four catches, 84 yards and one TD . . . Coleman snared his first multi-TD outing and his third career TD catch . . . Coleman added his first-ever two-point conversion of his career on the ensuing point after attempt following his second-quarter TD catch and added his second two-point conversion in the fourth quarter for MSU's final score of the night.

EAST LANSING, Mich. -- Michigan State fell to Minnesota, 34-7, before a crowd of 74,587 at Spartan Stadium on Sept. 24.

Redshirt junior quarterback Payton Thorne completed 17-of-24 passes for 132 yards, while redshirt sophomore quarterback Noah Kim completed 6-of-7 passes for 70 yards and a touchdown on the final drive.

Senior defensive back Kendell Brooks led the defensive unit with 18 tackles, eight solo, while redshirt sophomore linebacker Cal Haladay had 12 tackles, including one for loss. Junior safety Angelo Grose and graduate linebacker Ben VanSumeren each had 11 tackles.

Minnesota scored touchdowns on its first two possessions to take a 14-0 lead in the first quarter. Mohamed Ibrahim capped a 10-play, 75-yard scoring drive on the first series of the game with a 2-yard rushing TD, and Tanner Morgan threw a 23-yard TD to Daniel Jackson on the next series for the Gophers.

Minnesota pushed its lead to 17-0 on Matthew Trickett's 26-yard field goal at the 10:14 mark in the second quarter.

The Spartans took the opening drive of the second half down to the Minnesota 6-yard line, but on first-and-goal, Thorne fumbled on a rushing attempt and the Gophers recovered. Minnesota responded with a long 12-play, 90-yard touchdown drive that took 6:53 off the clock, capped by Morgan's 6-yard TD pass to Nick Kallerup.

Morgan threw his third touchdown pass of the game early in the fourth quarter on a 4-yard pass to Jackson to make it 31-0. Trickett hit his second field goal, this time from 22 yards out, with 1:48 left in the game.

The Spartans got on the board in the final minute, with Kim engineering an eight-play, 75-yard drive over 1:31, throwing a 27-yard scoring strike to freshman wide receiver Germie Bernard with 17 seconds left.

POST-GAME NOTES:

- The loss snapped MSU's five-game win streak in the all-time series vs. Minnesota, as it was the Gophers' first win in the series since 2009 . . . the Spartans still lead the all-time series, 30-18, including 17-7 in East Lansing, as Saturday's visit by Minnesota was the Gophers' first visit since Michigan State's Big Ten Championship season in 2013.

- Senior safety Kendell Brooks led the Spartan defense with a career-high 18 tackles (eight solo, 10 assists) . . . it marks the most tackles by a Spartan since Eric Smith had 19 against Notre Dame on Sept. 18, 2004.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- The Michigan State football team fell at Maryland, 27-13, Saturday afternoon at SECU Stadium.

Payton Thorne was 27-of-44 passing for the Spartans for 221 yards and one touchdown. Jayden Reed led MSU with a season-high seven catches for 61 yards, including an 8-yard TD catch in the second quarter.

Senior linebacker Ben VanSumeren and sixth-year senior cornerback Ameer Speed both recorded a career high in tackles, with 14 and 12 apiece, respectively.

Terrapin quarterback Taulia Tagovailoa completed 32-of-41 throws for 314 yards and one touchdown.

Maryland (4-1, 1-1 Big Ten) scored on its first possession, driving 93 yards on 12 plays, capped by a 15-yard touchdown run by Antwain Littleton II.

The Spartans quickly responded on their first series to tie the game at 7 as Elijah Collins raced 8 yards into the end zone for his third rushing touchdown of the season.

Colby McDonald's 2-yard rushing TD with 3:41 left in the first quarter put Maryland back on top, 14-7.

To open the second quarter, MSU drove the ball to the Maryland 8-yard line, but a holding penalty stalled the drive and the Spartans eventually missed a 33-yard field-goal attempt by Ben Patton.

After forcing a second straight Terrapin punt, the Spartans cut their deficit one at 14-13 with 4:24 left in the first half. Thorne found Reed in the corner of the end zone for an 8-yard touchdown pass to cap a 12-play, 85-yard drive that took 5:53 off the clock, but MSU did not convert the extra-point attempt.

Right before the half, Maryland pushed its lead to 21-13 on Rakim Jarrett's 5-yard touchdown catch from Tagovailoa which finished off a 13-play, 80-yard drive by the Terrapins.

Maryland's Chad Ryland connected on a 43-yard field goal at the 8:26 mark in the third quarter, tying a Big Ten record with his 24th consecutive field goal while putting the Terrapins up, 24-13.

Although Ryland missed a 50-yard field goal later in the third quarter, he did make his next attempt from 51-yards out to make it 27-13 in favor of Maryland with 7:54 left in the contest.

EAST LANSING, Mich. -- The Michigan State football team fell to No. 3 Ohio State, 49-20, before a crowd of 72,809 on Oct. 8 at Spartan Stadium.

Jayden Reed had four catches for 67 yards for the Spartans, including an 18-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter, while Tre Mosley had a season-high six receptions for 40 yards. Quarterback Payton Thorne was 11-of-18 for 113 yards, one TD and one interception, while Noah Kim completed 6-of-10 passes for 82 yards, including a 25-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter to Montorie Foster (three catches, 54 yards overall).

Justin White led the Spartans with 11 tackles, while Kendell Brooks had 10 tackles and Charles Brantley registered eight tackles and had a 32-yard interception return for a touchdown.

After a Spartan interception on their first series, Ohio State scored on its first possession, driving 80 yards on seven plays, capped by a CJ Stroud 19-yard touchdown pass to Marvin Harrison Jr.

The Spartans tied it at 7 midway through the first quarter as Brantley picked off a Stroud pass and raced 32 yards into the end zone. It marked MSU's first interception of the season and first pick-six since Cal Haladay returned a pass 78 yards in the win over Pittsburgh in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

OSU responded with a 69-yard touchdown pass from Stroud to Emeka Egbuka at the 7:11 mark in the first to put the Buckeyes back on top, 14-7.

Stroud threw his third touchdown pass of the game on the second play of the second quarter, completing a 51-yard strike to Julian Fleming.

The Spartans cut the deficit to 21-13 with 10:43 left in the first half on Reed's 18-yard touchdown catch in the corner of the end zone.

Ohio State scored two more touchdowns before the half, first on a TreVeyon Henderson 1-yard run at the 7:05 mark, and then on a 28-yard catch by Harrison with 1:20 left, giving the Buckeyes a 35-13 lead at the break.

Harrison caught his third touchdown pass of the game on a 19-yard catch to cap a nine-play, 96-yard drive to open the second half. Gee Scott Jr. had a 2-yard TD reception with 3:04 left in the third quarter for Stroud's sixth touchdown pass.

The Spartans got on the board again late in the fourth quarter when Kim engineered an eight-play, 80-yard drive over 3:10, completing five passes for 70 yards, including the 32-yard scoring strike to Foster.

Sophomore cornerback Charles Brantley intercepted a C.J. Stroud pass in the first quarter and raced 32 yards to the end zone for Michigan State's first touchdown of the day . . . it marked MSU's first interception of the season and first pick-six since Cal Haladay had a 78-yard pick-six in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

Game 7 | Michigan State 34, Wisconsin 28 (2OT)

Oct. 15, 2022 • East Lansing, Mich.

Spartan Stadium • Att: 72,526

Play-by-play, post-game quotes and notes available at msuspartans.com.

EAST LANSING, Mich. -- Michigan State redshirt junior quarterback Payton Thorne threw a 27-yard touchdown pass to fifth-year graduate senior wide receiver Jayden Reed in the second overtime period and the Spartans beat Wisconsin, 34-28, in front of 72,526 fans at Spartan Stadium on Homecoming, Oct. 15.

Thorne completed 21-of-28 passes for 265 yards and threw two touchdown passes, while Reed caught nine passes for 117 yards and one score and threw a 25-yard touchdown pass in overtime, and sophomore wide receiver Keon Coleman had five receptions for 79 yards and two touchdowns. Redshirt sophomore running back Jalen Berger carried the ball 16 times for 60 yards and had one touchdown and senior running back Elijah Collins has 14 for 43 yards and a score.

Senior linebacker Jacoby Windmon led the defensive unit with 11 tackles, including two for loss, while redshirt sophomore Cal Haladay had nine tackles, junior safety Angelo Grose had eight tackles and freshman defensive back Dillon Tatum added six stops. Windmon caused both turnovers - he had his first career interception in the first quarter, and forced a fumble on Wisconsin's second possession of overtime.

It marked MSU's first win in overtime since a 23-20 win over Nebraska last season in Spartan Stadium.

Wisconsin scored on its first series of the game, driving 63 yards on 11 plays while taking 5:27 off the clock, capped by a 1-yard run on fourth down by Braelon Allen.

The Spartans drove the ball down to the Wisconsin 10-yard line on their second series to set up first-and-goal, but Collins was stopped short of the end zone on fourth down from the 1-yard line.

MSU got the ball right back in great field position as Windmon intercepted his first career pass at the Wisconsin 12-yard line, setting up Berger's 12-yard TD run that tied the game at 7 with just 20 seconds left in the opening quarter. Wisconsin regained the lead on another 1-yard touchdown run at the 10:21 mark in the second quarter.

Trailing 14-7 at the half, Michigan State tied it at 14 with less than a minute left in the third quarter following an eight-play, 97-yard touchdown drive that was finished off by a 1-yard run by Collins. Maliq Carr's 72-yard reception - MSU's longest pass of the year - set up the touchdown for Collins.

The Spartans took their first lead of the game midway through the fourth quarter when Thorne capped a six play, 65-yard drive with a 27-yard touchdown pass to Coleman with just over seven minutes left in the game.

The Badgers came right back and tied the game at 21-all on a 3-yard touchdown pass from Graham Mertz with under two minutes left. MSU took the ball over with 1:55 left and drove to the Wisconsin 29-yard line, but were not able to take the lead on a field goal attempt as the clock expired, sending it to overtime.

Wisconsin won the coin flip in overtime and chose to defend first and the Spartans struck quickly, with Reed throwing a 25-yard touchdown pass to Coleman on the first play, giving MSU a 28-21 lead. Facing a third-and-10 on its first possession, Wisconsin's Mertz completed a 25-yard pass to Chimere Dike to tie the game.

In the second overtime, Windmon forced a fumble on Wisconsin's first play, giving MSU the ball back on the 25-yard line. After two plays and facing a third-and-12, Thorne connected with Reed on a 27-yard pass in the corner of the north end zone, giving MSU the thrilling 34-28 win.

Graduate senior wide receiver Jayden Reed caught a 27-yard touchdown pass from redshirt junior quarterback Payton Thorne in the second overtime period and the Spartans beat Wisconsin, 34-28. . . . Reed had nine catches for 117 yards and his TD reception in the second OT. . . . Reed also threw a 25-yard TD pass to sophomore wide receiver Keon Coleman in the first overtime that was MSU's first TD pass from a non-quarterback since senior Darrell Stewart Jr. to Brian Lewerke vs. Michigan on Oct. 20, 2018.

ANN ARBOR, Mich. -- The Michigan State football team fell at No. 4/4 Michigan, 29-7, on the night of Oct. 30 at Michigan Stadium.

Payton Thorne was 17-of-30 passing for 215 yards and one touchdown for Michigan State, while Keon Coleman had five catches for a career-high 155 yards and one TD.

Defensively, three Spartans recorded double-digit tackles: Cal Haladay (13), Jacoby Windmon (12) and Kendell Brooks (11).

The Wolverines got on the board first with a 22-yard Jake Moody field goal at the 2:20 mark in the first quarter, but the Spartans did hold Michigan out of the end zone after it had first-and-goal from the 4-yard line.

MSU responded on its next drive with two long catches by Coleman, first on a 29-yard reception to the UM 39-yard line, then on a 26-yard leaping grab in the end zone that gave the Spartans a 7-3 lead with 23 seconds left in the opening quarter.

Michigan regained the lead on its next possession, driving 80 yards on eight plays, capped by a 2-yard pass from J.J. McCarthy to Blake Corum.

The Spartans drove 68 yards on 10 plays to the UM 5-yard line on their next possession, but Jalen Berger was stopped for a 2-yard loss on fourth-and-inches to prevent MSU from taking the lead.

Moody connected on his second field goal, this time from 25 yards out with 1:08 left in the second quarter, as Michigan took a 13-7 lead into the half.

Moody tacked on two field goals in the third quarter, from 39 yards and 33 yards, to put the Wolverines on top, 19-7.

Moody made his fifth field goal from the game on a career-long 54-yarder early in the fourth quarter, giving Michigan a 15-point lead at 22-7.

Michigan took advantage of good field position on the MSU 8-yard line after a bad snap on a punt and Corum scored a 4-yard touchdown to make it 29-7 with 12:47 left in the game.

Game 9 | Michigan State 23, No. 16 Illinois 15

Nov. 5, 2022 • Champaign, Ill.

Memorial Stadium • Att: 56,092

Play-by-play, post-game quotes and notes available at msuspartans.com.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. -- The Michigan State football team defeated No. 16 Illinois on a windy, blustery day at Memorial Stadium on Saturday afternoon. The victory over the Illini, who were also ranked No. 13 in the AFCA Coaches Poll and No. 14 in the AP Poll, snapped Illinois' six-game winning streak and gave the Spartans (4-5, 2-4 Big Ten) their first win over a ranked opponent this season.

Facing steady winds of more than 25 mph, Payton Thorne was 19-of-29 passing for 182 yards and two touchdowns for the Spartans, while Jayden Reed had five catches for 68 yards, including a 16-yard TD in the third quarter. Jalen Berger led MSU on the ground with 81 yards on 15 carries, and also had three receptions for 29 yards.

Michigan State's defense had three sacks and nine tackles for loss, led by redshirt sophomore Cal Haladay, who had a career-high 3.5 TFLs for 10 yards. Aaron Brule had five stops and 1.5 TFLs, including an 8-yard sack. MSU collected five fourth-down stops in the game.

The nation's leading punter, Bryce Baringer averaged 49.6 yards per punt and placed four of his five punts inside the 20.

The Spartans turned the ball over on their first possession on a Thorne interception, but the defense held the Illini out of the end zone after Illinois failed to convert on first-and-goal from the 3-yard line. It marked MSU's fourth fourth-and-goal stop of the season.

Illinois (7-2, 4-2) did find the end zone on its next possession as Isaiah Williams caught a short pass and raced 60 yards down the sideline for a touchdown, putting the Illini on top, 7-0.

The Spartans responded with a long 14-play, 72-yard scoring drive that took 6:27 off the clock and was capped by a 21-yard field goal by Ben Patton, his first career field goal as a Spartan.

Michigan State took the lead on Tre Mosley's 1-yard touchdown grab on third-and-goal at the 10:21 mark in the second quarter, but Ben Patton missed the PAT to make it 9-7 in favor of MSU.

Taking a 9-7 lead into halftime, the Spartans took advantage of a bad Illinois punt midway through the third quarter and converted the good field position into a quick six-play, 29-yard touchdown drive to go up 16-7 at the 5:45 mark. Taking over on the Illini 29-yard line after a 6-yard punt by Hugh Robertson, Jarek Broussard capped the scoring drive with an 11-yard touchdown run.

On the ensuing Illini drive, the Spartans made another fourth-down stop, setting up good field position once again at the UI 41-yard line. MSU quickly converted, scoring three plays later as Thorne found Reed in the corner of the end zone on a 16-yard touchdown pass to put MSU on top, 23-7, with 2:57 left in the third.

The Fighting Illini made it a one-score game at 23-15 early in the fourth quarter on Williams' second TD reception, this time a flip pass for 7 yards; Illinois then converted the two-point conversion.

The Spartans had two fourth-down stops in the fourth quarter to prevent Illinois from tying the game. With Illinois driving down the field on the last minute of the game, MSU made one last stop on the last play, a third-and-10 from the MSU 27-yard line, to seal the victory.

Graduate senior safety Xavier Henderson registered his second forced fumble in as many games for his second of the season and fourth of his career with the second-quarter force . . . Henderson also anchored a Spartan defense that posted a goal line stand as part of five fourth-down stops and registered 9.0 tackles for loss, tying their most in a B1G game this season . . . the MSU defense held Illinois to just 153 yards rushing and just 3.26 yards/rush, both second-lowest of the season for the Illini.

EAST LANSING, Mich. -- Michigan State redshirt junior quarterback Payton Thorne threw two touchdown passes and kicker Ben Patton added two fourth quarter field goals as the Spartans beat Rutgers, 27-21, on the afternoon of Nov. 12, in front of 63,267 at Spartan Stadium.

Michigan State improves to 5-5 overall (3-4 Big Ten), while the Scarlet Knights fall to 4-6 (1-6 Big Ten).

Thorne completed 19-of 35 passes for 256 yards and two touchdowns, one to redshirt senior receiver Jayden Reed, who caught 10 passes for 90 yards, and the second to fifth-year tight end Daniel Barker, who had four catches for 64 yards. Redshirt sophomore running back Jalen Berger had 16 carries for 85 yards and one touchdown, while fifth-year running back Jarek Broussard finished with 11 carries for 80 yards.

Redshirt sophomore linebacker Cal Haladay led the defense with 19 tackles, including one for loss, while Kendell Brooks had 10, redshirt senior linebacker Ben VanSumeren added eight, including one sack and one tackle-for-loss, and sixth-year cornerback Ronald Williams had seven tackles.

The Spartans dominated the first quarter, outgaining the Scarlet Knights, 178 yards to 44, while taking a 7-0 lead on a 26-yard Barker touchdown catch.

Although Bryce Baringer, the nation's leading punter, booted a 64-yard punt that was downed at the Rutgers 4-yard line, the Scarlet Knights drove 96 yards on nine plays to tie it at 7 with 5:56 left in the second quarter. Gavin Wimsatt found Avery Young in the end zone for an 18-yard reception for the Rutgers touchdown.

The Spartans responded with a 10-play, 73-yard scoring drive to take a 14-7 lead into halftime. Thorne's 35-yard pass to Reed set up first-and-goal for MSU, and Berger finished the drive with a 2-yard TD run.

After forcing a punt on Rutgers' first possession of the third quarter, MSU marched 86 yards on just five plays to go up 21-7, capped by a 25-yard touchdown pass from Thorne to Reed.

Rutgers made it a one-score game late in the third quarter as Johnny Langan found the end zone on a 1-yard run at the 1:30 mark.

In the fourth quarter, the Scarlet Knights took more than six minutes off the clock to begin the quarter and drove the ball to the MSU 21-yard line, but after a third-down penalty, they were forced to attempt a 39-yard field goal, which was then blocked by Jacob Slade.

The Spartans made it a two-score game once again at 24-14 as Patton connected on a 35-yard field goal with 6:28 left in the game.

Rutgers turned the ball over on downs with just under five minutes left following a sack by fifth-year linebacker Aaron Brule and after four plays, Patton booted a 48-yard field goal with 3:22 to play, giving the Spartans a 27-21 lead.

Rutgers pulled to within 27-21 on a 31-yard touchdown score with 47 seconds left, but Tre Mosley recovered the onside kick for the Spartans to preserve the victory.

Redshirt sophomore linebacker Cal Haladay recorded a career-high 19 tackles, the most by a Spartan since Eric Smith had 19 against Notre Dame on Sept. 18, 2004. . . Haladay also had a 3-yard tackle for loss . . . Haladay earned Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week honors for the second-straight week for his performance, as the 19 tackles are the most by a Big Ten player this season . . . Haladay spearheaded a Spartan defense that had six tackles for loss (42 yards) and three sacks overall (33 yards) in the game.
